Preface

THE preparation of a new edition of the Bible Songs was given by the Board of Publication to a committee in February 1899. Nothing was done until the fall of that year, but since then, as there was opportunity amid busy occupations, the work has been prosecuted steadily. The book of praise now offered to the Church is the result of painstaking toil, no effort having been spared to make it worthy of its sacred purpose. While projected on the same lines as the edition of 1890, it is larger and has several improvements.

In the course of the three hundred and twenty-eight selections each Psalm in regular order is completed, though here and there its parts are chosen from different meters. By printing the entire Psalm the book is adapted to the whole range of congregational worship, should such use be desired. The multiplication of sections may be questioned, but it has a decided gain. The fault of announcing only opening stanzas is very general, and the partitioning of Psalms lifts into notice passages of peculiar interest which otherwise would be unsung. In the division of Psalms their structure has been kept in mind, so as not to mar the succession of thought. Exceptions to this rule are found in the long historical Psalms, and arise from the mechanical necessities of paging. Additional to one full setting of the Psalms there are extra numbers, and these include a few groupings of separated but related stanzas within a Psalm. The Psalms that are prized most highly have special treatment, there being two or more insertions of each under effective music. Choruses sufficient to meet reasonable demand are employed, and care has been taken to see that they suit the sentiment of the section to which they are joined. Ordinarily their wording is the authorized metrical text, but some are drawn from the prose versions.

The selection of music engaged studious attention. The tests of what was adopted were fitness to express the spiritual utterances of the Psalter, genuinely musical quality, promise of lasting value, and popular adaptation. Melodies of animated movement and simple harmony prevail. With them are combined tunes of more scholarly character, having those finer effects sought by the advancing culture of our day. Among the latter are English and German chorals, and others constructed on their model. One hundred and twelve of the best and most durable pieces in the old Bible Songs are carried over, so that there is enough of familiar music to make the book immediately available for all. The provision of new music is liberal, and insures ample variety and freshness. No less than two hundred and forty-five tunes are introduced for the first time. Of these there are one hundred and twenty-nine which have been written especially for this edition by composers of experience and note, and which add largely to its resources. The remainder of the new music has been gleaned from standard publications of recent date. For permission to use copyrighted music gratuitously acknowledgments are due, and are hereby made, to J. W. Bischoff, the David C. Cook Publishing Company, the Oliver Ditson Company, W. H. Doane, W. Irving Hartshorn, J. B. Herbert, John J. Hood, H. H. McGranahan, A. B. Morton, L. W. Munhall, H. R. Palmer, Theo. E. Perkins, W. O. Perkins, Geo. C. Stebbins, Laura A. Tate, W. T. Wiley, Robt. H. Wilson, and others.

An important feature of the book is a system of headings which embody commonly the leading strain or subject of the Psalm. It is believed that they will contribute meaning to the service of song. The names of tunes and the copyright captions which they displace appear below the music. A topical index, analyzing the rich content of the Psalms and supplying a ready reference for both doctrinal and practical themes, is appended.

With this brief preface the book is sent forth upon its mission. It presents anew the immortal songs of the Holy Spirit, those grand hymns of the Psalter which have been sung in far-off countries and centuries long ago, which were chanted by our Lord and His Apostles, and which with their measured language of Christian feeling and devotion will abide until the end. The prayer of those who have wrought upon it is that it may prove a blessing wherever used, making the worship of God attractive and delightful, and ministering to the sanctification of old and young.

As originally constituted the committee included the late Rev. W. J. Robinson, D.D., LL.D., of Allegheny, but by his early death it was deprived of the valuable aid which he would have rendered. His name has grateful mention for what he accomplished in the past on behalf of the Church's psalmody.

Pleadings Of Prayer

PSALM 5. 7s

Arr. by C. MARION COUCH

1. O Je - ho - vah, hear my words, And my med - i - ta - tion weigh ;
 2. In the morn - ing, Lord, my voice Thou shalt hear in sup - pliant cries ;
 3. Thou, Je - ho - vah, art a God Who in sin can - not de - light ;
 4. E - vil - do - ers Thou dost hate, Li - ars all de - stroyed shall be ;

Hear my cry, my King, my God, For to Thee, O Lord, I'll pray.
 In the morn - ing, Lord, to Thee I will lift my wait - ing eyes.
 E - vil shall not dwell with Thee, Nor shall fools stand in Thy sight.
 Men of blood and of de - ceit Ev - er are ab - horred by Thee.

5 But in Thy abundant grace
 To Thy house will I draw near ;
 To Thy holy temple, Lord,
 I will look, and bow in fear.

6 Lead me in Thy righteousness ;
 Evermore my steps maintain ;
 And because of watchful foes,
 Make Thy way before me plain.

7 In their mouth there is no truth,
 All their heart is full of wrong,
 Like an open grave their throat ;
 And they flatter with their tongue.

8 Let transgressors be destroyed,
 In their sins by Thee expelled ;
 By their counsels let them fall,
 For against Thee they rebelled.

9 But let all in Thee who trust,
 Ever glad and joyful be ;
 Let them joy who love Thy name,
 Safely guarded, Lord, by Thee.

10 For Jehovah to the just
 Will abundant blessings yield,
 And with favour compass him
 Safely round as with a shield.

Prayer For Guidance

PSALM 5. 7s. 1-3, 5, 6

J. W. BISCHOFF

1. O Je - ho - vah, hear my words, And my med - i - ta - tion weigh ;
 2. In the morn - ing, Lord, my voice Thou shalt hear in sup - pliant cries ;
 3. Thou, Je - ho - vah, art a God Who in sin can - not de - light ;

PSALM 7. S. M.

AARON WILLIAMS

1. O Lord, my God, in Thee Do I my trust re - pose;
2. Lest they my soul should tear, And like a li - on rend,
3. Lord, if Thy search - ing eye, This crime in me, hath seen;
4. If e - vil I re - paid To one with me at peace,

- 5 Then let the foe in strife
Pursue me as his prey,
Tread down upon the earth my life,
In dust my honor lay.
- 6 In wrath lift up Thy hand;
My foes are filled with rage;
Awake, and as Thou didst command,
On my behalf engage.
- 7 So saints with one accord
Around Thee shall draw nigh;
And therefore for their sakes, O Lord,
Do Thou return on high.

- 8 Thou, Lord, shalt judge all flesh;
In judgment take my part,
According to my righteousness,
And purity of heart.
- 9 Let sin no longer be,
Whilst God the just sustains,
For God is righteous, and doth see,
And try the heart and reins.
- 10 God saves the pure in heart;
He shields me in my way;
In judgment takes the just man's part,
Hates sinners every day.

 May sing Thy praise with cheerful voice:
 In that salvation Thou dost bring,
 Redeemed from death I will rejoice.

 Which He in righteousness has wrought;
 The hands of sinners make the snares,
 The snares with which themselves are caught.

 And nations that forget the Lord:
 The needy shall not be forgot,
 Nor poor men lose their hoped reward.

PSALM 14. L. M.

GEORGE KINGSLEY

1. The God Who sits en - throned on high The fool doth in his heart de - ny;
 2. From heav'n with searching eye the Lord Did all the sons of men re - gard;
 3. From righteous ways they all de - part; All are cor - rupt and vile in heart;
 4. Has knowledge from the wick - ed fled, That they My peo - ple eat as bread?

Cor - rupt are they, vile works have done, And do - ing good there is not one.
 To see if a - ny un - der - stood, If a - ny one were seek - ing God.
 A - mong them do - ing good is none, A - mong them all not e - ven one.
 That they de - light in works of shame, And call not on Je - ho - vah's name?

("Kingsley")

- 5 There fearful terror on them fell,
 For God doth with the righteous dwell;
 The poor man's counsel you despise,
 Because in God his refuge lies.
- 6 May Israel's help from Zion come;
 When God shall bring His captives home,
 Then Jacob greatly shall rejoice,
 And Israel shout with gladsome voice.

 Their mouth speaks loftily;
 Our steps they compassed, and to earth
 They, bowing, set their eye;

 And greedy of his prey,
 Or lion young, which lurking doth
 In secret places stay.
- 11 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
 And cast him down, O Lord;
 Save Thou my soul from wicked men,
 From men who are Thy sword.

 From worldly men me save,
 Who only in this present life
 Their part and portion have.
- 13 They with Thy hidden wealth are filled,
 And many children have;
 The rest of their abundant wealth
 They to their children leave.
- 14 But as for me, I Thy own face
 In righteousness shall see;
 And with Thy likeness when I wake
 I satisfied shall be.

1. Thee will I love, O Lord, my might, My rock, my help, my sav - ing pow'r,
 2. I to Je - ho - vah lift my pray'r, To Whose great name all praise we owe ;
 3. By floods of wick - ed men dis - tress'd, With dead - ly sor - rows com - pass'd round ;

| 4 Distressed, I called upon the Lord,
 And to my God addressed my prayer ;
 My voice He from His temple heard,
 My cry ascended to His ear. 5 When God in His fierce anger came,
 The everlasting hills did quake ;
 The trembling earth throughout its frame
 Did from its deep foundations shake. 6 Dark clouds of smoke, dread signs of ire
 Up from Jehovah's nostrils came ;
 His mouth sent forth devouring fire,
 And coals were kindled into flame. 7 He bowed the heavens, His high abode,
 Descending 'mid the gloom of night ;
 He on a cherub swiftly rode,
 And on the wings of wind His flight. 8 Dark watery mists in thick array
 And lowering clouds His presence vail,
 But at His brightness pass away,
 And burst in storms of fire and hail. | 9 Then through the heaven with lightning riven
 Jehovah thundered in His ire ;
 The voice of God Most High was given
 'Mid storms of hail and coals of fire. 10 His deadly shafts around He threw,
 His foes dispersed in wild retreat ;
 Like burning darts His lightnings flew,
 Consuming them in sore defeat. 11 The waters' channels were disclosed,
 Laid bare the world's foundations vast ;
 By Thy rebuke, O Lord, exposed,
 And by Thy nostrils' angry blast. 12 He sent from heaven and rescued me
 From many waters swelling high ;
 From those that hate me set me free,
 And foes that stronger were than I. 13 With fierce assault in sorrow's day,
 My foes came on, but God was near ;
 He saved me, and enlarged my way,
 Because to Him my soul was dear. |

F. H. BURSTALL

1. As I in life have right - eous been, Je - ho - vah will His grace af - ford;
 2. Je - ho - vah's ways I kept a - right, And from my God did not de - part;
 3. Sin - cere be - neath His search - ing sight, I kept from each be - set - ting sin;

("Nocturn")

- 5 For Thou the troubled soul wilt save,
 High looks wilt humble in Thy might;
 A lamp to me Jehovah gave,
 And turned my darkness into light.
- 6 I on His mighty arm relied,
 And over troops of foes prevailed;
 And with my God upon my side,
 Their lofty walls I fearless scaled.
- 7 The way of God perfection shows,
 Jehovah's holy word is tried;
 He is a buckler unto those
 Who in His mighty power confide.
- 8 For who as God should be adored?
 Who but our God can us befriend?
 Who is a rock besides the Lord?
 Who else is able to defend?

God's Girding For Warfare

PSALM 18. L. M. 22-33

GERMAN CHORALE

1. My loins with strength th' Almighty binds, My way makes per - fect by His hand;
 2. By Him well trained in arts of war, My arms the bow of steel shall break;
 3. Thou hast made room where I did go, Kept safe my feet whilst I pur - sued,
 4. I smote them, they could rise no more; They fell down help - less at my feet.

My feet He makes as swift as hinds', On my high pla - ces makes me stand.

| 5 The lives of all my deadly foes
To be destroyed to me were given;
They called, but none to save them rose;
In vain they cried for help to heaven. | 9 Jehovah lives, let Him be praised,
My rock, on Whom alone I rest;
And highly let God's name be raised,
Who me with His salvation blessed. |
| 6 Then small as rising dust which flies
Before the wind, I did them beat;
I cast them forth like dirt which lies
Down-trodden in the miry street. | 10 The mighty God avenges me,
Hath nations under me subdued,
From all my foes hath set me free,
And saved from all that me withstood. |
| 7 From strife Thou hast secured my throne;
O'er heathen made me head to be;
A people which I have not known
Shall render service unto me. | 11 From men of violence and blood
Thou didst to me deliv'rance bring;
So thanks to Thee I'll give, O God,
Thy praise among the nations sing. |
| 8 They shall obey soon as they hear;
The sons of strangers shall submit;
Yea, strangers' sons shall fade with fear,
Who in their strong enclosures sit. | 12 He to His king deliv'rance sends,
To His anointed shows His grace;
His mercy evermore extends
To David and his promised race. |

 To Thee they cried, de-liv-rance came; They hoped, and were not put to shame.
 Thou mad'st Me first the light to see, In in-fant years to hope in Thee.
 They o-pen wide their mouths to slay, Like li-ons roar-ing on their prey.

 But I a worm, as no man prized, Re-proached of men, by all de - spised ;
 From birth de - pend - ent on Thy power, Thou art My God from child - hood's hour ;
 Like wa - ter poured so sinks My frame ; As wax is melt - ed in the flame,

5 Dried like the potter's worthless clay,
 My strength is all consumed away ;
 My tongue and jaws all parch'd adhere,
 I to the dust of death draw near.
 Like dogs the wicked round Me meet ;
 They pierce My hands, they pierce My feet ;
 I all My bones in number know ;
 They look and stare to mock My woe.

6 My clothes among them they divide,
 And on My robe by lot decide.
 But be not far from Me, O Lord,
 Haste, O My strength, and help afford.
 From piercing sword deliver Me,
 My loving one from dogs set free ;
 From lion's mouth Thy help I crave,
 From unicorns Thou didst Me save.

64 The Resort Of The Godly In Trouble

PSALM 31. S. M.

GEORGE J. ELVEY

1. Defend me, Lord, from shame, For still I trust in Thee; As just and righteous is Thy name, From trouble set me free.
 2. Thee for my rock I take, My fortress and my stay; Do Thou me lead for Thy name's sake, And guide me in Thy way.
 3. In con-fi-dence to Thee My spir-it I commend; Je-ho-vah, God of truth, to me Thou didst redemption send.

D.S. for 5th stanza.
 Bow down to me Thine ear, De-liv-er me with speed; Be Thou my rock and fortress near, My help in time of need.
 Lord, Thou dost strength impart; Then free me from the snare Which foes for me, with wicked art, Did secretly prepare.
 I hate the false and vain, My trust is in the Lord; And still my heart in joyous strain Thy mercy will record.

("Diademata")

4 Lord, Thou hast seen my wocs,
 My soul in trouble known,
 Nor shut me in the hand of foes,
 But freedom to me shown.
 In mercy send relief,
 For troubles now prevail;
 My eye is dim, consumed with grief,
 My flesh and spirit fail.

5 My life in grief is past,
 My weary years in groans,
 For sin my strength is failing fast,
 Decayed are all my bones.
 Reproached by every foe,
 And more, by neighbors near;
 Through fear, my friends no friendship show,
 They flee when I appear.

I hear the frequent slander spread;
 On every side is fear.
 They join in dark accord,
 They plot my blood to shed:
 I trusted have on Thee, O Lord,
 "Thou art my God," I said.

7 My times are wholly Thine,
 From cruel foes me take:
 Thy face make on Thy servant shine,
 Save for Thy mercy's sake,
 From shame, O Lord, defend,
 For I to Thee have cried;
 Let foes be shamed, to death descend,
 And, silent, there abide.

8 Do Thou their tongues restrain,
 Who false reports do seek,
 And grievous things with proud disdain
 Against the righteous speak.

1. How great the good-ness Thou hast stored In se-cret for Thy saints, O Lord,
2. Thou in the se-cret of Thy face Shalt find for them a hid-ing place

Thy ho-ly name who fear! How great the mer-cies wrought for those
From proud op-press-or's wrongs, A safe re-treat for them pre- pare,

Who do in Thee their trust re- pose, Be-fore men's sons ap-pear.
And keep them in a cov-ert there, Se-cure from strife of tongues.

("Meribah")

3 O let Jehovah blessed be,
Who showed His wondrous love to me
In city fortified;
"Cut off from Thee," I said in fear,
Yet Thou my suppliant voice didst hear,
When unto Thee I cried.

4 O love the Lord all that Him serve,
For He the faithful shall preserve,
And all the proud reward.
Be of good courage; He with strength
Will fill your steadfast hearts at length,
All ye who trust the Lord.

1. How blest the man whose tres- pass Hath free-ly par-doned been;
2. My bones waxed old through si-lence, Thro' mourn-ing night and day;
3. For this shall all the god-ly In pray'r to Thee a-bound;

To whom the Lord hath giv-en A cov-er-ing for sin.
My flesh was dried like sum-mer, Thy hand so heav-y lay.
In sea-sons they shall seek Thee When Thou art to be found.

How blest to whom im-put-ed His guilt no more shall be,
My tres- pass I ac-knowl-edged, Nor hid my sin from Thee;
Great floods of wa-ter sure-ly To them shall not come nigh:

4 He rolled the waters heap on heap,
And stored away the mighty deep
In garners He prepared.
Let all the earth Jehovah fear,
And all within the world's wide sphere
With reverence Him regard.

5 He spake the word, creation came;
He gave command, the world's fixed frame
At once to being rose.
He makes the heathen's counsel vain,
The plans the people would maintain
At will He overthrows.

Their soul from the devouring grave,
In famine life to yield.
Our soul in hope waits for the Lord,
And He protection will afford;
He is our help and shield.

For on His holy name have we
In confidence relied.
As we have hoped in Thee alone,
Lord, let Thy grace to us be shown,
On us let it abide.

 Brought to con - fu - sion, let them flee, Turned back - ward, who to hurt me plot.
 All dark and slip - p'ry make their path, His an - gel pressing hard be - hind.
 A pit which with - out cause they made, In which my soul may be en - snared.

("Rest")

- 6 Let him with sudden ruin meet,
 And let him struggle in the snare
 Which he had spread for other feet;
 Yea, let him meet destruction there!
- 7 Then shall my soul in God rejoice,
 In His salvation joyful be,
 And all my frame shall lift its voice,
 And say, "Lord, who is like to Thee?"
- 8 Who is like Thee, Who dost defend
 The needy poor against the strong;
 Who to the poor dost help extend,
 To save from him that would him wrong?
- 9 False witnesses against me stood;
 Of things I knew not, charges made.
 They me rewarded ill for good;
 To rob my soul they ill repaid.
- 10 But I in mourning garb was clad,
 When they in sickness suffered pain;
 I made my soul with fasting sad,
 My prayer to me returned again.
- 11 As one for friend's or brother's woes,
 So I for them went sadly on;
 As one for mother mourning goes,
 So I with grief went bowing down.
- 12 But they rejoiced in my distress;
 To mock, the abjects gathered were;
 Unknown to me, around did press,
 With ceaseless slanders did me tear.
- 13 With hypocrites at feasts that mock,
 They with their teeth have gnashed on me.
 How long, Jehovah, wilt Thou look?
 How long wilt Thou their raging see?
- 14 My soul from their destructions guard;
 My darling from the lions bring;
 Then in the great assembly, Lord,
 Among the people, praise I'll sing.
- 15 Let not my causeless foes, elate
 With joy, o'er me triumphant cry;
 Nor they who me unjustly hate,
 With secret scorning wink the eye.
- 16 They speak not peace, but falsehoods they
 Against the quiet ones devise,
 Make wide their mouths at me, and say,
 "Aha! we've seen it with our eyes."
- 17 This Thou hast seen, Thy silence break:
 Lord, be from me not far away.
 Stir up Thyself, my God awake
 To judgment, nor my cause delay.
- 18 Judge me in righteousness, O God;
 Let them not triumph over me,
 Nor from their hearts proclaim abroad
 "Aha! our soul's desire we see."
- 19 Let them who glory in my fall
 Not say, "We have him swallowed quite;"
 Dishonor, shame, confound them all
 Who rise against me in their night.
- 20 But let them shout, let them rejoice,
 Who long to see me justified;
 Yea, let them say, with ceaseless voice,
 "The Lord, the Lord be magnified."
- 21 The Lord Who loves His servant's peace
 To him prosperity doth give.
 My joyful tongue shall never cease
 To praise Thy justice while I live.

J. E. SWEETSER

1. I said, I'll walk with care, From sin my tongue com-mand;
2. As dumb, I si-lent stood, From words I did re-frain;
3. My heart was all on fire, With burn-ing thoughts sup-pressed;
4. My end and length of days To me, O Lord, un-veil,

My mouth a wise re-straint shall bear, While sin-ners near me stand.

The Reward Of The Compassionate

PSALM 41. L. M.

G. A. ROSSINI
 Arr. by GEO. KINGSLEY

1. Blest he who wise - ly helps the poor; In trou - ble he shall help se - cure :
 2. Thou wilt not give him to the will Of foes that seek to do him ill ;
 3. On him Thou wilt com - pas - sion take, And all his bed in sick - ness make.
 4. My foes speak ill of me, they say, When shall he die, his name de - cay ?

The Lord shall keep him, he shall live, And bless - ing on the earth re - ceive.
 When laid up - on the bed of pain, The Lord with strength will him sus - tain.
 I said, Lord, pit - y, heal Thou me, Be - cause I have of - fend - ed Thee.
 If see - ing me, his speech is vain, His heart hoards ills to tell a - gain.

("Warner")

5 All those who hate me whisper lies,
 Against me hurtful things devise ;
 Now his disease, say they, is sore,
 It binds him fast, he'll rise no more.

7 In mercy raise me up, O Lord,
 To render foes a due reward.
 By this I know Thy love remains,
 Because my foe no triumph gains.

6 Yea, ev'n my own familiar friend,
 The man on whom I did depend,
 Who ate my bread, pretending zeal
 Against me lifted up his heel.

8 Thou dost my steps direct aright,
 And set me ever in Thy sight.
 Let Israel's God, Jehovah, then
 Be ever blest. Amen, Amen.

- 4 My God, although dejected now,
 I think of Thee to check my fear,
 From Jordan's land, from Hermon's brow,
 And Mizar-hill, for Thou art near.
- 5 Deep calls to deep in thunders loud,
 Thy water-spouts repeat the call,
 Whilst o'er me roll the billows proud,
 And all Thy waves upon me fall.
- 6 Vet shall the Lord command by day
 His loving kindness, and His song
 By night be with me; and I'll pray
 To Him Who doth my life prolong.
- 7 I cry to God, my rock and stay,
 O, why hast Thou forgotten me?
 Why go I mourning all the day
 Oppressed by my fierce enemy?
- 8 Keen as a sword within my bones
 Are the reproaches which I hear;
 Whilst every day, in scornful tones,
 "Where is thy God?" the scoffers sneer.
- 9 O, why art thou cast down, my soul?
 And what should so disquiet thee?
 Still hope in God, and Him extol,
 Whose face brings saving help to me.

4 Thy royal seat, O Lord,
Forever shall remain ;
The sceptre of Thy Kingdom doth
All righteousness maintain.

Thou lovest right, but ill
Dost hate, for on Thy head
Above Thy fellows God, Thy God,
The oil of joy hath shed.

5 Of myrrh and spices sweet
A smell Thy garments had,
From palaces of ivory,
Whereby they made Thee glad.

 Can to Thee no pleasure bring;
 But a spirit crushed for sin,
 Contrite, broken heart within,
 Thine accepted sacrifice,

- 5 Lo, wandering far my rest should be
 In some lone desert waste;
 I from the windy storm would flee,
 And from the tempest haste.
- 6 Destroyed, Jehovah, let them be;
 Divide, confuse their tongue;
 For in the city, lo, I see
 Great strife and grievous wrong.
- 7 All day and night they go around
 Upon her circling walls,
 While sin and sorrow great are found
 Within her peopled halls.
- 8 Yea, crimes of violence and fraud
 Within the city meet;

- Deceit and guile there stalk abroad,
 Nor leave the crowded street.
- 9 'Twas not a foe who did deride,
 For that I could endure;
 No hater who thus rose in pride,
 Else I would hide secure.
- 10 But thou it was, my friend and guide;
 We did as equals meet;
 We walked to God's house side by side,
 And blended counsel sweet.
- 11 Death shall them seize, and to the tomb
 Alive they shall go down,
 For wickedness is in their home,
 Among them sins abound.

1. But as for me, I'll call on God; The Lord will safe - ty give;
 2. He hath re - stored my soul to peace, From trou - ble set me free,
 3. The Ev - er - last - ing God shall hear, And bring up - on them woe.
 4. A - gainst the men that were his friends, And such as peace pre - ferred,

 And made the war a - gainst me cease, For ma - ny were with me.

5 His lips more smooth than butter were,
 But in his heart was war;
 More soft than oil his words appear,
 But like drawn swords they are.

6 Upon the Lord thy burden cast,
 And He shall thee sustain;
 For He will make the just stand fast,
 Unmoved shall they remain.

7 But, Lord, Thou wilt in judgment sit,
 And bring them down to woe;
 And in the deep and darksome pit
 Of ruin lay them low.

8 The men of wicked, bloody ways,
 And all that liars be,
 Shall not live out one-half their days;
 But I will trust in Thee.

An Outcry Against Hardened Wickedness

PSALM 58. C. M.

F. J. HAYDN

1. O con - gre - ga - tion, is it so That ye speak right - eous - ness?
 2. Yea, e - ven in your ver - y hearts Ye wick - ed - ness have done,
 3. The wick - ed e - ven from their birth Es - tranged are from the way,

O ye that are the sons of men, Judge ye with up - right - ness?
 And of your hands the vi - o - lence Ye weigh the earth up - on.
 And, speak - ing lies as soon as born, They wan - der far a - stray.

("Manoah")

- 4 And as a serpent's poison too
 Their poison doth appear;
 Yea, they are like the adder deaf,
 Which closely stops her ear;
- 5 That so she may not hear the voice
 Of one that charm her would,
 No, not though he most cunning were,
 And charm most wisely could.
- 6 Their teeth, O God, within their mouth
 Break Thou in pieces small;
 The great teeth break Thou out, O Lord,
 Of these young lions all.
- 7 Let them like waters melt away,
 Which downward ever flow;
 His arrows all in pieces cut
 When he shall bend his bow.
- 8 And like a snail that melts away,
 Let each of them be gone,
 That as a birth untimely they
 May never see the sun.
- 9 He shall them take away before
 Your pots the thorns can heat,
 Both living, and in dreadful wrath
 As with a whirlwind great.
- 10 The righteous, when he vengeance sees,
 Shall be most joyful then;
 The righteous one shall wash his feet
 In blood of wicked men.
- 11 So men shall say, the righteous man
 Reward shall never miss,
 And verily upon the earth
 A God to judge there is.

 O who will be my guide?
 And who will lead me to the land
 Where Edom's bands reside?
- 10 O God, wilt Thou not guide,

 For vain is human aid;
 Through God we shall do valiant deeds,
 He on our foes shall tread.

- 5 Thou therefore, Lord, the God of Hosts,
 The God of Israel,
 Awake to visit heathen all,
 Nor spare those who rebel.
- 6 They at the evening time return,
 They make a howling sound,
 Even like a dog, and often walk
 About the city round.
- 7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth,
 And in their lips are swords;
 For thus with confidence they say,
 Who now doth hear our words?
- 8 But Thou, O Lord, wilt laugh at them,
 And all the heathen mock;
 While he's in power I'll wait on Thee,
 For God is my high rock.
- 9 The God of all my mercies will
 With speed give help to me;
 He my desire upon my foes
 Will cause my eyes to see.
- 10 O Lord our shield, destroy them not,
 My people would forget;
 But scatter Thou, and humble them
 Beneath Thy power great.
- 11 For their mouth's sin, and for the words
 Which from their lips do fly,
 Let them be taken in their pride,
 Because they curse and lie.
- 12 In wrath consume them, them consume,
 That so they may not be;
 And that in Jacob God doth rule
 To earth's ends let them see.
- 13 Let them at evening time return,
 And make a howling sound,
 Even like a dog, and often walk
 About the city round.
- 14 And let them wander up and down
 In seeking food to eat,
 And let them grudge, when they shall not
 Be satisfied with meat.
- 15 But of Thy power I'll sing, at morn
 Aloud Thy mercy praise,
 For Thou a tower and refuge wast
 To me in troublous days.
- 16 O God, Thou art my strength, and I
 Will praises sing to Thee;
 For God is my defence, a God
 Of mercy unto me.

5 Burnt-sacrifices of fat rams
 With incense I will bring;
 Of bullocks and of goats I will Present an offering.
 6 All that fear God, come, hear, I'll tell
 What He did for my soul;
 I with my mouth cried unto Him,
 My tongue did Him extol.

7 If in my heart I sin regard,
 Jehovah will not hear;
 But surely God hath heard my voice,
 Attending to my prayer.

- 5 O God, Thou to Thy people
Didst send a plenteous rain;
Thy heritage, when weary,
Thou didst refresh again.
And then Thy congregations
Did make their dwelling there;
O God, Thou of Thy goodness
For poor ones didst prepare.
- 6 The Lord the word delivered,
And many heard the same;
Of those great was the number
Who did the word proclaim.
Kings at the head of armies
Were forced to flee away,
And she at home who carried
Distributed the prey.

- 7 Though ye 'midst pots were lying,
Like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings are clothed with silver,
Whose feathers golden are.
When kings th'Almighty scattered,
Like Salmon's snow 'twas white;
God's hill is high like Bashan,
Like Bashan hill for height.
- 8 Why leap, ye lofty mountains?
This hill the Lord loves well;
It is His habitation,
Yea, here He'll ever dwell.
God's chariots and angels
By thousands wait His will;
He's with them in His temple
As once on Sinai's hill.

4 That in the blood of enemies
 Thy foot imbrued may be,
 And of thy dogs dipped in it
 The tongues thou mayest see.
 O God, they've seen Thy goings
 Of majesty and grace,
 My God, my King, Thy goings
 Within Thy holy place.

5 Before went singers, next them
 The players took their way;
 Amongst them were the damsels
 That did on timbrels play.
 Within the congregations
 Bless God with one accord;
 Bless ye from Israel's fountain,
 And praise the mighty Lord.

6 There Judah's chiefs in council,
 With little Benjamin

Their prince, and chiefs of Zab'lon
 And Naphtali are seen.
 Thy God thy strength commandeth,
 Make strong Thy work, O Lord;
 For Thy house at Jerusalem
 Kings shall Thee gifts afford.

7 The spearmen's host, great numbers
 Of bulls, which fiercely look,
 With calves sent by the people,
 O Lord our God, rebuke.
 Till all shall yield submission,
 And silver pieces bring;
 Those who in war take pleasure,
 Disperse, O God and King.

8 Then princes great and mighty
 Shall come from Egypt lands;
 To God in supplication
 Shall Cush stretch forth his hands.

5 By Thee the borders of the earth
 Were settled everywhere;
 The summer and the winter both
 By Thee created were.

6 That spiteful foes have Thee reproached,
 In memory record,
 And that the foolish people have
 Blasphemed Thy name, O Lord.

7 O do not to the multitude
 Thy turtle's soul give o'er;
 The congregation of Thy poor
 Forget not evermore.

8 Lord, to Thy cov'nant have respect,
 Because in every clime

Are earth's dark places filled with homes
 Of cruelty and crime.

9 O let not those that are oppressed
 Return again with shame;
 Let those that poor and needy are
 Give praises to Thy name.

10 Do Thou, O God, arise and plead
 The cause that is Thy own:
 Remember how Thou art reproached
 Still by the foolish one.

11 O Lord, do not forget the voice
 Of such as are Thy foes;
 Of them that up against Thee rise
 The tumult ever grows.

- 3 His testimony and His law
 In Isr'el did He place,
 And charged our fathers it to show
 To their succeeding race;
 That so the race which was to come
 These things might learn and know,
 And sons unborn, who should arise,
 Might to their sons them show;
- 4 That they might set their hope in God,
 And suffer not to fall
 His mighty works out of their mind,
 But keep His precepts all:
 And might not, like their fathers, be
 A stiff rebellious race,
 A race not right in heart, with God
 Whose spirit faithless was.
- 5 The sons of Ephraim, who nor bows
 Nor other arms did lack,
 When as the day of battle was
 Yet faintly turned back.
 They broke God's cov'nant, and refused
 In His commands to go;
 His works and wonders they forgot,
 Which He to them did show.
- 6 Things marvellous He brought to pass;
 Their fathers them beheld
 Within the land of Egypt done,
 Yea, even Zoan's field.
 By Him divided was the sea,
 He led them through the flood;
 The waters on each side He raised,
 Till as a heap they stood.
- 7 With cloud by day, with light of fire
 All night He did them guide;
 In desert rocks He cleft, and drink,
 As from great depths, supplied.
- 8 He also from the rock brought streams,
 Like floods made waters run;
 Yet, sinning more, in desert they
 Provoked the highest One.
- 8 For in their heart they tempted God,
 And, speaking with mistrust,
 They greedily did meat require
 To satisfy their lust.
 Against the Lord Himself they spoke,
 And, murmuring, said thus,
 "A table in the wilderness
 Can God prepare for us?"
- 9 Behold, He smote the rock, and thence
 Came streams and waters great,
 But can He give His people bread,
 And send them flesh to eat?"
 Jehovah heard, His wrath arose:
 Then kindled was a flame
 On Jacob, and on Israel
 His indignation came.
- 10 For they believed not God, nor trust
 In His salvation had,
 Though clouds above He did command,
 And heaven's doors open made,
 And manna rained on them, and gave
 Them corn of heav'n to eat.
 Man angels' food did eat; to them
 He to the full sent meat.
- 11 He in the heaven also caused
 An eastern wind to blow,
 And by His power He let out
 The southern wind to go.
 Then flesh He rained on them like dust
 Which cannot numbered be,
 And feathered fowls in numbers vast
 Like sands along the sea.

1. At His com-mand, a - mid their camp, The flesh in show - ers fell;
 2. They from their lust had not es - tranged Their heart and their de - sire;
 3. Yet aft - er all the Lord had done, They still went on in sin;

On ev - 'ry side it fell a - bout The tents where they did dwell, So they did eat a - bun - dant - ly,
 But while the meat was in their mouths, Which they did so require, God's wrath upon them came, and slew
 Nor did be - lieve, al - tho' His works So won - der - ful had been. He therefore did in van - i - ty

And had of meat their fill, . . . For He did give to them what was Their own de - sire and will.
 The fat - test of them all, . . . And so the choice of Is - ra - el, O'erthrown by death, did fall.
 Their days con - sume and waste, . . . And by His wrath their wretched years A - way in trou - ble passed.

(" Ostand ")

4 But when He slew them, then they did
 To seek Him show desire;
 Yea, they returned, and after God
 Did earnestly inquire,
 And that the Lord had been their Rock
 They did remember then,
 And that the high almighty God
 Had their Redeemer been,

5 Yet with their mouth they flattered Him,
 And with their tongues they lied;
 Their heart was not sincere: they from
 His cov'nant turned aside.
 But, full of pity, He forgave
 Their sin, nor did them slay;
 Nor stirred up all His wrath, but oft
 His anger turned away.

6 For that they were but fading flesh
 To mind He did recall,
 A wind that passeth soon away,
 And ne'er returns at all.
 How often in the wilderness
 Did they provoke His wrath!
 How often grieve Him as they marched
 Along their desert path!

7 Yea, turning back, they tempt the Lord
 And boldly limits place
 About the High and Holy One,
 The God of Israel's race.
 And they remembered not His hand,
 Nor yet the noted day
 When He redeemed them from the foe
 Who sought them for his prey.

8 Nor how great signs in Egypt land
 He openly had wrought,
 What miracles in Zoan's field
 His hand to pass had brought;
 How He their rivers and their lakes
 Turned everywhere to blood,
 That neither man nor beast could drink
 Of standing lake or flood.

9 Devouring flies, of divers sorts,
 The Lord among them brought,
 And swarms of frogs o'er all the land,
 Which great destruction wrought.
 He to the caterpillar gave
 The fruits of all their soil;
 He gave the labors of their hands
 To be the locust's spoil.

10 Their vines with hail, their sycamores'
 He with the frost did blast;
 Their beasts to hail He gave; their flocks
 Hot thunderbolts did waste.
 He cast upon them anger fierce,
 To burning wrath gave vent,
 In indignation troubled them
 By evil angels sent.

11 He did not spare their soul from death,
 But for His wrath made way,
 And to the fearful pestilence
 He gave their life a prey.
 And over Egypt's land He smote
 Their first-born, and their pride,
 Till everywhere in tents of Ham
 Their chief of strength had died.

- 4 The nations which in Canaan dwelt
 He also by His hand,
 Before His people's face, expelled
 Beyond their native land;
- 5 Which for inheritance to them
 By line He did divide,
 And made the tribes of Israel
 Within their tents abide.
- 6 But God Most High they did provoke,
 They tempted Him again;
 His testimonies to observe
 Their will did not incline:
- 7 But, like their fathers, they turned back
 In faithlessness and pride,
 And like a false, deceitful bow,
 They all were turned aside.
- 8 Because to anger they provoked
 The Lord with places high,
 And with their graven images
 Moved Him to jealousy.
- 9 When God heard this, He angry was,
 And much loathed Isr'el then:
 So Shiloh's tent He left, the tent
 Which He had placed with men.
- 10 And He His strength delivered o'er
 To long captivity;
 He left His glory in the hand
 Of His proud enemy.
- 11 His people also to the sword
 In anger o'er He turned:
 Against His own inheritance
 His wrath so fiercely burned.
- 12 The fire consumed their choice young men,
 Their maids no marriage had,
 And when their priests fell by the sword,
 Their wives no mourning made.
- 13 But then the Lord arose, as one
 That doth from sleep awake,
 And like a giant that, by wine
 Refreshed, a shout doth make.
- 14 And on the backs of fleeing foes
 He caused His strokes to fall,
 And to reproach perpetual
 He put His en'mies all.
- 15 Moreover Joseph's tent He spurned,
 Nor Ephraim's tribe approved;
 But Judah's tent Jehovah chose,
 The Zion Mount He loved.
- 16 And like the firm and lofty hills
 He built His holy place;
 Yea, strong as earth's foundations fast,
 He gave it changeless base.
- 17 Of David as His servant then
 He sovereign choice did make,
 And him, from out the folds of sheep,
 The Lord was pleased to take.
- 18 From waiting on the suckling ewes,
 He brought him forth to feed
 His Israel, His heritage,
 His people, Jacob's seed.
- 19 So with integrity of heart
 He did them wisely feed,
 And with his skilfulness of hands
 He did them safely lead.

PSALM 84. C. M.

E. R. KROEGER

1. O Lord of Hosts, how love - ly is The place where Thou dost dwell!
2. My soul doth long, yea, e - ven faint, Je - ho - vah's courts to see;
3. Be - hold, the spar - row find - eth out A house where - in to rest;
4. And there se - cure - ly shel - tered she Her young ones forth may bring;
5. Blest all who dwell with - in Thy house, They ev - er give Thee praise,

6 Who passing on through Baca's vale
Do make of it a well,
And copious rains descending there
The pools with water fill.

9 For in Thy courts one day excels
A thousand; rather in
My God's house will I keep a door
Than dwell in tents of sin.

7 So they from strength unwearied go
Still forward unto strength,
And they in Zion shall appear
Before the Lord, at length.

10 For God the Lord's a sun and shield,
He'll grace and glory give;
And no good thing will He withhold
From them that justly live.

8 Lord God of Hosts, my prayer hear;
O Jacob's God, give ear.
See, God, our shield, look on the face
Of Thy anointed dear.

11 O Thou that art the Lord of Hosts,
That man is truly blest,
Who with unshaken confidence
On Thee alone doth rest.

1. O Lord, Thou hast Thy fa - vor shown To Thy be - lov - ed land,
 2. Thou to Thy peo - ple all their sins Most free - ly par - doned hast,
 3. Thou all Thy an - ger hast re - moved, From wrath hast turned to peace;

 Against us without end?
 Wilt Thou to generations all
 Thy anger still extend?
- 5 Shall not Thy people joy in Thee?
 Wilt Thou not us revive?
 O Lord, to us Thy mercy show,
 And Thy salvation give.
- 6 I'll hear what God the Lord will speak,
 For He will speak in peace
 To all His people and His saints;
 Let them from folly cease.

| 5 O Lord, my prayer hear; the voice
Of my request attend:
In troublous times I'll call on Thee,
For Thou wilt answer send. 6 O Lord, among the heathen gods
Like Thee there is not one;
Nor are there any works, O Lord,
Like those which Thou hast done. 7 All nations, Lord, whom Thou hast made
Shall come and praise proclaim;
Before Thy face they worship shall,
And glorify Thy name. 8 Because Thou art exceeding great,
And works by Thee are done,
Which are to be admired; and Thou
Art God Thyself alone. 9 Teach me Thy way, and in Thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I;
Unite my heart, that I Thy name
May fear continually. | 10 Because Thy mercy toward me
In greatness doth excel,
And Thou delivered hast my soul
Out from the lowest hell. 11 O God, the proud against me rise,
And violent men have met,
That for my soul have sought, and Thee
Before them have not set. 12 But Thou, Jehovah, art a God
In Whom compassions flow;
Thy mercy, grace, and truth abound,
Thou art to anger slow. 13 O turn to me Thy countenance,
And mercy on me have;
Thy servant strengthen, and the son
Of Thine own handmaid save. 14 Show me a sign for good, that they
Who do me hate may see
And be ashamed; because Thou, Lord,
Didst help and comfort me. |

 Shall the grave Thy love be learn - ing, Death Thy faith - ful - ness re - cord ?

Filled with grief, my soul is sigh - ing, To the grave my life draws near ;
 In the pit Thy hand has laid me, In the dark - ness and in deeps ;
 Mourns my eye, my pow - ers lan - guish, Sore af - flic - tion press - es me ;
 Shall Thy works and won - drous do - ing Be pro - claimed in dark - ness deep ?

Num - bered now a - mong the dy - ing, Like one help - less I ap - pear.
 Sore - ly has Thy wrath dis - mayed me, O'er my soul af - flic - tion sweeps.

5 But, O Lord, at dawn awaking,
 Prayer and cries I'll send to Thee ;
 Why, my God, my soul forsaking,
 Hidest Thou Thy face from me ?
 All my days I've been afflicted,
 Ready from my youth to die ;
 I with suff'rings am distracted,
 While Thy terrors on me lie.

6 Flames of wrath are o'er me leaping,
 Horrors great upon me roll ;
 Round they come like waters sweeping,
 Daily compassing my soul.
 Thou my dearest friends hast banished,
 My companions put to flight ;
 All acquaintances have vanished,
 Driven to the shades of night.

From BEETHOVEN

1. I'll crush be - fore him ev - 'ry foe, His hat - ers smite and o - ver - throw;
 2. Yea, he shall tri - umph in My name, And great shall be his pow'r and fame;
 3. Thou art my Fa - ther, he shall cry, My God, my Rock, my Sav - iour nigh;
 4. My grace for him I'll keep se - cure, My cov - e - nant to him is sure;

My faith - ful - ness to him I'll prove, And ne'er from him My grace re - move.
 I'll set his hand up - on the sea, His right hand on the floods shall be.
 As My first - born I will him own, O'er kings of earth will set his throne.
 His seed for - ev - er I'll main - tain, His throne while days of heav'n re - main.

("Germany")

- 5 But if his sons My law forsake,
 If they My holy statutes break,
 If from My judgments they shall stray,
 And My commands will not obey,
- 6 Then with a rod their sins I'll smite,
 Their guilt with stripes will I requite;
 Yet him My grace shall not forsake,
 My truth I will not falsehood make.
- 7 My cov'nant I will not evade,
 Nor change the promise I have made;
 Once in My holiness have I
 To David sworn, and will not lie.
- 8 His seed forever shall endure,
 And as the sun his throne is sure,
 Eternal as the moon on high,
 The faithful witness in the sky.
- 9 Yet now Thine anger hotly burns,
 And Thine Anointed loaths and spurns;
 Thy servant's covenant we see
 Made void as if abhorred by Thee.
- 10 Thou to the earth hast trampled down
 And thus profaned his sacred crown;
 His walls all prostrate Thou hast laid,
 His fortresses a ruin made.
- 11 The passers-by upon him prey,
 His neighbors turn in scorn away;
 His foes' right hand hast Thou made strong,
 And giv'n to them the victor's song.
- 12 His blunted sword hast Thou repelled,
 Nor in the battle him upheld;
 His glory now no more is known,
 And Thou to earth hast cast his throne.
- 13 His days of youth so quickly past,
 The garb of shame is o'er him cast;
 How long, Lord, hide Thyself in ire?
 Shall wrath forever burn like fire?
- 14 Think on my life, 'tis but a span;
 Why thus in vain hast Thou made man?
 What man that lives has power to save
 His soul from death, and from the grave?
- 15 Where are Thy former mercies, where,
 Which Thou in truth to David sware?
 Remember, Lord, Thy servant's scorn,
 And mine, from mighty people borne.
- 16 The scorn, O Lord, Thy foes have shown,
 On Thine Anointed's footsteps thrown,
 Remember, let it be redressed:
 Forever let the Lord be blessed.

- 4 It is that they for evermore
 May be destroyed and slain;
 But, O Jehovah, Thou Most High
 Shalt evermore remain.
 For lo, Thy foes, yea, all Thy foes,
 Shall be destroyed, O God,
 And all that work iniquity
 Shall be dispersed abroad.
- 5 But like the horn of unicorns,
 My horn Thou wilt exalt,
 And raise on high: Thou with fresh oil
 Anoint me also shalt.
 My eye shall also my desire
 See on my enemies;
 My ears shall of the wicked hear,
 That do against me rise.

- 6 But like the palm-tree flourishing
 Shall be the righteous one,
 And he shall like the cedar grow
 That is in Lebanon.
 Those that within the house of God
 Are planted by His grace,
 They shall grow up and flourish all
 In our God's holy place.
- 7 And in old age, when others fade,
 They fruit still forth shall bring;
 They shall be fat and full of sap,
 And always flourishing.
 To show that upright is the Lord,
 He is a rock to me;
 And He from all unrighteousness
 Is altogether free.

| 4 How long shall things so hard by them
Still uttered be and told,
And all that work iniquity
To boast themselves be bold? | 12 But judgment unto righteousness
Shall yet return again,
And all shall follow after it
That are right-hearted men. |
| 5 For they Thy people crush, O Lord,
Thy heritage oppress,
The widow and the stranger slay;
They kill the fatherless. | 13 O who will rise for me against
Those that do wickedly?
And who will stand for me 'gainst those
That work iniquity? |
| 6 And yet they say, God will not see,
Nor God of Jacob know.
Ye brutish people! understand:
Fools! when wise will ye grow? | 14 Unless the Lord had been my help
When I was sore oppressed,
My soul had almost in the house
Of silence been at rest. |
| 7 The Lord did plant the ear of man,
And hear then shall not He?
He also formed the eye, and then
Shall He not clearly see? | 15 When I through fear had spoken thus,
"My foot doth slip away,"
Thy mercy held me up, O Lord,
Thy goodness did me stay. |
| 8 He that the nations doth correct,
Shall He not chasten you?
He knowledge unto man doth teach,
And shall Himself not know? | 16 When anxious thoughts my heart oppress
And fill my soul with grief,
The consolations of Thy grace
To me afford relief. |
| 9 Man's thoughts to be but vanity
The Lord doth well discern.
Blest is the man Thou chast'nest, Lord,
And mak'st Thy law to learn: | 17 Shall of iniquity the throne
Have fellowship with Thee,
Which mischief, cunningly contrived,
Doth by a law decree? |
| 10 That Thou mayst give him rest from days
Of sad adversity,
Until the pit be digged for them
That work iniquity. | 18 Against the righteous souls they join,
They guiltless blood condemn,
But of my refuge God's the rock,
And my defence from them. |
| 11 Because the Lord will not cast off
His people utterly,
Nor shall His own inheritance
By Him forsaken be. | 19 On them their own iniquity
The Lord Himself shall lay;
He'll cut them off in their own sin,
The Lord our God them slay. |

days like grass; Man is like the flow-er bloom-ing, out an end: To their chil-dren's chil-dren ev-er
pared a throne, And through-out His vast do-min-ion
do His will, Ye His ser-vants, ev-er read-y
His con-trol, All through-out His vast do-min-ion;

Till the hot winds o'er it pass, Till the hot winds o'er it pass.
All His works His power shall own, All His works His power shall own.
All His pleas-ure to ful-fil, All His pleas-ure to ful-fil.
Bless Je-ho-vah, O my soul, Bless Je-ho-vah, O my soul.

PSALM 103. 8s & 7s. 13-16

GEO. C. STEBBINS

1. In the heav - ens high Je - ho - vah Hath for Him pre - pared a throne,
 2. Bless Je - ho - vah, ye His an - gels, Spir - its that ex - cel in might,
 3. Bless and mag - ni - fy Je - ho - vah, All ye hosts that do His will,
 4. Bless Je - ho - vah, all His crea - tures Ev - er un - der His con - trol,

And throughout His vast do - min - ion All His works His pow'r shall own.
 Ye who hear what He com - mands you, Ye that do it with de - light.
 Ye His ser - vants, ev - er read - y All His pleas - ure to ful - fil.
 All throughout His vast do - min - ion; Bless Je - ho - vah, O my soul.

CHORUS

Bless Je - ho - vah, all His crea - tures Ev - er un - der His con - trol,
 All throughout His vast do - min - ion; Bless Je - ho - vah, O my soul.

- 6 But at the voice of Thy rebuke
 They fled, and would not stay;
 They at Thy thunder's dreadful voice
 Did hasten fast away.
- 7 They by the mountains do ascend,
 And by the valley-ground
 Descend again to that same place
 Which Thou for them didst found.
- 8 To them a limit Thou hast set,
 O'er which they may not go,
 That they do not return again
 The earth to overflow.
- 9 He to the valleys sends the springs
 Which run among the hills:
 They to all beasts of field give drink,
 Wild asses drink their fills.

- 10 The fowls of heaven their dwellings have
 Beside each flowing spring,
 And there among the branches they
 With joyful voices sing.
- 11 He from His chambers watereth
 The hills when they are dried,
 And with the fruit of these Thy works
 The earth is satisfied.
- 12 He makes the grass for cattle grow,
 He makes the herb to spring
 For use of man, that food to him
 He from the earth may bring;
- 13 And wine, that to the heart of man
 Doth cheerfulness impart;
 Oil that his face makes shine, and bread
 That strengtheneth his heart.

- 5 And unto Jacob. for a law,
 He made it firm and sure,
 A covenant to Israel,
 Which ever should endure.
 He said, “I Canaan’s land will give
 For heritage to you;”
 While they were strangers there, and few,
 In number very few;
- 6 While yet they went from land to land,
 Without a sure abode,
 And while through many kingdoms they
 Did wander far abroad,
 Yet, notwithstanding, suffered He
 No man to do them wrong;
 Yea, for their sakes He did reprove
 Kings, who were great and strong.
- 7 He said, “These my anointed are,
 Touch not, nor do them wrong,
 Nor do the prophets any harm
 That unto Me belong.”
 He called for famine on the land,
 He broke the staff of bread;
 But yet He sent a man before,
 By whom they should be fed;
- 8 Ev’n Joseph, whom, by envy moved,
 Sell for a slave did they;
 Whose feet they with the fetters hurt,
 And he in irons lay;
 Until the time that His word came
 To give him liberty;
 The word and purpose of the Lord
 Did him in prison try.
- 9 Then sent the king, and did command
 That he enlarged should be;
 He that the people’s ruler was
 Did send to set him free.
 To be the lord of all his house
 He raised him, as most fit;
 To him of all that he possessed
 He did the charge commit:
- 10 That at his pleasure he might bind
 The princes of the land,
 And also make his senators
 True wisdom understand.
 The people then of Israel
 Down into Egypt came,
 And Jacob for a time sojourned
 Within the land of Ham.
- 11 And He did greatly by His pow’r
 Increase His people there,
 And stronger than their enemies
 They by His blessing were.
 Their heart He then to hatred turned Against His people there,
 To deal in subtlety with those
 Who His own servants were.
- 12 His servant Moses then He sent
 And Aaron, chosen one,
 And they His signs and wonders great
 In land of Ham made known.
 He darkness sent, and made it dark;
 His word they did obey.
 He turned their waters into blood,
 And He their fish did slay.

God's Faithfulness To Covenant Promises (Con.)

To glo - ry in His ho - ly name U - nite with one ac - cord,
 Re - mem - ber all His might - y deeds, The won - ders He hath done,
 Be - cause He, and He on - ly, is The might - y Lord our God,
 Which cov - e - nant He firm - ly made With faith - ful A - bra - ham,

And let the heart of ev - 'ry one Re - joice that seeks the Lord.
 The right - eous judg - ments of His mouth, Re - mem - ber them each one.
 And His most right - eous judg - ments are In all the earth a - broad.
 And un - to I - saac, by His oath, He did re - new the same;

13 The land in plenty brought forth frogs
 In chambers of their kings;
 His word all sorts of flies and lice
 In all their borders brings.
 Hail stones for rain, and flaming fire
 Into their land He sent,
 And He their vines and fig-trees smote,
 Trees of their coasts He rent.

14 He spake, and caterpillars came
 And locusts did abound,
 Which in their land all herbs consumed,
 And fruits of all their ground.
 He smote all first-born in their land,
 Chief of their strength each one;
 With gold and silver brought them forth,
 Weak in their tribes were none.

15 Egypt was glad when forth they went,
 Their fear on them did light.

He spread a cloud for covering,
 And fire to shine by night.
 They asked, and quails He brought, with bread
 Of heaven filled He them;
 He opened rocks, floods gushed, and ran
 In deserts like a stream.

16 For on His holy promise He,
 And servant Abr'ham, thought;
 With joy His people, His elect,
 With gladness forth He brought.
 And so the heathen's land to them
 He for possession gave,
 That of the people's labor they Inheritance might have;

17 That they His statutes might observe
 According to His word,
 And that they might His laws obey;
 Give praises to the Lord.

 4. Yet not - with - stand - ing He them saved, Ev'n for His own name's sake,

With them we have trans - gress - ors been, We have done wick - ed - ly.
 Our fa - thers, though they saw, yet them They did not un - der - stand.
 But at the sea, ev'n the Red Sea, Pro - voked Him grievous - ly.
 That so He might, to be well known, His might - y pow - er make.

("Southwell")

- 5 The Red Sea also He rebuked,
 And then dried up it was;
 Through depths, as through the wilderness,
 He made them safely pass.
- 6 From hands of him that hated them
 He did His people save,
 And from the en'my's cruel hand
 To them redemption gave.
- 7 The waters overwhelmed their foes;
 Not one was left alive;
 Then they believed His word, and praise
 To Him in songs did give.
- 8 But soon they did His mighty works
 Unthankfully forget,
 And on His counsel and His will
 Did not with patience wait.
- 9 But much did lust in wilderness,
 And God in desert tempt;
 He gave them what they sought, but to
 Their soul He leanness sent.
- 10 Moreover Moses, in the camp,
 They envied without cause;
 At Aaron too, the saint of God,
 Inflamed their envy was.
- 11 The earth did therefore open wide,
 And Dathan did devour,
 And all Abiram's company
 It covered in that hour.
- 12 And likewise 'mong their company
 A fire was kindled then,
 And so the hot consuming flame
 Burnt up these wicked men.
- 13 Yet they at Horeb made a calf,
 A molten image praised,
 Their glory changed to form of ox
 That in the pastures grazed.
- 14 They soon forgot the mighty God,
 Who had their Saviour been,
 By Whom such great things brought to pass
 They had in Egypt seen.
- 15 In land of Ham His wondrous works,
 Things terrible, did He,
 When He His mighty hand and arm
 Stretched out at the Red Sea.
- 16 He said He would them all destroy,
 Had not, His wrath to stay,
 His chosen Moses stood in breach,
 That them He should not slay.
- 17 Yea, they despised the pleasant land,
 Nor did believe His word,
 But, murmuring in their tents, refused
 To hearken to the Lord.
- 18 In desert therefore them to slay
 He lifted up His hand,
 Through nations to o'erthrow their seed,
 And scatter in each land.
- 19 They unto Baäl-peor did
 Themselves associate;
 The sacrifices of the dead
 They did profanely eat.
- 20 Thus, by inventions of their own,
 They much provoked His ire,
 And then upon them suddenly
 The plague broke in as fire.

- 21 Then Phin'has rose, and justice did,
And so the plague did cease;
That to all ages counted was
To him for righteousness.
- 22 And at the waters, where they strove,
They did Him angry make,
In such a way that ill it fared
With Moses for their sake:
- 23 Because they there his spirit meek
Provoked so bitterly,
That he with hasty lips did speak
Words unadvisedly.
- 24 Nor, as the Lord commanded them,
Did they the nations slay,
But with the heathen mingled were,
And learned of them their way.
- 25 Moreover they their idols served,
Which to a snare was turned;
To demons they in sacrifice
Their sons and daughters burned.
- 26 In their own children's guiltless blood
Their hands they did imbrue,
Whom unto Canaan's idols they
For sacrifices slew.
- 27 So was the land defiled with blood,
Stained with their works were they,
And with inventions of their own
To idols they did stray.

- 28 Against His people kindled was
The anger of the Lord;
They so provoked His wrath that He
His heritage abhorred.
- 29 He gave them to the heathen's power,
Their foes did them command;
Their en'mies them oppressed, they were
Made subject to their hand.
- 30 He many times delivered them,
But with their counsel so
They Him provoked, that for their sin
They were brought very low.
- 31 Yet their affliction He beheld,
When He did hear their cry,
And He for them His covenant
Recalled to memory.
- 32 And in His mercies' multitude
He did repent, and make
Them to be pitied of all those Who did them captive take.
- 33 Save us, O Lord our God, and us
From heathen nations bring,
That we Thy holy name may thank,
Thy praises ever sing.
- 34 Blessed be Jehovah, Isr'el's God,
To all eternity;
Let all the people say, Amen.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

 Which makes the sea with roll - ing waves A - loft to swell and rise.
 Then they to God in trou - ble cry, And He re - lief doth send.
 So to the ha - ven He them brings, Which they de - sired to see.
 For sins of those that dwell there - in, Fat land to bar - ren - ness.

6 He into deserts dry and parched
 The standing water brings,
 And grounds which dry and barren were
 He turns to water-springs.
 And there, for dwelling, He a place
 Doth to the hungry give,
 That they a city may prepare,
 Where they in peace may live.

8 He on the princes pours contempt,
 He causes them to stray
 And wander in a wilderness,
 In which there is no way.
 Yet setteth He the poor on high
 From all his miseries,
 And He, in number like a flock,
 Doth make Him families.

7 There sow they fields, and vineyards plant,
 To yield fruits of increase;
 His blessing makes them multiply,
 Lets not their beasts decrease.
 Again they much diminished are,
 And brought to low estate,
 Through sorrow and affliction sore,
 And by oppression great.

9 They who are righteous shall rejoice
 When they the same shall see,
 And, as confounded, stop her mouth
 Shall all iniquity.
 Who is wise, and will these things
 Observe, and them record,
 Ev'n they shall understand the love
 And kindness of the Lord.

5 Manasseh, Gilead too, are mine,
 On Ephraim shall my head recline,
 My ruler I shall Judah greet,
 In Moab I shall wash my feet.

7 O God, do Thou our leader be,
 Though we are now cast off from Thee,
 And when our hosts to battle go,
 O God, do Thou Thy presence show.

6 To Edom I will cast my shoe,
 In triumph o'er Philistia go,
 Who to the city fortified —
 To Edom, who will be my guide?

8 From trouble help, and us relieve,
 For vain the help that man can give;
 In God will we great valor show,

| 5 A widow let his wife be left,
 His children of their sire bereft;
 Let them be scattered far from home,
 And begging bread through deserts roam. 6 Extortioners his substance take,
 His toil a prey let strangers make;
 Let him from none compassion know,
 None to his orphans favor show. 7 His seed let perish in their shame,
 The coming age blot out their name;
 His father's sin Jehovah mind,
 His mother's sin no pardon find. 8 Let them with God ne'er be forgot,
 Till he from earth their mem'ry blot;
 For he remembered not to show
 Compassion to the sons of woe. 9 The poor and those with want distressed
 He persecuted and oppressed;
 He them pursued to make his prey,
 And broken-hearted ones to slay. 10 The curse he loved on him shall rest,
 He, blessing not, shall not be blest.
 Himself with cursing he arrayed,
 To him shall cursing be repaid. 11 In him like water it shall flow,
 Like oil through all his bones shall go;
 Like raiment it shall clothe him o'er,
 A girdle binding evermore. | 12 Foes and accusers, from the Lord,

 But God the Lord, for Thy name's sake,
 For me in mercy undertake. 13 Because Thy grace is rich and free,
 From all my foes deliver me;
 I'm poor and needy, grant relief,
 My heart within is pierced with grief. 14 Like locust tossed, like fleeting shade,
 My days to pass away are made;
 Through many fasts my strength declines,
 My knees are weak, my body pines. 15 To foes a vile reproach I'm made,
 On me they look and shake the head;
 O Lord, my God, my helper be,
 In Thy great mercy save Thou me. 16 That this to them, Lord, may be known,
 Has by Thy mighty hand been done;
 Thy curse, but let their curse be vain,
 Thy blessing, Lord, let me obtain. 17 When they arise shamed let them be,
 But make Thy servant glad in Thee;
 Let foes be covered with disgrace,
 And mantle o'er with shame their face. 18 My mouth shall greatly praise the Lord,
 Yea, with the throng His praise record,
 For on the poor's right hand shall He
 Stand up, his soul from wrong to free. |

J. B. HERBERT

1. I love the Lord, be-cause my voice And prayers He did hear;
 2. Of death the cords and sor-rows did A-bout me com-pass and round,
 3. Up-on the name of God the Lord I then did call, say, and our Lord;
 4. God mer-ci-ful and right-eous is, Yea, gra-cious is our Lord;

I, while I live, will call on Him, Who bowed to me His ear.
 The pains of hell took hold on me, I grief and trou-ble found.
 De-liv-er Thou my soul, O Lord, I Thee hum-bly pray.
 God saves the meek: I was brought low, He did me help af-ford.

- 5 O thou my soul, do thou return
 Unto thy quiet rest,
 For largely unto thee the Lord
 His bounty hath expressed.
- 6 For my afflicted soul from death
 Delivered was by Thee;
 Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears,
 My feet from falling, free.
- 7 I in the land of those that live
 Will walk the Lord before.
 I did believe, and therefore spoke;
 I was afflicted sore.
- 8 I said, when I was in my haste,
 That all men liars be.
 What shall I render to the Lord
 For all His gifts to me?
- 9 I'll of salvation take the cup,
 On God's name will I call,
 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
 Before His people all.
- 10 In God's sight dear is His saints' death;
 Thy servant, Lord, am I,
 Thy servant, and Thy handmaid's son;
 My bonds Thou didst untie.
- 11 To Thee thank-off'rings I will give,
 And on God's name will call;
 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord
 Before His people all;

 Within the midst of thee,
 O city of Jerusalem,
 Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM 116: L. M. 1-7

FR. R. SCHUMANN

1. I love the Lord, for He did hear My voice and sup-pli-ca-tions all;
 2. Death's sor-rows com-passed me a-round, The pains of hell shook all my frame;
 3. O Lord, I hum-bly Thee en-treat, From all dis-tress re-deem my soul;

Be-cause He hath in-clined His ear, I while I live will on Him call.
 I trou-ble great and sor-row found, Then called I on Je-ho-vah's name.
 The kind-ness of the Lord is great, Our God is just and mer-ci-ful.

- 4 The simple with His care are blest;
 I was brought low, God rescued me;
 My soul, return thou to thy rest,
 Great love the Lord hath shown to thee.
- 5 For Thou from death hast saved me, Lord,
 And Thou hast freed my eyes from tears,
 My feet from falling hast secured;
 With God I'll walk thro' all my years.
- 6 As I believed, so spake I then,
 When great affliction on me pressed;
 "How false, how faithless are all men!"
 Were words I uttered in my haste.
- 7 What fit return, Lord, can I make
 For all Thy gifts on me bestowed?
 The cup of blessing I will take,
 And call upon the name of God.

- 4 By what means shall a young man learn
 His way to cleanse, O Lord?
 By taking careful heed to it
 According to Thy word.
 Unfeignedly Thee have I sought
 With all my soul and heart;
 O never let me from the path
 Of Thy commands depart.
- 5 Thy word I in my heart have hid,
 That I offend not Thee;
 O Lord, Thou ever blessed art,
 Thy statutes teach Thou me.

- The judgments of Thy mouth each one
 My lips recounted have;
 More joy Thy testimonies' way
 Than riches all me gave.
- 6 I will Thy holy precepts make
 My meditation still,
 And have respect to all Thy ways
 Continually I will.
 Upon Thy statutes my delight
 Shall constantly be set,
 And by Thy grace I never will
 Thy holy law forget.

Moderato

1. With joy I hear my friends ex-claim, "Come, let us in God's tem-ple meet;"
 2. A cit-y built com-compact and fair, Je-ru-s'lem stands, the sa-cred place
 3. 'Tis there by His com-mand they meet To ren-der thanks and pay their vows,
 4. For sake of friends and kin-dred dear My heart's de-sire is "peace to thee;"

With-in thy gates, Je-ru-sa-lem, Shall ev-er stand our will-ing feet.
 To which the gath-'ring tribes re-pair, Tribes of Je-ho-vah's cho-sen race.
 And there is judg-ment's roy-al seat, There are the thrones of Da-vid's house.
 And for the house of God, my prayer Shall seek thy good con-tin-u-al-ly.

Fond Remembrance Of Church Privileges (Con.)

The winds a-lone our harp-strings swept, That on the droop-ing wil-lows hung.
 Our spoil-ers called for mirth, and cried, "Come, sing us one of Zi-on's songs."
 O how can we our voi-ces bring To sing God's song in this strange land?
 Let my right hand for-get its skill With grace the harp's sweet strings to move.

| 5 If I do not remember thee,
 Let my parched tongue its utterance cease;
 If my chief joy be dear to me
 Beyond Jerus'lem's joy and peace. 6 Remember, Lord, how Edom's crowd,
 Glad in Jerus'lem's day of woe,
 Urged on the victor, shouting loud,
 "Down with her walls, o'erthrow, o'erthrow." | 7 O Babel's daughter, God's decree
 Dooms thee to wrath, a wretched prey,
 And blest shall that avenger be
 Who shall to thee our wrongs repay. 8 Yea, truly shall that man be blest,
 And with triumphal honor crowned,
 Who rends thy children from the breast,
 To dash them bleeding to the ground. |

The Praises Of The Most High

PSALM 138. L. M.

H. H. McGRANAHAN

1. With all my heart I'll praise Thy name, Be-fore the gods Thy praise pro-claim;
 2. For Thou o'er all Thy name, O Lord, Hast mag-ni-fied Thy faith-ful word;
 3. The Lord, tho' high, re-spects the low, But He the proud far off doth know;

I'll wor-ship in Thy ho-ly place, And praise Thee for Thy truth and grace.
 Thou didst me an-swer when I cried, Thou hast my soul with strength sup-plied.
 Tho' waves of trou-ble round me roll, Thou, Lord, wilt yet re-vive my soul.

CHORUS

All kings of earth shall give Thee praise, When from Thy mouth they learn Thy ways;

m cres. ff

God's Omniscience And Omnipresence

PSALM 139. L. M.

J. B. HERBERT

1. Lord, Thou hast searched me, and hast known My ris - ing up and ly - ing down,
2. Thou know'st my path and ly - ing down, And all my ways to Thee are known;
3. Be - hind, be - fore me, Thou dost stand, And lay on me Thy might - y hand;

And from a - far Thy search - ing eye Be - holds my tho'ts that se - cret lie.
 For in my tongue no word can be, But, lo, O Lord, 'tis known to Thee.
 Such knowl - edge is for me too strange, 'Tis high be - yond my ut - most range.

God's Omniscience And Omnipresence (Con.)

CHORUS

Whith-er, whith-er shall my foot-steps fly Be - yond Thy Spir-it's search - ing eye?

O whith-er, whith-er shall my foot - steps fly Be - yond Thy Spir-it's search-ing eye?

- | | |
|--|--|
| 4 O whither shall my footsteps fly
Beyond Thy Spirit's searching eye?
To what retreat shall I repair,
And find not Thy dread presence there? 5 If I to heaven shall ascend,
Thy presence there will me attend ;
If in the grave I make my bed,
Lo, there I find Thy presence dread. 6 If on the morning wings I flee,
And dwell in utmost parts of sea,
Even there Thy hand shall guide my way,
And Thy right hand shall be my stay. 7 Or if I say, To shun Thine eye
In shades of darkness I will lie,
Around me then the very night
Will shine as shines the noon-day light. 8 From Thee the shades can nought disguise,
The night is day before Thine eyes ;
The darkness is to Thee as bright
As are the beams of noon-day light. 9 My very reins belong to Thee ;
Thou in the womb didst cover me ;
And I to Thee will praise proclaim,
For fearful, wondrous, is my frame. | 10 Thy works are wonderful, I know,
And when in depths of earth below
This complicated frame was made,
'Twas all before Thine eyes displayed. 11 My substance, yet unformed by Thee,
Thy searching eyes did clearly see ;
My days were written every one
Within Thy books, ere yet begun. 12 Thy thoughts, O God, to me are dear ;
How vast their numbers do appear !
More than the sand my reckonings make,
I'm still with Thee when I awake. 13 Thou wilt the wicked slay, O God ;
Depart from me, ye men of blood,
Who speak of Thee for ends profane,
Thy foes who take Thy name in vain. 14 Do not I hate Thy haters, Lord,
And Thy assailants hold abhorred ?
A perfect hatred them I show,
And count each one to me a foe. 15 Search me, O God, my heart discern,
Try me, my very heart to learn ;
See if in evil paths I stray,
And guide me in th' eternal way. |

 2. As fra - grant in - cense on the air, So mount to heav'n my ear - ly pray'r;
 3. Set, Lord, a watch my mouth be - fore, And of my lips keep Thou the door;

 Like healing oil the accents glide;
 If voice of faithful friend reprove,
 Such smiting comes to me in love. 6 For them, when they are in distress,
 To God I will my prayer address;
 Their judges cast on rocky ground,
 Then sweet to them my words shall sound. | 7 Around the grave our bones are left,
 As branches by the woodman cleft;
 To Thee, Lord God, I lift my eyes,
 On Thee my helpless soul relies. 8 Preserve me from the secret net,
 The toils which impious hands have set;
 In their own snares let sinners fall,
 While I by grace escape them all. |

 The eyes of all upon Thee wait;
 In season Thou their food dost give;
 Thy opened hand, with bounty great,
 Supplies the wants of all that live.

PSALM 145. L. M. 11-14

GEORGE KINGSLEY

1. The Lord is just in His ways all, And ho - ly in His works each one;
 2. God will the just de - sire ful - fil Of such as do Him fear in - deed;
 3. The Lord will keep con - tin - ual - ly All who Him love with up - right heart;
 4. My mouth and lips I'll there - fore frame To speak the prais - es of the Lord;

The Lord is near to all who call, Who call in truth on Him a - lone.
 Their cry re - gard, and hear He will, And save them in the time of need.
 But all who work in - iq - ui - ty De - stroy will He, and quite sub - vert.

The Lord Our Help And Hope

PSALM 146. 8s & 7s. 1-3

JAMES McGRANAHAN

1. Hal - le - lu - jah! praise Je - ho - vah; O my soul, Je - ho - vah praise;
 2. Put no trust in earth - ly prin - ces, Nor man's son, whose help is vain;
 3. He that hath the God of Ja - cob For his help is tru - ly blest,

While I live I'll praise Je - ho - vah, To my God sing all my days.
 Soon his breath and thoughts for - sake him, Back to dust he turns a - gain.
 He whose hope is in Je - ho - vah, And up - on his God doth rest.

CHORUS

Hal - le - lu - jah! Praise Je - ho - vah! Thro' all a - ges He is King;

Hal - le - lu - jah! Praise Je - ho - vah! Ev - er - more His prais - es sing.

PSALM 146. 8s & 7s

WM. B. BRADBURY

1. Hal - le - lu - jah! praise Je - ho - vah; O my soul, Je - ho - vah praise;
 2. Put no trust in earth - ly prin - ces, Nor man's son, whose help is vain;
 3. He that hath the God of Ja - cob For his help is tru - ly blest,

While I live I'll praise Je - ho - vah, To my God sing all my days.
 Soon his breath and thoughts for-sake him, Back to dust he turns a - gain.

CHORUS

Je - ho - vah shall His throne main-tain, And through e - ter - ni - ty shall reign;

Thy God, O Zi - on, be a-dored Through ev - 'ry age:praise ye the Lord.

- 4 On the Lord Who made the heaven,
 Earth and sea, and all therein,
 Who will keep His truth forever,
 Rights of all oppressed maintain.
- 5 He gives food to those that hunger,
 To the blind restoreth sight;
 He gives freedom to the prisoner,
 Makes the bowed to stand upright.

- 6 He the righteous loves, and safely
 Keeps the stranger; He's a stay
 To the fatherless and widow,
 But subverts the sinner's way.
- 7 Evermore Jehovah reigneth,
 Through all ages He is King,
 Even He, thy God, O Zion;
 To Jehovah praises sing.
