PREFACE

Sto. S.C. Ste. Ste. S. C. S.C. S.C.

James Sterles

THE Defign of this Publication, is to give GOD the Glory of his diffinguifhing Grace, and gratify the pious Curiofity of those who are waiting and praying for that bleffed Time, when the SON OF GOD, in a more extensive Senfe than has yet been accomplished, shall receive the Heathen for bis Inheritance, and the uttermost Parts of the Earth for a Poffelsion.

Whenever any of the guilty Race of Mankind, are awakened to a juft concern for their eternal Intereft, are humbled at the footflool of a Sovereign God, and are perfwaded and enabled to accept the Offers of redeeming Love, it must always be acknowledged a wonderful Work of divine Grace, which demands our thankful Praites.—--But doubtlefs it is a more affecting Evidence of almighty Power—a more illustrious difplay of Sovereign Mercy, when those are enlightned with the Knowledge of Salvation, who have for many Ages dwelt in the grofleft Darknefs nefs and Heathenism, and are bro't to a chearful Subjection to the Government of our divine Redeemer, who from Generation to Generation had remain'd the 'voluntary Slaves of the Prince of Darknejs,

THIS is that delightful Scene which will pretent itfelf to the Readers View, while he attentively perufes the following Pages. Nothing certainly can be more agreeable to a benovelent and religious Mind, then to fee those that were funk in the most degenerate State of human Nature, at once, not only renounce those barbarous Cuftoms, that they had been inured to from their Infancy, but surprisingly transformed into the Character of real and devout Christians.

This mighty Change was bro't about by the plain and faithful Preaching of the Gofpel, attended with an uncommon Effusion of the divine Spirit, under the Ministry of the Reverend Mr. DAVID BRAINERD, a Miffienary employ'd by the Honcurable Society in Scotland, For propagating Christian Knowledge.

AND furely it will administer abundant Matter of Praise and Thank/giving to that Honourable Body, to find that their generous Attempt to fend the Gospel among the Indian Nations upon the Borders of New-York, New-Jersey and Pennsylvania has met with such superses.---

The Preface

IT would perhaps have been more agreeable to the Tafte of politer Readers, if the following Journal had been caft into a different Method, and form'd into one connect Narrative.— But the worthy Author amidft his continued Labours, had no Time to fpare for fuch an Undertaking.—Befides the pious Reader, will take a peculiar Pleafure to fee this Work deferibed in its native Simplicity, and the Operations of the Spirit upon the Minds of thefe poor benighted Pagans, laid down juft in the Method and Order in which they happened.—This, it muft be confefs'd, will occafion frequent Repetitions, but thefe, as they tend to give a fuller View of this amazing Difpenfation of divine Grace in its Rife and Progrefs, we truft, will be eafily forgiven.

WHEN we fee fuch Numbers of the moft ignorant and barbarous of Mankind, in the Space of a few Months, turn'd from Darknefs to Light, and from the Power of Sin and Satan unto God, it gives us Encouragement to wait and pray for that bleffed Time, when our victorious Redeemer fhall, in a more fignal Manner than he bas yet done, difplay the Banner of his Crofs, march on from conquering to conquer, till the Kingdoms of this World, are become the Kingdoms of our LORD AND OF HIS CHRIST.----Yea we cannot but lift up our Heads with Joy, and hope that it may be the Dawn of that bright and illuftrious Day when the SON OF RIGHTEOUSNESS fhall arife and shine from one End of the Earth to the other.—When, to use the Language of the inspired Prophets, the Gentiles shall come to his Light, and Kings to the brightness of his Rising; in Consequence of which, the Wilderness and solitary Places shall be glad; and the Desert rejoice and blossom as the Rose.

IT is doubtlefs the Duty of all, in their different Stations, and according to their refpective Capacities, to use their utmost endeavours to bring forward this promifed—this defired Day.—— There is a great want of School-masters among these christianized Indians, to instruct their Youth in the English Language and the Principles of the Christian Faith: For this, as yet, there is no certain Provision made, if any are inclined to contribute to fo good a Defign, we are perfuaded they will do an acceptable Service to the Kingdom of the Redeemer. And we earnessly defire the most Indigent to join, at least, in their Wishes and Prayers, that THIS WORK may prosper more and more, till the whole Earth is filled with the GLORY OF THE LORD.

RISE and PROGRESS

Crofweeklung, in New-Jersey, June 19. 1745.

AVING fpent most of my Time for more than a Year paft amongst H : the Indians in the D ware in Penfylvania; and having in that Time made two Journeys to Sulquebannab River, far back in that Province, in order to treat with the Indians there, respecting Christianity: And not having had any confiderable appearance of Ipecial Success in either of those Places, which damp'd my Spirits, and was not a little Discouraging to me. Upon hearing that there was a Number of Indians in and about a Place call'd (by the Indians) Cro/week/ung in New-Yer/ey, near four/core Miles Southeastward from the Forks of Delaware, I determined to make them a vifit, and fee what might be done towards the Christianizing of them; and accordingly arrived among them this Day.

I found very few Perfons at the Place I vifited, and perceived the Indians in these Parts were very much scatter'd, there being not more than two or three Families in a Place, and these finall Settlements fix, ten, fifteen, twenty and thirty Miles, and and fome more, from the Place I was then at, However, I preach'd to those few I found, who appear'd well dispos'd, and not inclin'd to object and cavil, as the Indians had frequently done or therwhere.

When I had concluded my Difcourfe, I inform'd them (there being none but a few Women and Children) that I would willingly vifit them again the next Day. Whereupon they readily fet out and travel'd ten or fifteen Miles, in order to give Notice to fome of their Friends at that Diftance. These Women, like the Woman of Samaria, feem'd defirous that others might fee the Man that told them what they had done in their Lives past, and the Misery that attended their idolatreus Ways.

June 20. Vifited and preach'd to the Indians again as I propos'd. Numbers more were gather'd at the Invitations of their Friends, who heard me the Day before. Thefe alfo appear'd as attentive, orderly and well dispos'd as the others. And none made any Objection, as Indians in other Places have usually done.

June 22. Preach'd to the Indians again. Their Number which at first confisted of about feven or eight Persons, was now encreased to near Thirty.

There was not only a folemn Attention among them, but fome confiderable Imprefions ('twas apparent) were made upon their Minds by divine Truths. Some began to feel their Mifery and and perifhing State, and appear'd concern'd for a Deliverance from it.

Lords-Day. June 23. Preach'd to the Indians and spent the Day with them.---- Their Number still increas'd; and all with one Confent seem'd to rejoice in my coming among them. Not 2 Word of Opposition was heard from any of them against Christianity; altho' in times pass, they had been as opposite to any Thing of that Nature, as any Indians whatsoever: And some of them not many Months before, were enraged with my Interpreter because he attempted to teach them fomething of Christianity:

June 24. Preach'd to the Indians at their defire and upon their own Motion. To fee poor Pagans defitous of hearing the Gofpel of CHRIST, animated me to difcourfe to them; altho' I was how very weakly, and my Spirits much exhaufted. They attended with the greatest feriousness and diligence; and there was some Concern for their Souls Salvation, apparent among them.

Souls Salvation, apparent among them. June 27: Visited and preach'd to the Indians again. Their Number now amounted to about Forty Perions. Their Solemnity and Attention still continued; and a confiderable Concern for their Souls became very apparent among fundry of them.

June 28. The Indians being now gather'd a confiderable Number of them, from their feveral and diftant Habitations, requested me to preach twice a Day to them, being defitous to hear as much.

much as they poffibly could while I was with them. I chearfully complied with their motion, and could not but admire at the Goodnets of God, who, I was perfuaded, had inclin'd them thus to enquire after the Way of Salvation.

June 29. Preach'd again twice to the Indians. Saw (as I thought) the Hand of God very evidently, and in a Manner fornewhat remarkable, making Provifion for their Subfiftance together, in Order to their being influcted in divine Things. For this Day and the Day before, with only walking a little way from the Place of our daily Meeting, they killed three Deer, which were a feafonably Supply for their wants, and without which, it feems, they could not have fublifted together in order to attend the Means of Grace.

gether in order to attend the Means of Grace. Lords-Day, June 30. Preach'd twice this Day alfo. Oblerv'd yet more Concern and Affection among the poor Heathens than ever: So that they even conftrain'd me to tarry yet'longer with them; altho' my Conftitution was exceedingly worn out, and my Health much impair'd by my late fatigues and labours, and effectially by my late Journey to Sulquekannab in May laft, in which I fodg'd on the Ground for feveral Weeks together.

July 1. Preach'd again twice to a very ferious and attentive Affembly of Indians, they having now learn'd to attend the Worfhip of God, with Christian Decency in all respects.

There were now between Forty and Fifty Perfons of them prefent, old and young.

amorg the INDIANS.

I fpent fome confiderable Time in difcourfing with them in a more private Way, enquiring of them what they remembred of the great Truths that had been taught them from Day to Day; and may juftly fay, 'twas amazing to fee how they had receiv'd and retain'd the Inftructions given them, and what a Measure of Knowledge fome of them had acquir'd in a few Days.

July, 2. Was oblig'd to leave these Indians at Cro/week/ung, thinking it my Duty, as foon as Health would admit, again to visit those at the Forks of Delaware. When I came to take leave of them, and fpoke fomething particularly to each of them, they all earnestly enquir'd when I would come again, and expressed a great defire of being further instructed. And of their own accord agreed, that when I should come again, they would all meet and live together during my Continuance with them. And that they would do their utmost Endeavours to gather all the other Indians in these Parts that were yet further remote. And when I parted, one told me with many Tears, She wished God would change her Heart? Another, That she wanted to find Christ? And an old Man that had been one of their Chiefs, wept bitterly with concern for his Soul. I then promis'd them, to return as speedily as my Health, and Business elsewhere would admit, and feit not a little concern'd at parting, left the good Impreffions then apparent upon Numbers of them; might decline and wear off, when the Means came to cease; and yet could not but hope that he who, I trufted, had begun a good Work among them, and who I knew did not ftand in need of Means to carry it on, would maintain and promote it in the Absence of them, altho at the same Time I must confess, that I had to often teen fuch encouraging Appearances among the Indians otherwhere prove wholly abortive ; and it appear'd the Favour would be fo great, if God should now, after I had pass'd thro' fo confiderable a Series of almost fruitless Labours and Fatigues, and after my rifing Hopes had been to often frustrated among these poor Pagans, give me any /pecial Success in my Labours with them, that I could not believe, and fcarce dared to hope that the Event would be for happy, and fcarce ever found myfelf more tuf= pended between Hope and Fear, in any Affair, or at any Time than this.

This encouraging Disposition and Readiness to receive Instruction, now apparent among these Indians, seems to have been the happy Effect of the Conviction that one or two of them met with fome Time fince at the Forks of Delaware, who have fince endeavour'd to shew their Friends the Evil of Idolatry, &c. And altho' the other Indians seem'd but little to regard, but rather to deride them, yet this, perhaps, has put them into a thinking Posture of Mind, or at least, given them fome Thoughts about Christianity, and excited in fome of them a Curiofity to hear; and so made Way for the present encouraging Attention. An Appre-

among the INDIANS,

Apprehention that this might be the Cate here, has given me Encouragement that God may in fuch a Manner blefs the Means I have used with Indians in other Places, where there is as yet no Appearance of it. If fo, may his Name have the Glory of it; for I have learn'd by Experience that he only can open the Ear, engage the Attention, and incline the Heart of poor benighted prejudic'd Pagans to receive Inftruction.

Forks of Delaware, in Pennsylvania, 1745.

LORD'S DAY, July 14. Discours'd to the Indians twice, feveral of whom appear'd concern'd, and were, I have Reaton to think, in some meafure convinc'd by the Divine Spirit of their Sin and Misery: So that they wept much the whole Time of divine Service.

Afterwards difcours'd to a Number of white People then prefent.—

July 18. Preach'd to my People, who attended diligently, beyond what had been common among these Indians: And some of them ap₇ pear'd concern'd for their Souls.

LORD'S DAY, July 21. Preach'd to the Indians first, then to a Number of white People present, and in the Asternoon to the Indians again.---Divine Truths seem'd to make very considerable Impressions upon several of them, and caused the Tears to flow freely.

Afterwards I baptiz'd my Interpreter and his Wife 8

Wife, who were the first I baptiz'd among the Indians.

They are both, Perfons of fome experimental Knowledge in Religion; have both been awaken'd to a folemin Concern for their Souls; have to appearance, been brought to a Senfe of their Mifery and Undonnefs in themfelves; have both appear'd to be comforted with divine Confolations; and 'tis apparent both have pais'd a great, and I can't but hope a faving Change.

It may perhaps be fatisfactory and agreeable that I should give fome brief Relation of the Man's Exercise and Experience fince he has been with me, especially seeing he is improv'd as my Interpreter to others.

When I first employ'd him in this Business in the Beginning of Summer 1744, he was well fitted for his Work in regard of his Acquaintance with the Indian and English Language, as well as with the Manners of both Nations. And in regard of his defire that the Indians should conform to the Customs and Manners of the English, and especially to their Manner of living: But he teem'd to have little or no Impression of Religion upon his Mind, and in that Respect was very unsit for his Work, being uncapable of understanding and communicating to others many things of Importance, fo that I labour'd under great disadvantages in addressing the Indians, for want of his having an experimental, as well as more doctrinal Acquaintance with divine Truths; and, at times. times, my Spirits fank, and were much difcourag'd under this Difficulty, especially when I obferv'd that divine Truths made little or no Impreffions upon his Mind for many Weeks together.

He indeed behav'd foberly after I employ'd him, (altho' before he had been a bard Drinker) and feem'd honeftly engag'd as far as he was capable in the Performance of his Work; and elpecially he appear'd very defirous that the Indians fhould renounce their Hatheni/b Notions and Practices, and conform to the Cuftoms of the Cbri/lian World. But ftill feem'd to have no concern about his own Soul, 'till he had been with me a confiderable Time.

Near the latter End of July 1744, I preach'd to an Affembly of white People, with more Freedom and Fervency than I could poffibly addrefs the Indians with, without their having first attained a greater Measure of doctrinal Knowledge : At which time he was present, and was somewhat awaken'd to a concern for his Soul; so that the next Day he discours'd freely with me about his spiritual concerns, and gave me an Opportunity to use furtherEndeavours to fasten the Impressions of his perishing State upon his Mind : And I could plainly perceive for some time after this, that he addrefsed the Indians with more Concern and Fervency than he had formerly done.

But these Impressions seem'd quickly to decline, and he remain'd in a great Measure careless and secure, until some time late in the Fall of the

Year following, at which time he fell into a weak and languifhing State of Body, and continu'd much diforder'd for feveral Weeks together. And at this Seafon divine Truth took hold of him, and made deep Imprefions upon his Mind. He was brought under great Concern for his Soul, and his Exercife was not now transient and unfleady, but conflant and abiding, fo that his Mind was burden'd from Day to Day; and 'twas now his great Enquiry, What he fould do to be faved. His fpiritual Trouble prevail'd till at length his Sleep, in a Meafure, departed from him, and he had little reft Day or Night; but walk'd about under a great Preffure of Mind, (for tho' he was diforder'd he was ftill able to walk) and appear'd like another Man to his Neighbours, who could not but obferve his Behaviour with wonder.

After he had been sometime under this Exercife, while he was striving for Mercy, he fays, there seem'd to be an impassible Mountain before him. He was preffing towards Heaven as he thought, but bis Way was bedg'd up with Thorns that he could not strive an Inch surther. He look'd this Way and that Way, but could find no Way at all. He thought if he could but make his Way thro' these Thorns and Briers, and climb up the first steep Pitch of the Mountain, that then there might be Hope for him, but no Way or Means could he find to accomplish this. Here he labour'd for a Time, but all in vain; he faw twas impssible, he says, for him ever to help himfelf

felf thro' this intupportable Difficulty. He felt it fignify'd nothing, it fignify'd just nothing at all for him to prive and struggle any more. And here, he fays, he gave over thriving, and felt that it was a gone Cafe with him, as to his own Power, and that all his Attempts were, and forever would be vain and fruitlefs. And yet was more Calm and compos'd under this View of Things, than he had been while striving to help himself.

While he was giving me this Account of his Exercife, I was not without Fears that what he related was but the Working of his own Imagination, and not the Effect of any divine Illumination of Mind. But before I had Time to difcover my Fears, he added, That at this Time he felt himfelf in a miferable and perifhing Condition : That he faw plainly what he had been doing all his Days, and that he had never done one good Thing, (as he express'd it.) He knew, he faid, he was not guilty of fome wicked Actions that he knew fome others guilty of. He had not been us'd to steal, quarrel and murder; the latter of which Vices are common among the Indians. He likewife knew that he had done many Things that were right : He had been kind to his Neighbours, &c. But still his Cry was, That he had never done one good Thing. I knew, faid he, that I had not been fo bad as fome others in fome Things, and that I had done many Things which Folks call good, but all this did me no good now, I law that all was bad, and that I never had B 2 dome done one good Thing, (Meaning that he had never done any Thing from a right Principle, and with a right View, tho' he had done many Things that were materially Good and Right.) And now I thought, faid he, that I muft fink down to Hell, that there was no Hope for me, because I never could do any Thing that was good; and if God let me alone never fo long, and I should try never fo much, still I should do nothing but what is bad, Sc.

This further Account of his Exercife, fatisfy'd me that 'twas not the meer Working of his Imagination, fince he appear'd to evidently to die to himfelf, and to be divorc'd from a Dependance upon his own Righteoufnefs, and good Deeds, which Mankind in a fallen State, are to much attach'd to, and inclin'd to hope for Salvation upon.

There was one thing more in his View of Things at this Time that was very remarkable. He not only faw, he fays, what a miferable State he himtelf was in, but he likewife faw the World around him, in general, were in the fame perifhing Circumftances, notwithftanding the Profeffion many of them made of Chriftianity, and the Hope they entertain'd of obtaining everlafting Happinefs. And this he faw clearly, as if be was now awaked out of Sleep, or bad a Cloud taken from before bis Eyes. He faw that the Life he had liv'd was the Way to eternal Death, that he was now on the Brink of endlefs Mifery : And when he look'd round, he faw Multitudes of others who had liv'd the fame Life with himfelf, ---had no more Goodnefs than he, and yet dream'd that they were fafe enough, as he had formerly done. He was fully perfuaded by their Converfation and Behaviour, that they had never felt their Sin and Mifery, as he now felt his.

After he had been for fome Time in this Condition, tenfible of the impoffibility of his helping himfelf by any Thing he could do, or of being deliver'd by any created Arm, fo that he bad given up all for lost, as to his own Attempts, and was become more calm and compos'd: Then, he fays, it was born in upon his Mind as if it had been audibly fpoken to him, There is Hope, there is Hope. Whereupon his Soul feem'd to reft and be in fome Measure fatisfy'd, tho' he had no confiderable Joy.

He can't here remember diffinctly any Views he had of Chrift, or give any clear Account of his Soul's Acceptance of him, which makes his Experience appear the more doubtful, and renders it lefs fatisfactory to himfelf and others, than (perhaps) it might be if he could remember diftinctly the Apprehensions and actings of his Mind at this Season.

But these Exercises of Soul were attended and follow'd with a very great Change in the Man, so that it might justly be faid, he was become another Man, if not a new Man. His Conversation and Deportment were much alter'd, and even

ven the carelefs World could not but admire what had befallen him to, make fo great a Change in his Temper, Difcourfe and Behaviour.---

And effectially there was a furprizing Alteration in his publick Performances. He now addrefs'd the Indians with admirable Fervency, and fcarce knew when to leave off: And fometimes when I had concluded my Difcourfe, and was returning homeward, he would tarry behind to repeat and inculcate what had been fpoken.

His Change is abiding, and his Life, fo far as I know, unblemifb'd to this Day, tho' tis now more than fix Months fince he experienc'd this Change, in which fpace of Time he has been as much expos'd to firong Drink, as poffible, in divers Places where it has been moving free as Water; and yet has never, as I know of, difcover'd any hankering Defire after it.

He feems to have a very confiderable Experience of fpiritual Exercife, and difcourfes feelingly of the Conflicts and Confolations of a real Christian. His Heart eccoes to the Soul-humbling Doctrines of GRACE, and he never appears better pleas'd than when he hears of the abfolute Sovereignty of GOD, and the Salvation of Sinners in a Way of meer free Grace. He has likewife of late had more Satisfaction respecting his own State, has been much enliven'd, and affisted in his Work, so that he has been a great Comfort to me.

And

And upon a View and ftrict Observation of his ferious and favory Conversation, his Christian Temper, and unblemish'd Behaviour for so confiderable a Tract of Time, as well as his Experience I have given an Account of, I think that I have Reason to hope that he is created a New in Ch-ist Jesus to good Works.

His Name is Moles Tinda Tautamy, he is about Fifty Years of Age, and is pretty well acquainted with the Pagan Notions and Cuftoms of his Country-Men, and fo is the better able now to expose them. He has, I'm perfuaded, already been, and I trust will yet be a Bieffing to the other Indians.

July 2.3. Preach'd to the Indians, but had few Hearers: Those who are constantly at home seem of late to be under some serious Impressions of a religious Nature.

July 26. Preach'd to my People, and afterwards baptized my Interpreters Children.

LORD'S DAY, July 28. Preach'd again, and perceiv'd my People, at least fome of them, more thoughtful than ever about their Souls Concerns. I was told by fome, that feeing my Interpreter and others baptiz'd made them more concern'd than any thing they had ever feen or heard before. There was indeed a confiderable Appearance of divine Power amongst them at the Time that Ordinance was administred. May that divine Influence spread and increase more abundantly.

July

July 30. Difcours'd to a Number of my People, and gave them fome particular Advice and Direction, being now about to leave them for the prefent, in order to renew my Vifit to the Indians in New-Jerfey. They were very attentive to my Difcourfe, and earneftly defirous to know when I defigned to return to them again.

Crosweeksung in New-Jersey, 1745.

August 3. Having visited the Indians in these Parts in June last, and tarried with them some confiderable Time, preaching almost daily: At which Seafon God was pleafed to pour upon them a Spirit of awakening and concern for their Souls, and furprizingly to engage their Attention to divine Truths, I now found them ferious, and a Number of them under deep concern for an Interest in Christ: Their Convictions of their finful and perifhing State having, in my Absence from them, been much promoted by the Labours and Endeavours of the Reverend Mr. William Tennent, to whom I had advised them to apply for Direction, and whole Houle they freguented much while, I was gone .---- I preached to them this Day with fome View to Rev. xxii. 17. And whofoever will, let him take the Water of Life freely: Tho' I could not pretend to handle the Subject methodically among them. The Lord, I'm perjuaded, enabled me in a Manner fomewhat uncommon to fet before them

the Lord Jefus Christ as a kind and compassion nate Saviour, inviting distressed and perishing Sinners to accept everlassing Mercy. And a surprizing concern soon became apparent among them. There were about Twenty adult Persons together, (many of the Indians at remote Places not having as yet had time to come since my return hither) and not above two that I could see with dry Eyes: Some were much concern'd, and discover'd vehement Longings of Soul after Christ to fave them from the Misery they felt and fear'd LORD's DAY, August 4. Being invited by a LORD'S DAY, August 4. Being invited by a neighbouring Minister to affist in the Administration of the Lord's-Supper, I comply'd with his Request, and took the Indians along with me, not only those that were together the Day before, but many more that were coming to hear me, so that there were near Fifty in all, old and young.

They attended the feveral Difcourfes of the Day, and fome of them that could underftand English, were much affected, and all feem'd to have their Concern in fome Meafure rais'd.

Now a Change in their Manners began to appear very visible. In the Evening when they came to sup together, they would not taste a Morfel 'till they had sent to me to come and ask a Blessing on their Food, at which time fundry of them wept, especially when L minded them how they had in Times past eat their Feasts in Honour to Devils, and neglected to thank God for them.

Aug.

Aug. 5. After a Sermon had been preach'd by another Minister, I preached, and concluded the publick Work of the Solemnity from John vii. 37. And in my Difcourse address'd the Indians in particular, who fat by themselves in a Part of the house: at which time one or two of them were struck with deep Concern, as they afterwards told me, who had been little affected before : Others had their Concern increas'd to a confiderable Degree. In the Evening (the greater. Part of them being at theHouse where I lodg'd) I, discours'd to them, and found them univerfally engag'd about their Soul's Concern, enquiring, What they should do to be laved? And all their Conversation among themfelves turned upon religious Matters, in which they were much affifted by my Interpreter, who was with them Day and Night.

This Day there was one Woman, that had been much concern'd for her Soul, ever fince fhe firft heard me preach in June laft, who obtain'dComfort, I truft, folid and well grounded : She feem'd to be fill'd with Love to Chrift, at the fame Time behav'd humbly and tenderly, and appear'd afraid of nothing fo much as of grieving and offending him whom her Soul lov'd.

Aug. 6. In the Morning I difcours'd to the Indians at the Houfe where we lodg'd : Many of them were then much affected, and appear'd furprizingly tender, fo that a few Words about their Souls concerns would caufe the Tears to flow freely, and produce many Sobs and Groans.----

In the Afternoon, they being return'd to the Place where I have ufually preach'd amongst them, I again discours'd to them there. There were about Fifty five Perlons in all, about Forty that were capable of attending divine Service with Understanding : I infisted upon I John iv. 10. Herein is Love, &c. They feem'd eager of hearing ; but there appear'd nothing very remarkable, except their Attention, till near the Close of my Discourse, and then divine Truths were attended with a furprizing Influence, and produced a great Concern among them. There was fcarce Three in Forty that could refrain from Tears and bitter Cries. They all, as one, feem'd in an Agony of Soul to obtain an Interest in Christ, and the more I discours'd of the Love and Compassion of God in fending his Son to fuffer for the Sins of Men ; and the more I invited them to come and partake of his Love, the more their Diftrefs was aggravated, because they felt themselves unable to come.

It was furprizing to fee how their Hearts feem'd to be pierc'd with the tender and melting Invitations of the Gofpel, when there was not a Word of Terror fpoken to them.

There were this Day two Perfons that obtain'd Relief and Comfort, which (when I came to difcourfe with them particularly) appear'd folid, rational and fcriptural. After I had enquir'd into the Grounds of their Comfort, and faid many Things I thought proper to them, I afked them C 2 what what they wanted God to do further for them? They replied, They wanted Christ should wipe their Hearts quite clean, &c.

Surprizing were now the Doings of the Lord, that I can fay no lefs of this Day (and I need fay no more of it) than that the Arm of the Lord was powerfully and marveloully revealed in it.

Aug. 7. Preach to the Indians from Ifaiab liii. 3.—______10. There was a remarkable Influence attending the Word, and great Concern in the Affembly; but fcarce equal to what appear'd the Day before, that is, not quite fo univerfal; However, most were much affected, and many in great diffreis for their Souls; and fome few could neither go nor stand, but lay flat on the Ground, as if pierc'd at Heart, crying inceffantly for Mercy: Several were newly awaken'd, and 'twas remarkable that as fast as they came from remote Places round about, the Spirit of God feem'd to feize them with Concern for their Souls.

After publick Service was concluded, I found two Perfons more that had newly met with Comfort, of whom I had good Hopes; and a Third that I could not but entertain fome Hopes of, whofe Cafe did not appear fo clear as the other; fo that here were now Six in all that had got fome Relief from their fpiritual Diffreffefs, and Five whofe Experience appear'd very clear and fati-factory: And tis worthy of Remark, that thofe who obtain'd Comfort firft, were in genetal deeply deeply affected with Concern for their Souls, when I preached to them in June laft.

Aug. 8. In the Afternoon I preached to the Indians, there Number was now about Sixty-Five Perfons, Men, Woman and Children : I difcours'd from Luke xiv. 16, 23. and was favour'd with uncommon Freedom in my Difcourfe.

There was much visible Concern among them while I was discoursing publickly; but afterwards when I spoke to one and another more particularly, whom I perceiv'd under much concern, the Power of God seem'd to descend upon the Afsembly like a rushing mighty Wind, and with an aftonishing Energy bore down all before it.

I flood amaz'd at the Influence that feiz'd the Audience almost universally, and could compare it to nothing more aptly, than the irrefiftable Force of a mighty Torrent, or fwelling Deluge, that with its infupportable Weight and Preffure, bears down and fweeps before it whatever is in its Way! Almost all Persons of all Ages were bow'd down with Concern together, and fcarce one was able to withftand the Shock of this furprizing Opperation ! Old Men and Women who had been drunken Wretches for many Years, and fome little Children, not more than Six or Seven Years of Age appear'd in Diftrefs for their Souls, as well as Perfons of middle Age. And 'twas apparent these Children (some of them at least) were not meerly frighted with feeing the general Concern ; but were made sensible of their Danger, the Badnefs of their Hearts, and their Mifery without Chrift, as fome of them exprefs'd it. The most stubborn Hearts was now obliged to bow. A principal Man among the Indians, who before was most fecure and Self-righteous, and thought his State good because he knew more than the Generality of the Indians had formerly done, and who with a great Degree of Confidence the Day before, told me, he had been a Christian more than ten Years, was now brought under folemn Concern for his Soul, and wept bitterly, Another Man confiderable in Years, who had been a Murderer, a Powwow, (or Conjurer,) and a notorious Drunkard, was likewise brought now to cry for Mercy with many Tears, and to complain much that he could be no more concerned when he faw his Danger fo very great.

They were almost universally praying and crying for Mercy in every Part of the House, and many out of Doors, and Numbers could neither go nor stand: Their concern was so great, each one for himself, that none seem'd to take any Notice of those about them, but each pray'd as freely for themselves; and (I'm apt to think) were, to their own Apprehension, as much retir'd as if they had been every one by themselves in the thickess Defart: Or, I believe rather, that they thought nothing about any but themselves, and their own States, and so were every one praying a-part, altho' all together.

It

It feem'd to me there was now an exact Fulfilment of that Prophefy Zech. xii. 10, 11, 12. For there was now a great Mourning like the Mourning of Hadadrimmon.---And each feem'd to mourn a-part. Methought this had a near Refemblance to the Day of God's Power, mention'd Joh. x. 14. For I must fay, I never fee any Day like it in all Respects: 'Twas a Day wherein I am perfuaded the Lord did much to destroy the Kingdom of Darkness among this People, '

This Concern in general was most rational and just, those who had been awaken'd any confiderable Time, complained more especially of the Badness of their Hearts; and those newly awaken'd of the Badness of their Lives and *Asti*ons past; and all were assist of the Anger of God, and of everlasting Misery as the Desert of their Sins.

Some of the white People who came out of Curiofity to hear what this Babbler would fay, to the poor ignorant Indians, were much awakened, and fome appear'd to be wounded with a View of their perifhing State.

Those who had lately obtain'd Relief, were fill'd with Comfort at this Season; they appear'd calm and compos'd, and seemed to rejoyce in Christ Jesus: And some of them took their distress of the Hand, telling them of the Goodness of Christ, and the Comfort that is to be enjoyed in him, and thence invited them to come come and give up their Hearts to him. And I could observe some of them in the most honest and unaffected Manner (without any design of being taken Notice of) lifting up their Eyes to Heaven as if crying for Mercy, while they faw the Distress of the poor Souls around them.

There was one remarkable Instance of awakening this Day, that I can't but take particular Notice of here. A young Indian Woman, who, I believe, never knew before she had a Soul, nor ever thought of any fuch Thing, hearing that there was fomething strange among the Indians, came (it feems) to fee what was the Matter : She. in her Way to the Indians, called at my Lodgings, and when I told her I defigned prefently to preach to the Indians, laugh'd and feemed to mock ; but went however to them. I had not proceeded far in my publick Difcourfe, before the felt effectually that The had a Soul, and before I had concluded my Discourse, was so convinced of her Sin and Mifery, and fo diftrefs'd with Concern for her Soul's Salvation, that the feemed like one pierced through with a Dart, and cried out inceffantly. She could neither go nor fland, nor fit on her Seat without being held up. After publick Service was over, the lay flat on the Ground praying earneftly, and would take no Notice of, nor give any Anfwer to any that fpoke to her. I hearkened to hear what fhe faid, and perceived the Burden of her Prayer to be, Güttummáukälümméh wéchäuméh kméléh Ndah, i. e. Have Mercy

among the INDIANS.

Mercy on me, and help me to give you my Heart. And thus the continued praying inceffantly for many Hours together. This was indeed a furprizing Day of God's

This was indeed a furprizing Day of God's Power, and feemed enough to convince an Atheift of the Truth, Importance and Power of God's Word.

Aug. 9. Spent almost the whole Day-with the Indians, the former Part of it in discoursing to many of them privately, and especially to some who had lately receivedComfort, and endeavouring to enquire into the Grounds of it, as well as to give them some proper Instructions, Cautions and Directions.

In the Afternoon discoursed to them publickly. There were now prefent about Seventy Perions, old and young. I opened and apply'd the Para-ble of the Sower, Mat. xiii. Was enabled to difcourfe with much Plainnefs, and found afterwards that this Discourse was very instructive to them. There were many Tears among them while I was discourfing publickly, but no confiderable Cry: Yet fome were much affected with a few Words spoken from Mat. xi. 28. with which I concluded my Difcourfe. But while I was discourfing near Night to two or three of the awakened Perfons, a divine Influence feemed to attend what was fpoken to them in a powerful Manner, which caufed the Perfons to cry out in Anguish of Soul, although I spoke not a Word of Terror, but on the Contrary, fet before them the the Fullness and All-fufficiency of Christ's Merits, and his Willingness to fave all that came to him ; and thereupon press'd them to come without Delay.

The cry of these was soon heard by others, who, tho' fcattered before, immediately gathered round. I then proceeded in the fame Strain of Gofpel-Invitation, till they were all melted into Tears and Cries, except two or three ; and feemed in the greatest Distress to find and secure an Intereft in the great Redeemer .--- Some who had but little more than a Ruffle made in their Paljions the Day before, feerned now to be deeply affected and wounded at Heart: And the Concern in general appear'd near as pravalent as it was the Day before. There was indeed a very great Mourning among them, and yet every one feem'd to mourn apart. For fo great was their Concern, that almost every one was praying and crying for himself, as if none had been near. Guttummaukalummeh, Guttummaukalummeh : i.e. Have Mercy upon me, Have Mercy upon me : Was the common Cry.

It was very affecting to fee the poor Indians, who the other Day was hallowing and yelling in their idolatrous Feafts and drunken Frolicks, now crying to God with fuch Importunity for an Intereft in his dear Son !

Found two or three Perfons who I had reafon to hope had taken Comfort upon good Grounds fince the Evening before: And thefe; with others' that that had obtain'd Comfort, were together, and feem'd to rejoyce much that God was carrying on his Work with fuch Power upon others,

Aug. 10. Rode to the Indians, and began to difcourfe more privately to those who had obtain'd Comfort and Satisfaction ; endeavouring to instruct, direct, caution, and comfort them: But others being eager of hearing every Word that related to fpiritual Concerns, foon came together one after another: And when I had discours'd to the young Converts more than half an Hour, they feem'd much melted with divine Things, and earnestly defirous to be with Christ. I told them of the godly Soul's perfect Purity, and full En-. joyment of Chrift, immediately upon its Separa-tion from the Body, and that it would be forever inconceivably more happy, than they had ever been for any fhort Space of Time, when Chrift feem'd near to them, in Prayer or other Duties. And that I might make Way for fpeaking of the Refurrection of the Body, and thence of the compleat Bleffedness of the Man, I said, but perhaps some of you will fay, I love my Body as we I as my Soul, and I can't bear to think that my Bedy should lye dead if my Soul is Happy. To which they all chearfully reply'd, Muttoh, muttoh, (before I had opportunity to profecute what I de-fign'd refpecting the Refurrection,) No, No. They did not regard their Bodies, if their Souls might be but with Chrift. Then they appear'd D 2 willing willing to be absent from the Body, that they might be present with the Lord.

When I had fpent fome time with these, I turn'd to the other Indians, and spoke to them from Luke xix. 10. I had not discours'd long before their Concern rose to a great Degree, and the House was fill'd with Cries and Groans. And when I infisted on the Compassion and Care of the Lord Jesus Christ for those that were lost, who thought themselves undone, and could find no way of Escape, this melted them down the more, and aggravated their distress, that they could not find, and come to so kind a Saviour.

Sundry Perfons who before had been but flightly awaken'd, were now deeply wounded with a Senfe of their Sin and Mifery. And one Man in particular, who was never before awaken'd, was now made to feel, that the Word of the Lord was guick and powerful, fharper than any two edged Sword. He teem'd to be pierc'd at Heart with Diftrefs, and his concern appear'd most rational, and feriptural: For he faid, All the Wickednefs of his past Life was brought fresh to his Remembrance, and he saw all the vile Actions he had done formerly, as if done but Yesterday.

Found one that had newly receiv'd Comfort, after prefing Diffress from Day to Day. Could not but rejoyce and admire at divine Goodness in what appear'd this Day. There feems to be fome Good done by every Discourse : Some newly awaken'd every Day, and fome comforted.

'Twas

'Twas refreshing to observe the Conduct of those that had obtain'd Comfort, while others were distress'd with Fear and Concern; these were lifting up their Hearts to God for them.

tors of the white People; fome Quakers and others. In the Afternoon I difcours'd upon a Part of St. Peter's Sermon, AEts ii. And at the Clofe of my Difcourfe to the Indians, made an address to the white People, and divine Truths feem'd then to be attended with Power' both to Englifh and Indians. Several of the white Heathen were awaken'd, and could not longer be idle Spectators, but found they had Souls to fave or loofe as well as the Indians, and a great concern fpread thro' the whole Affembly, fo that this alfo appear'd to be a Day of God's Power, effecially towards the Conclusion of it, as well as feveral of the former, altho' the Influence attending the Word feem'd fcarce io powerful now as in fome Days paft.

The Number of the Indians, old and young, was now upwards of Seventy, and one or two were newly awaken'd this Day, who never had appear'd to be mov'd with Concern for their Souls before.

Those that had obtained Relief and Comfort, and had given hopeful Evidences of having pass'd

a faving Change, appeared humble and devout, and behave in an agreeable and Chriftian Manner. I was refreshed to see the Tenderness of Conscience manifest in some of them, one Instance of which I cannot but take Notice of. Perceiving one of them very forrowful in the Morning, I enquired into the Cause of her Sorrow, and found the Difficulty was, she had been angry with her Child the Evening before, and was now exercis'd with Fears, less ther Anger had been inordinate and finful, which to grieved her that she waked and began to sob before Daylight, and continued weeping for several Hours together.

Aug. 14. Spent the Day with the Indians. There was one of them who had some time fince put away his Wife (as is common among them) and taken another Woman, and being now brought under fome ferious Impressions, was much concern'd about that Affair in particular, and feem'd fully convinc'd of the Wickedness of that practice, and earnestly defirous to know whatGod would have him do in his present Circumstances. When the Law of God refpecting Marriage had been open'd to them, and the Caute of his leaving his Wife enquir'd into; and when it appear'd she had given him no just Occasion by Unchastity to defert her, and that the was willing to forgive his past Misconduct, and to live peaceably with him for the future, and that she moreover infifted on it as her Right to enjoy him; he was

was then told, that it was his indifpenfible Duty to renounce the Woman he had laft taken, and receive the other who was his proper Wife, and live peaceably with her during Life, with which he readily and chearfully comply'd, and thereupon publickly renounc'd the Woman he had laft taken, and publickly promis'd to live with and be kind to his Wife during Life, fhe alfo promifing the fame to him.---And here appeared a clear Demonstration of the Power of God's Word upon their Hearts. I fuppofe a few Weeks before the whole World could not have perfuaded this Man to a Compliance with Cbriftian Rules in this Affair.

I was not without Fears, leaft this proceeding might be like putting new Wine into old Bottles, and that fome might be prejudiced against Christianity, when they faw the Overtures made by it. But the Man being much concerned about the Matter, the Determination of it could be deferred no longer, and it feem'd to have a good, rather than an ill, Effect among the Indians, who generally own'd, that the Laws of Christ were good and right respecting the Affairs of Marriage.

In the Afternoon I preached to them from the Apofile's Difcourfe to Cornelius Acts x. 34. &c. There appear'd fome affectionate Concern among them, tho' not equal to what appeared in feveral of the former Days. They fill attended and heard as for their Lives, and the Lords Work feem'd fill to be promoted, and propagated among them. Aug. 15.

Aug. 15. Preached from Luke iv. 16----21, The Word was attended with Power upon the Hearts of the Hearers. There was much Concern, many Tears, and affecting Cries among Liem, and fome in a special Manner were deeply wounded and distressed for their Souls. There were fome newly awakened who came but this Week, and Convictions feemed to be promoted in others .-- Those that had received Comfort, were likewife refreshed and strengthened, and the Work of Grace appear'd to advance in all refpects. The Paffions of the Congregation in general were not fo much moved, as in fome Days past, but their Hearts seemed as solemly and deeply affected with divine Truths as ever, at leaft in many Instances, altho' the Concern did not feem to be fo universal, and to reach every individual in fuch a Manner as it had appeared to do iome Days before.

Aug. 16. Spent confiderable Time in converfing privately with fundry of the Indians. Found one that had got relief and Comfort, after prefling Concern, and could not but hope, when I came to difcourfe particularly with her, that her Comfort was of the right Kind.

In the Afternoon preached to them from John vi. 26,—_____34. Toward the Clofe of my Difcourie, divine Truths were attended with confiderable Power upon the Audience, and more efpecially after publick Service was over, when I particularly addrefs'd fundry diffreffed Perfons.

There

There was a great Concern for their Souls fpread pretty generally among them : But especi-ally there were two Persons newly awaken'd to a Senfe of their Sin and Misery, one of whom was lately come, and the other had all along been very attentive, and defirous of being awaken'd, but could never before have any lively View of. her perishing State. But now her Concern and fpiritual Diffress was such, that, I thought, I had never feen any more preffing. Sundry old Men were also in Distress for their Souls; so that they could not refrain from weeping and crying out aloud, and their bitter Groans were the most convincing as well as affecting Evidence of the Reality and Depth of their inward Anguish .-- God is powerfully at work among them ! True and ge-nuine Convictions of Sin are daily promoted in many Inftances, and fome are newly awaken'd from time to time; altho' fome few, who felt a Commotion in their Paffions in Days paft, feem now to difcover that their Hearts were never duly affected. I never faw the Work of God appear fo independant of Means as at this Time. I difcourfed to the People, and spoke what (I suppose) had a proper Tendency to promote Convictions, and God's Manner of working upon them appeared fo entirely supernatural, and above Means, that I could fcarce believe he used me as an Instrument, or what I spake as Means of carrying on his Work : For it feem'd, as I thought, to have no Connection with, nor Dependance upon Means in any Refpect. And although I could not but continue to use the Means I thought proper for the Promotion of the Work, yet God feem'd (as I apprehended) to work entirely without them : So that I feemed to do nothing, and indeed to have nothing to do but to fland flill and fee the Salvation of God, and found myfelf oblig'd and delighted to fay, Not unto us, not unto Inftruments and Means, but to thy Name be Glory. God appear'd to work entirely alone and I faw no room to attribute any Part of this Work to any created Arm.

Aug. 17. Spent much time in private Conferences with the Indians. Found one who had newly obtain'd Relief and Comfort, after a long Seafon of fpiritual Trouble and Diftrefs, (he having been one of my Hearers in the Forks of Delaware for more than a Year, and now follow'd me here under deep Concern for his Soul) and had abundant Reafon to hope that his Comfort was well grounded, and truly divine.

Afterwards discours'd publickly from Acts viii. 29,---39. And took Occasion to treat concerning Baptifm, in order to their being inftructed and prepared to partake of that Ordinance. They were yet hungry and thirsty for the Word of God, and appear'd uncearied in their Attendance upon it. ---

LORD'S-DAY Aug. 18. Preached in the Forenoon to an Affembly of white People, made up of Presbyterians, Baptifis, Quakers, &c. Afterwards wards preach'd to the Indians from John vi. 35, ----40. There was confiderable Concern visible among them, though not equal to what has frequently appear'd of late. -

Aug. 19. Preach'd from Ifaiab lv. 1. Divine Truths were attended with Power upon those who had receiv'd Comfort, and others alfo. The former were fweetly melted and refreshed with divine Invitations, the latter much concern'd for their Souls, that they might obtain an Interest in these glorious Gospel Provisions that were set before them, There were Numbers of poor impotent Souls that waited at the Pool for bealing, and the Angel feem'd, as at other Times of late, to trouble the Waters : So that there was yet a most defirable and comfortable Prospect of the spiritual Recovery of difeafed perifhing Sinners.

Aug. 23. Spent fome time with the Indians in private Discourse, afterwards preach'd to them from John vi. 44 .---- 50. There was, as has been ufual, a great Attention and fome Affection among them. Several appear'd deeply concern'd for their Souls, and could not but express their inward Anguish by Tears and Cries. But the amazing divine Influence that has been fo powerfully among them in general, feems, at prefent, in fome Degree abated, at least in regard of its Universallity, though many that have got no special Comfort, still retain deep Impressions of divine Things.

Aug. 24. Spent the Forenoon in dilcourfing to some of the Indians, in order to their re-. ceiving cciving the Ordinance of Baptifm. When I had open'd the nature of the Ordinance, the obligations attending it, the Duty of devoting ourfelves to God in it, & the Priviledge of being in Covénant with him, fundry of them feem'd to be fill'd with Love to God, and delighted with the Thoughts of giving up themfelves to him in that folemn and publick Manner, melted and refreshed with the Hopes of enjoying the Bleffed Redeemer.

Afterwards I discours'd publickly from 1 Thef. iv. 13,----17. There was a folemn Attention, and fome visible Concern and Affection in the Time of publick Service, which was afterwards increafed by fome further Exhortation given them to come to Christ, and give up their Hearts to him, that they might be fitted to alcend up and meet him in the Air, when he shall delcend with a Shout, and the Voice of the Archangel.

There were feveral Indians newly come, who thought their State good, and themfelves happy, becaufe they had fometimes liv'd with the white People under Gofpel-Light, had learn'd to read, were civil, &c. although they appear'd utter Strangers to their own Hearts, and altogether unacquainted with the Power of Religion, as well as with the Doctrines of Grace. With those I discours'd particularly after publick Worfhip, and was furprized to fee their felf-righteous Disposition, their ftrong Attachment to the Covenant of Works for Salvation, and the high Value they put upon their fuppos'd Attainments. Yet after much difcourfe course, one appear'd in a Measure convinc'd that by the Deeds of the Law no flesh living should be justified, and wept bitterly, enquiring, what he must do to be saved?

This was very comfortable to others, who had gain'd fome experimental Acquaintance with their own Hearts; for before they were griev'd with the Conversation and Conduct of these New-Commers, who boasted of theirKnowledge, and thought well of themselves, but evidently discover'd to those that had any Experience of divine Truths, that they knew nothing of their own Hearts.

LORD'S-DAY, Aug. 25. Preached in the Forenoon from Luke xv. 3,......7. There being a Multitude of white People prefent, I made an Addrefs to them at the Clofe of my Difcourfe to the Indians: But could not fo much as keep them orderly; for fcores of them kept walking and gazing about, and behaved more indecently than any Indians I ever addrefs'd; and a View of their abufive Conduct fo funk my Spirits, that I could fcarce go on with my Work.

In the Afternoon difcours'd from Revel. iii. 20 At which Time the Indians behav'd ferioufly, tho' many others were vain.

Afterwards baptized Twenty Five Perfons of the Indians, fifteen Adults and ten Children. Most of the Adults I have comfortable Reason to hope are renewed Perfons, and there was not one of them but what I entertain'd fome Hopes of

in

in that Respect, tho' the Case of two or three of them appear'd more doubtful.

38

After the Croud of Spectators was gone, I call'd the baptized Persons together, and discoursed to them in particular, at the fame Time inviting others to attend, minded them of the folemn Obligations they were now under to live to God, warn'd them of the Evil and dreadful Confequences of carelefs living, especially after this publick Profession of Christianity; gave them Directions for their future Conduct, and encouraged them to Watchfulness and Devotion, by fetting before them the Comfort and happy Conclusion of a religious Life .---- This was a defirable and sweet Season indeed! Their Hearts were engag'd and chearful in Duty, and they rejoyc'd that they had in a publick and folemn Manner dedicated themfelves to God .-- Love feem'd to reign among them ! They took each other by the Hand with Tenderness and Affection, as if their Hearts were knit together, while I was difcourfing to them: And all their Deportment toward each other was fuch, that a ferious Spectator might juftly be excited to cry out with Admiration, Bebold how they love one another ! Sundry of the other Indians at feeing and hearing these Things, were much affected and wept bitterly, longing to be partakers of the fame Joy and Comfort that these discover'd by their very Countenances as well as Conduct.

Aug.

among the Indians.

Aug. 26. Preach'd to my People from John vi. 51,--55. After I had discours'd some time, I address'd those in particular who entertain'd Hopes that they were pals'd from Death to Life. Opened to them the perfevering Nature of those Consolations Christ gives his People, and which I trusted he had bestow'd upon some in that Afsembly, shew'd them that such have already the Beginnings of eternal Life, (Ver. 54.) and that their Heaven shall speedily be compleated, $\mathcal{C}c.$

I no fooner began to discourse in this Strain, but the dear Christians in the Congregation began to be melted with Affection to, and defire of the Enjoyment of Christ, and of a State of perfect Purity. They wept affectionately and yet joyfully, and their Tears and Sobs difcover'd Brokenefs of Heart, and yet were attended with real Comfort and Sweetness, so that this was a tender, affectionate, humble delightful Melting, and appear'd to be the genuine Effect of a Spirit of Adoption, and very far from that Spirit of Bondage that they not long fince laboured' under. The Influence feem'd to fpread from these through the whole Affembly, and there quickly appear'd a wonderful Concern among them. 'Many who had not yet found Christ as an all-fufficient Saviour, were furprizingly engag'd in feeking after him. It was indeed a lovely and very defirable Affembly. Their Number was now about Ninety Five Perfons, old and young, and almost all affected fected either with Joy in Christ Jesus, or with utmost Concern to obtain an Interest in him.

Being fully convinc'd it was now my Duty to take, a Journey far back to the Indians on Suf-quebannab River, (it being now a proper Seafon of the Year to find them generally at home) after having spent some Hours in publick and private Discourses with my People, I told them that I must now leave them for the present, and go to their Brethren far remote and preach to them : That I wanted the Spirit of God should go with me, without whom nothing could be done to any good Purpole among the Indians, as they themfelves had had Opportunity to see and observe by the Barrennels of our Meetings at some Times, when there was much Pains taken to affect and awaken Sinners, and yet to little or no purpose : And asked them, if they could not be willing to spend the Remainder of the Day in Prayer for me, that God would go with me, and fucceed my Endeavours for the Conversion of those poor Souls. They chearfully comply'd with the Motion, and foon after I left them (the Sun being then about an Hour and half high at Night) they began, and continued praying all Night till break of Day, or very near, never mistrusting (they tell me) till they went out and view'd the Stars, and law the Morning Star a confiderable Heigth, that it was later than common Bed-time. Thus eager and unwearied were they in their Devotions! A remarkable Night it was, attended (as my Interpreter tells me) ine) with a powerful Influence upon those who were yet under Concern, as well as those that had receiv'd Comfort.

There were, I trust, this Day two distressed Souls brought to the Enjoyment of folid Comfort in him, in whom the weary find reft.

It was likewife remarkable that this Day an old Indian, who has all his Days been an obstinate Idolater, was brought to give up his Rattles (which they use for Musick in their idolatrous Feasts and Dances) to the other Indians, who quickly destroyed them, and this without any Attempt of mine in the Affair, I having faid nothing to him about it, fo that it feem'd 'twas nothing but just the Power of God's Word, without any particular Application to this Sin; that produced this Effect. Thus God has begun, thus he has hitherto turprizingly carryed on a Work of GRACE amongst these Indians. May the Glory be alcribed to him, who is the fole Author of it.

Forks of Delaware in Pennsylvania, 1745.

LORD'S DAY, September 1. Preach to the Indians here from Luke xiv. 16____23. The Word appear'd to be attended with fome Power, and caus'd fome Tears in the Affembly.

Afterwards preach'd to a Number of white People present, and observ'd many of them in Tears, and fome who had formetly been as carelefs lefs, and unconcern'd about Religion perhaps as the Indians.

Towards Night discours'd to the Indians again, and perceiv'd a greater Attention, and more visible Concern among them than has been ufual in these Parts.

Sept. 3. Preach'd to the Indians from Ifaiab liii. 3,--6. The divine Prefence feemed to be in the midft of the Affembly, and a confiderableConcern fpread amongft them. Sundry Perfons feemed to be awakened, amongft whom were two flupid Creatures that I could fcarce ever before keep awake while I was difcourfing to them. Could not but rejoyce at this Appearance of Things, altho' at the fame Time I could not but fear left the Concern they at prefent manifefted, might prove like a Morning Cloud, as fomething of that Nature had formerly done in thefeParts.

Sept. 5. Difcourfed to the Indians from the Parable of the Sower, afterwards convers'd particularly with fundry Perfons, which occafion'd them to weep, and even to cry out in an affecting Manner, and feiz'd others with Surprize and Concern; and I doubt not but that a divine Power accompanied what was then fpoken. Sundry of these Perfons had been with me to Crofweekfung, and had there feen, and fome of them, I truft, felt the Power of God's Word in an effectual and faving Manner. I ask'd one of them, who had obtain'd Comfort, and given hopeful Evidences of being truly religious, why

he

he now cry'd? He reply'd, When he thought how Christ was | ain like a Lamb, and (pilt his Blood for Sinners, he could not help crying, when he was all alone. And thereupon burft out into Tears and Cries again. I then ask'd his Wife, who had likewife been abundantly comforted, (wherefore fhe cry'd) fhe answered, She was griev'd that the Indians here would not come to Chrift as well as these at Crofweekfung. I ask'd her if the found a Heart to pray for them, and whether Chrift had feem'd to be near to her of late in Prayer, as in time paft, (which is my ufual Method of expressing a Sense of the divine Prefence.) She replyed, Yes, he had been near to ber, and that at fome Times when she had been praying alone, her Heart lov'd to pray so, that she could not bear to leave the Place, but wanted to stay and pray longer.

Sept. 7. Preached to the Indians from John vi. 35,---39. There was not fo much Appearance of concern among them as at feveral other Times of late; yet they appear'd ferious and attentive.

LORD'S-DAY, Sept. 8. Difcourfed to the Indians in the Forenoon from John 12. 44. 50. In the Afternoon from Acts ii. 36,---39. The Word of God at this Time feem'd to fall with Weight and Influence upon them. There were but few prefent, but most that were, were in Tears, and fundry cryed out under distreffing Concern for their Souls.

There

There was one Man confiderably awaken'd, who never before difcover'd any Concern for his Soul. There appeared a remarkable Work of the divine Spirit among them, almoft generally, not unlike what has been of late at Crojweekjung. It feem'd as if the divine Influence had fpread from thence to this Place; altho fomething of it appear'd here in the awakening of my Interpreter, his Wife, and fome few others.

Sundry of the careless white People now prefent were awakened, (or at least fartled) fecing the Power of God fo prevalent among the Indians. I then made a particular Address to them, which feem'd to make fome Impression upon them, and excite fome Affection in them.

There are fundry Indians in thefe Parts who have always refuted to hear me preach, and have been enraged against those that have attended my preaching. But of late they are more bitter than ever, fcoffing at Christianity, and fometimes asking my Hearers, How often they have cried? And whether they ban't now cry'd enough to do the Turn, &c.? So that they have already Tryal of cruel Mockings.

Sept. 9. Left the Indians in the Forks of Delaware, and set out on a Journey towards Susquehannah-River, directing my Course towards the Indian-Town more than an Hundred and Twenty Miles West-ward from the Forks. Travel'd about Fisteen Miles and there lodg'd. Sept. 13. After having lodg'd out three Nights,

Nights, arrived at the Indian-Town I aim'd at on Sulquehanuah, call'd Shaumoking, (one of the Places, and the largeft of them, that I vifited in May last) and was kindly receiv'd and entertain'd by the Indians : But had little Satisfaction by reafon of the heathenifb Dance and Revel they then held in the House where I was oblig'd to lodge, which I could not fupprefs, tho' I often entreated them to defift, for the fake of one of their own Friends who was then fick in the Houfe, and whofe Diforders was much aggravated by the Noife .--- Alas! how destitute of natural Affection are these poor uncultivated Pagans ? altho' they feem fomewhat kind in their own Way. Of a Truth, the dark Corners of the Earth are full of the Habitations of Cruelty.

This Town (as I obferv'd in my Journal of May laft) lies partly on the Eafl-fide of the River, partly on the Weft, and partly on a large Ifland in it, and contains upwards of Fifty Houfes, and (they tell me) near Three Hundred Perfons, tho' I never faw much more than Half that Number in it; but of three different Tribes of Indians, fpeaking three Languages wholly unintelligible to each other. About one Half of its Inhabitants are Delawares, the others call'd Senakas, and Tutelas. The Indians of this Place are counted the most drunken, mischievous, and ruffainly Fellows of any in thefe these Parts: And Satan seems to have his Seat in this Town in an eminent Manner.

Sept. 14. Visited the Delaware King, (who was suppos'd to be at the Point of Death when I was here in May last, but was now recover'd) and discouried with him and others respecting Christianity, and spent the Asternoon with them, and had more encouragement than I expected. The King appear'd kindly disposed, and willing to be instructed: This gave me fome Encouragement that God would open an effectual Daor for my preaching the Gospel here, and fet up his Kingdom in this Place. Which was a Support and Resressment to me in the Wilderness, and render'd my folitary Circumstances comfortable and pleasant.

LORD'S-DAY, Sept. 15. Vifited the Chief of the Delawares again, was kindly received by him, and difcourfed to the Indians in the Afternoon, ftill entertain'd Hopes that God would open their Hearts to receive the Gofpel, tho' many of them in the Place, were fo drunk from Day to Day, that I could get no Opportunity to fpeak to them. Towards Night difcourfed with one that underftood the Languages of the Six-Nations, (as they are ufually call'd) who difcovered an Inclination to hearken to Chriftianity, which gave me fome Hopes that the Gofpel might hereafter be fent to those Nations far remote.

Sept. 16. Spent the Forenoon with the Indians, endeavouring to inftruct them from House to House, and to engage them, as far as I could, to be friendly to Christianity.

Towards Night went to one part of the Town where they were Sober, and got together near Fifty Perfons of them, and difcourfed to them, having first obtained the King's ch. arful Confent.----There was a furprizing Attention among them, and they manifested a confiderable Defire of being further Instructed. There was allo one or two that seem'd to be touched with fome Concern for their Souls, who appeared well pleased with some Conversation in private, after I had concluded my publick Discourse to them.

My Spirits were much refreshed with this Appearance of Things, and I could not but return with my Interpreter (having no ather Companion in this Journey) to my poor hard Lodgings, rejoycing in Hopes that God designed to fet up his Kingdom here, where Satan now reigns in the most eminent Manner: And found uncommon Freedom in addressing the Throne of Grace for the Accomplishment of so great and glorious a Work.

Sept. 17. Spent the Forenoon in visiting and discoursing to the Indians. About Noon left Shaumoking, (most of the Indians going out this Day on their hunting Design) and travel'd down the River South-westward.

Sept.

Sept. 19. Visited an Indian Town call'd Juneauta, fituate on an Island in Susquebannah. Was much discourag'd with the Temper and Behaviour of the Indians here, altho' they appear'd Friendly when I was with them the last Spring, and then gave me Encouragement to come and see them again: But they now seem'd resolved to retain their PaganNotions, and perfist in their idolatrous Practices.

Sept 20. Visited the Indians again at Juneauta Island, and found them almost universally very bufy in making Preparations for a great Sacrifice and Dance. Had no Opportunity to get them together in order to difcourfe with them about Christianity, by reason of their being fo much engaged about their Sacrifice. My Spirits were much funk with a Profpect fo very difcouraging, and efpecially feeing I had now no Interpreter but a Pagan, who was as much attach'd to Idolatry as any of them, (my own Interpreter having left me the Day before, being oblig'd to attend up-on fome important Bufinefs otherwhere, and knowing that he could neither fpeak nor understand the Language of these Indians) fo that I was under the greatest Difadvantages imaginable; however I attempted to difcourfe private-ly with fome of them, but without any Ap-pearance of Success: Notwithstanding I still tarried with them.

In the Evening they met together, near a Hundred of them, and danced round a large

Fire,

Fire, having prepar'd ten fat Deer for the Sacrifice. The Fat of whole Inwards they burnt in the Fire while they were dancing, and fometimes rais'd the Flame to a prodigious Height, at the fame Time yelling and fhouting in 1uch a Manner, that they might eafily have been heard Two Miles or more.

They continued their facred Dance all Night, or near the Matter; after which they ate the Flefb of the Sacrifice, and fo retired each one to his Lodging.

I enjoy'd little Satisfaction this Night; being entirely alone on the Island, (as to any Christian Company) and in the midft of this idol.atroas Revel; and having walk'd to and fro 'till Body and Mind were pain'd and much opprefs'd, I at length crept into a little Grib made for Corn; and there flept on the Poles.

LORD'S DAY, Sept. 21. Spent the Day with the Indians on the Ifland. As foon as they were well up in the Morning, I attempted to inftruct them, and laboured for thatPurpofe to get them together, but quickly found they had fomething elfe to do; for near Noon they gathered together all their Powwows (or Conjurers) and fet about half a Dozen of them to playing their juggling Tricks, and acting their frantick diftracted Poftures, in order to find out why they. were then fo fickly upon the Ifland; numbers of them being at that Time difordered with a Fever, and bloody Flux. In this Exercise they were

were engaged for feveral Hours, making all the wild ridiculous and diftracted Motions imaginable; fometimes finging, fometimes howling, fometimes extending their Hands to the utmoft Stretch, fpreading all their Fingers, and feemed to pufh with them, as if they defigned to fright fomething away, or, at leaft, keep it off at Arms end; fomtimes ftroking their Faces with their Hands, then fpurting Water as fine as Mift; fometimes fetting flat on the Earth, then bowing down their Faces to the Ground; wringing their Sides, as if in Pain and Anguifh; twifting their Faces, turning up their Eyes, grunting, puffing, &c.

Their monftrous Actions tended to excite Ideas of Horror, and feem'd to have fomething in them (as I thought) peculiarly fuited to raife theDevil, if he could be rais'd by any thing odd, ridiculous and frightful. Some of them I could observe, were much more fervent and devout in the Business than others, and seem'd to chant, peep and mutter with a great Degree of Warmth and Vigour, as if determined to awaken and engage the Powers below. I fat at a finall Distance, not more than Thirty Feet from them, (tho' undifcover'd) with my Bible in my Hand, refolving if poffible to spoil their Sport, and prevent their receiving any Anfwers from the infernal World, and there view'd the whole Scene. They continued their heideous Charms and Incantations for more than three Hours

Hours, until they had all wearied themfelves out, altho' they had in that Space of Time taken fundry Intervals of Reft; and at length broke up, I apprehended, without receiving any Anfwer at all.

After they had done Powwowing, I attempted to difcourf: with them about Chriftianity; but they foon fcatter'd, and gave me no Op-portunity for any Thing of that Nature. A view of thefe Things, while I was entirely a-lone in the Wildernefs, defitute of the Society of any One that fo much as named the Name of Christ, greatly funk my Spirits, gave me the most gloomy Turn of Mind imaginable, almost stripp'd me of all Resolution and Hope respecting further Attempts for propagating the Gofpel, and converting the Pagans, and render'd this the most burdenfom and difagreeable Sabbath that ever I faw. But nothing, I can truly fay, funk and diffreis'd me like the Lois of my Hope respecting their Conversion. This Concern appear'd io great, and feem'd to be fo much my own, that I seem'd to have nothing to do on Earth, if this fail'd : And a Prospet of the greateft Succefs in the favingConversion of Souls under Gospel Light, would have done little cr nothing towards compensating for the I ofs of my Hope in this Respect; and my Spirits now were so damp'd and depress'd, that I had no Heart nor Power to make any furtherAttempts among them for that Purpose, and could not G 2 roffibly possibly recover my Hope, Resolution and Courage, by the utmost of my Endeavours.

The indians of this Island can many of them understand the English Language confiderably well, having formerly liv'd in fome Part of Maryland among or near the white People, but are very vicious, drunken and prophane, altho' not fo Savage as those who have less Acquaintance with the Luglish. Their Cuftoms in divers Respects, differ from those of other Indians upon this River. They cont bury their Dead in a common Form, but let their Flesh consume above Ground in' close Cribs made for that Purpofe, and at the End of a Year, or perhaps fometimes a longer Space of Time, they take the Bones, when the Flesh is all confum'd, and wash and fcrape them, and afterwards bury them with fome Ceremony .--- Their Method of charming or conjuring over the Sick, feems fomewhat different from that of other Indians, tho' for Substance the fame: And the whole of it, among these and others, perhaps is an Imitation of what feems, by Naamans Expression, (2 Kings v. 11.) to have been the Cuftom of the antient Heathens. For it feems chiefly to confift in their striking their Hands over the Diseased, repeatedly ftroaking of them, and calling upon their Gods, excepting the ipurtiug of Water like a Mift, and fome other frantick Ceremonies common to the other Conjurations, I have already mentioned.

When

When I was in these Parts in May last, I had an Opportunity of learning many of the Notions and Cuftoms of the Indians, as well as of observing many of their Practices : I then travelling more than an Hundred and thirty Miles upon the River above the English Settlements; and having in that Journey a View of fome Per-ions of feven or eight diftinct Tribes, fpeaking fo many different Languages. But of all the Sights I ever faw among them, or indeed any where elfe, none appear'd fo frightful or fo near a kin to, what is usually imagin'd, of infernal Powers ; none ever excited fuch Images of Terror in my Mind, as the Appearance of one who was a devout and zealous Reformer, or rather reftorer, of what he fuppos'd was the ancient Religion of the Indians. He made his Appearin his pontificial Garb, which was a Coat of Bears Skins, drefs'd with the Hair on, and hanging down to his Toes, a Pair of Bear-Skin Stockings, and a great Wooden Face, painted the one Half black, the other tauny, about the Colour of an Indians Skin, with an extravagant Mouth, cut very much a-wry; the Face fastened to ia Bear Skin Cap, which was drawn over his Head. He advanc'd toward me with the Inftrument in his Hand that he us'd for Mufick in his idolatrous Worship, which was a dry Tortoile-Shell, with fome Corn in it, and the Neck of it drawn on to a Piece of Wood, which made a very convenient Handle. As he came forward, he

he beat his Tune with the Rattle, and danced with all his Might, but did not fuffer any Part of his Body, not so much as his Fingers, to be feen : And no Man would have guets'd by his Appearance, and Actions, that he could have been a human Creature, if they had not had fome Intimation of it otherways. When he came near me, I could not but fhrink away from him, altho' it was then Noon-day, and I knew who it was, his Appearance and Geftures were fo prodigioufly frightful! He had a Houfe confecrated to religious Ufes, with divers Images cut out upon the feveral Parts of it; I went in and found the Ground beat almost as hard as a Rock with their frequent dancing in it .-- I difcours'd with him about Christianity, and fome of my Discourse he seem'd to like, but some of it he diflik'd entirely. He told me that God had taught him his Religion, and that he never would turn from it, but wanted to find fome that would join heartily with him in it; for the Indians, he faid, were grown very degenerate and corrupt. He had thoughts, he faid, of leaving all his Friends, and travelling abroad, in order to find fome that would join with him, for he believ'd God had fome Good People fome where that felt as he did. He had not always, he faid, felt as he now did, but had formarly been like the reft of the Indians; until about four or five Years before that Time : Then, he faid, his Heart was very much diftrefs'd trefs'd, fo that he could not live among the Indians, but got away into the Woods and liv'd alone for fome Months. At length, he fays, God comforted his Heart, and fhow'd him what he should do; and fince that Time he had known God, and tried to ferve him, and loved all Men, be they who they would, fo as he never did before .--- He treated me with uncommon Courtefy, and feemed to be hearty in it .- And I was told by the Indians that he oppos'd their drinking Strong-Liquor with all his Power; and if at any Time he could not diffuade them from it, by all he could fay, he would leave them and go crying into the Woods. It was manifest he had a Set of religious Notions that he had look'd into for himself, and not taken for granted upon bare Tradition ; and he relish'd or difrelish'd whatever was spoken of a religious Nature, according as it either agreed or difagreed with his Standard. And while I was difcourfing he would fometimes fay, Now that I like : So God has taught me, &c. And fome of his Sentiments feem'd very just. Yet he utterly deny'd the Being of a Dovil, and declar'd there was no fuch a Creature known among the Indians of old Times, whole Religion he fuppos'd he was attempting to revive. He likewife told me, that departed Souls all went Southward, and that the Difference between the Good and Bad was this, That the formar were admitted into a beautiful Town with with fpiritual Walls, or Walls agreeable to the Nature of Souls; and that the latter would for ever hover round thofe Walls, and in vain attempt to get in. He teem'd to be fincere, honeft, and conficiencious in his own Way, and according to his own religious Notions; which was more than I ever faw in any other Pagan: And I perceiv'd he was look'd upon, and derided amongft moft of the Indians as a precife Zealot, that made a needlefs Noife about religious Matters. But I muft fay, there was fomething in his Temper and Difpofition that look'd more like true Religion than any Thing I ever obferved amongft other Heathens.

But alas! how deplorable is the State of the Indians upon this River! The brief Reprefentation I have here given of their Notions and Manners, is fufficient to fhew that they are led captive by Satan at his Will, in the moft eminent Manner: And, methinks, might likewife be fufficient to excite the Compaffion, and engage the Prayers of pious Souls for these their Fellow-Men, who fit in the Regions of the Shadow of Death!

Sept. 22. Made fome further Attempts to inftruct and chriftianize the Indians on thisIfland, but all to no Purpofe. They live fo near the white People, that they are always in the Way of Strong-Liquor, as well as the ill Examples of nominal Chriftians; which renders it fo unfpeakably unspeakably Difficult to treat with them about Christianity.

Forks of Delaware, 1745.

October 1. Difcourfed to the Indians here, and spent some Time in private Conferences with them about their Soul's Concerns, and afterwards invited them to accompany, or if not, to follow me down to Crosweeksung as soon as their Conveniency would admit; which Invitation fundry of them chearfully accepted.

Crofweekfung, in New-Jerfey, 1745.

Preached to my People from John xiv. 1.---6 The divine Prefence feemed to be in the Affembly. Numbers were affected with divine Truths, and it was a Seafon of Comfort to fome in particular.

O! What a Difference is there between these and the Indians I had lately treated with upon Susquebannah! To be with those feemed like being banished from God and all his People, to be with these like being admitted into his Family, and to the Enjoyment of his divine Prefence! How great is the Change lately made upon Numbers of these Indians, who not many Months ago were many of them as Thoughtless, and averse to Christianity, as those upon Sus-H quebannab! quebannab! And how aftonishing is that Grace that has made this Change!

LORD's-DAY, Octob. 6. Preach'd in the Forcnoon from John x. 7,--11., There was a confiderable melting among my Pcople, the dear young Christians were refresh'd, comforted and ftrengthened, and one or two Persons newly awakened.

In the Afternoon I difcourfed on the Story of the Jaylor, Acts xvi. and in the Evening expounded Acts xx. 1,---12. There was at this Time a very agreeable Melting fpread thro' the whole Affembly. I think I fcarce ever faw a more defirable Affection in any Number of People in my Life. There was fcarce a dry Eye to be feen among them, and yet nothing boifterous or unfeemby, nothing that tended to diffurb the Publick Worfhip; but rather to encourage and excite a Chriftian Ardour and Spirit of Devotion.

Those who, I have reason to hope were favingly renewed, were first affected, and seem'd to rejoyce much, but with Brokenness of Spirit and godly Fear, their Exercises were much the fame with those mentioned in my Journal of August 26. evidently appearing to be the genuine Effect of a Spirit of Adoption.

After Publick Service was over I withdrew, (being much tired with the Labours of the Day) and the Indians continued praying among themfelves for near Two Hours together, which continued continued Exercifes appear'd to be attended with a bleffed quickning Influence from on High.

I could not but earneftly wifh that Numbers of God's People had been prefent at this Seafon, to fee and hear thefe Things which I'm fure muft refresh the Heart of every true Lover of Zion's Interest. To fee those, who very lately were favage Pagans and Idolators, having no Hope, and without God in the World, now fill'd with a Sense of divine Love and Grace, and worshiping the Father in Spirit and in Truth, as Numbers here appear'd to do, was not a little affecting! And especially to see them appear fo tender and humble, as well as lively, fervent and devout in the divine Service

Octob. 24. Difcourfed from John iv. 13,-14 There was a great Attention, a defirable Affection, and an unaffected Melting in the Affembly.---'Tis furprizing to fee how eager they are of hearing the Word of God. I have oftentimes Thought they would chearfully and diligently attend divine Worfhip Twenty Four Hours together, had they an Opportunity fo to do.

Octob. 25. Difcourfed to my People refpecting the Refurrection, from Luke xx. 27 - 36And when I came to mention the Bleffedneis the Godly shall enjoy at that Season, their final Freedom from Death, Sin and Sorrow; their Equality to the Angels in regard of their Near-H 2 nefs nefs to, and Enjoyment of Chrift; (some imperfect Degree of which they are favour'd with in the present Life, from whence fprings their fweetest Comfort) and their being the Children of God, openly acknowledged by Him as fuch: I fay, when I mentioned these Things, Numbers of them were much affected, and melted with a View of this bleffed State.

Octob. 26. Being call'd to affift in the Administration of the Lord's-Supper, in a neighbouring Congregation, I invited my People to go with me, who in general embrac'd the Opportunity chearfully, and attended the feveral Difcourfes of that Solemnity with Diligence and Affection, most of them now understanding fomething of the English Language.

LORD'S-DAY, Octob. 27. While I was preaching to a vaft Affembly of People abroad, who appeared generally eafy and fecure enough, there was one Indian Woman, a Stranger, who never heard me preach before, nor ever regarded any Thing about Religion, (being now perfuaded by fome of her Friends to come to Mecting, tho' much againft her Will) was feiz'd with preffing Concern for her Soul, and foon after express'd a great Defire of going home (more than Forty Miles diftant) to call her Husband, that he alfo might be awakened to a Concern for his Soul. Some other of the Indians alfo appeared to be affected with divine Truths this Day. The pious People of the English (Numbers of whom I had Opportunity to converse with) seem'd refreshed with seeing the Indians worship God in that devout and solemn Manner with the Assembly of his People : And with those mentioned Assistication is the second and the but glorify God, saying, then bath God also to the Gentiles granted Repentance unto Life.

Octob. 28. Preached again to a great Affembly, at which 'Time fome of my People appeared affected; and when publick Worship was over, were inquisitive whether there would not be another Sermon in the Evening, or before the facramental Solemnity was concluded; being still defirous to hear God's Word.

Crofweekfung,

Octob. 28 Difcourfed from Mat. xxii. 1,--13. I was enabled to open the Scripture, and adapt my Difcourfe and Expressions to the Caracities of my People, I know not how, in a plain, easy, and familiar Manner, beyond all that I could have done by the utmost Study: And this, without any (p.cial Difficulty, with as much Freedom as if I had been addressing a common Audience, who had been instructed in the Doctrine of Christianity all their Days.

The Word of God at this Time feem'd to fall upon the Affembly with a divine Power and Influence, especially toward the Close of my Discourse: There was both a sweet Melting and bitter Mourning in the Audience....The

dear Christians were refreshed and comforted -Convictions revived in others, and fundry Perfons newly awakened who had never been with us before, and fo much of the divine Prefence appear'd in the Affembly, that it feem'd, this was no other than the House of God, and the Gate of Heaven. And all that had any Savour and Relifh of divine Things were even conftrained by the Sweetness of that Seafon to fay, Lord it is good for us to be here. If ever there was amongst my People an Appearance of the New-Jerufalem----as a Bride adorned for her Husband, there was much of it at this Time ; and fo agreeable was the Entertainment where fuch Tokens of the divine Prefence were, that I could fcarce be willing in the Evenning to leave the Place, and repair to my Lodgings. I was refreshed with a View of the Continuance of this Bleffed Work of Grace among them, and its Influence upon Strangers of the Indians that had of late, from time to time, providentally fallen into these Parts.

Nov. 1. Difcourfed from I uke xxiv. briefly explaining the whole Chapter, and infifting efpecially upon fome particular Paffages.

The Difcourfe was attended with fome affectionate Concern upon fome of the Hearers, tho' not equal to what has often appeared among them.

LORD'S-DAY, Nov. 3. Preached to my People from Luke xvi. 17, more effectially for the fake of feveral lately brought under deep Concern cern for their Souls. There was fome apparent Concern and Affection in the Affembly, tho' far lefs than has been usual of late.

Afterwards I baptized Fourteen Perfons of the Indians, fix Adults and eight Children: One of these was near fourscore Years of Age, and I have reason to hope God has brought her favingly Home to himfelf: Two of the others were Men of Fifty Years old, who had been fingular and remarkable, even among the Indians, for their Wickednefs, one of them had been a Murderer, and both notorious Drunkards as well as exceffive Quarelfom ; but now I can't but hope both are become Subjects of God's fpecial Grace, especially the worst of them *. I deferred their Baptism for many Weeks after they had given Evidences of having pass'd a great Change, that I might have more Opportunities to obferve the Fruits of those Impressions they had been under, and apprehended the Way was now clear : And there was not one of the Adults I baptized, but what had given me fome comfortable Grounds to hope, that God had wrought a Work of fpecial Grace in their Hearts; altho' I could not have the fame Degree of Satisfaction respecting one or two of them, as the reft.

Nov. 4. Difcourfed from John xi. briefly explaining

The Man particularly mentioned in my Journal of August 10th, as being then awakened.'

plaining most of the Chapter.—Divine Truths made deep Impressions upon many in the Alfembly, numbers were affected with a View of the Power of Christ, manifested in his raising the Dead, and especially when this Instance of his Power was improved to shew his Power and Ability to raise dead Souls (such as many of them then felt themselves to be) to a spiritual Life: As also to raise the Dead at the last Day, and dispence to them due Rewards and Puniss.

There were fundry of the Perfons lately come here from remote Places, that were now brought under deep and preffing Concern for their Souls, particularly one, who not long fince came half drunk, and rail'd on us, and attempted by all means to difturb us while engag'd in the divine Worship, was now fo concern'd and diftrefs'd for her Soul, that fhe feem'd unable to get any eafe without an Interest in Chrift. There were many Tears and affectionate Sobs and Groans in the Affembly in general, fome weeping for themfelves, others for their Friends. And altho' Perfons are doubtless much easier affected now, than they were in the Beginning of this religious Concern, when Tears and Cries for their Souls were Things unhear'd of among them, yet I must fay, their Affection in general appear'd genuine and unfeigned; and especially this appear'd very confpicuous in those newly awakened. So that true true and geuine Convictions of Sin, feem still to be begun and promoted in many Inftances.

Baptized a Child this Day, and perceiv'd fundry of the baptized Perfons affected with the Administration of this Ordinance, as being thereby minded of their own folemn Engagements.

I have now baptized in all Forty Seven Perfons of the Indians, Twenty three Adults, and Twenty four Children. Thirty five of them belonging to these Parts, and the rest to the Forks of Delaware : And (thro' rich Grace) they have none of them as yet been left to ditgrace their Professi-on of Christianity by any scandalous or unbecoming Behaviour.

I might now justly make many Remarks on a Work of Grace to very remarkable as this has been in diverte Respects, but shall confine myself to a few general Hints only.

1/t. 'Tis remarkable that God began this Work among the Indians at a Time when I had the least Hope, and (to my Apprehension) the least rational Prospect of seeing a Work of Grace propagated amongst them. My bodily Strength being then much wasted by a late tedious Journey to Sulquebannab, where I was neceffarily expos'd to Hardships and Fatigues among the Indians: My Mind being also exceedingly depress'd with a View of the Unsuccessfulness of my Labours, (fince I had little reason fo much as to hope that God had made me Inftrumental of the faving Conversion of any of the Indians, except my Interpreter preter and his Wife) whence I was ready to look upon my felf as aBurden to the Honourable Society, that employ'd and fupported me in this Bufinefs, and began to entertain ferious Thoughts of giving up my Miffion ; and almost resolv'd I would do fo, at the Conclusion of the prefent Year, if I had then no better Prospect of special Success in my Work than I had hitherto had, altho' I can't fay I entertained these Thoughts because I was weary of the Labours and Fatigues that neceffarily attended my prefent Bufinefs, or becaufe I had Light and Freedom in my own Mind to turn any other Way; but purely thro' Dejection of Spirit, preffing Difcouragement, and an Apprehenfion of its being unjust to spend Money con-secrated to religious Uses, only to civilize the Indians, and bring them to an external Profession of Chriftianity, which was all that I could then fee any Prospect of having effected, while God seem'd (as I thought) evidently to frown upon the Defign of their faving Conversion, by withholding the convincing and renewing Influences of his bleffed Spirit from attending the Means I had hitherto us'd with them, for that End.

And in this Frame of Mind I first visited these Indians at Crofweekfung, apprehending 'twas my indifpenfible Duty (feeing I had heard there was a Number in these Parts) to make fome Attempts for their Conversion to God, tho' I can't fay, I'd any Hope of Success, my Spirits were now fo extreamly funk, And I don't know that my Hopes

among the INDIANS.

Hopes respecting the Conversion of the Indians were ever reduc'd to so low an Ebb, fince I had any special Concern for them, as at this Time.

And yet this was the very Seafon that God faw fitteft to begin this glorious Work in ! And thus he ordained Strength out of Weaknefs, by making bare his Almighty Arm at a Time when all Hopes and human Probabilities most evidently appear'd to fail. Whence I learn that tis good to follow the Path of Duty, tho' in the midst of Darknefs and Discouragement.

2dly. 'Tis remarkable how God providentially, and in a Manner almost unaccountable called there Indians together to be instructed in the great Things that concern'd their Souls; and how he feized their Minds with the most folemn and weighty Concern for their eternal Salvation as fast as they came to the Place where his Word was preached. When I first came into these Parts in June, I found not one Man at the Place I visited, but only four Women and a few Children: But before I had been here many Days they gathered from all Quarters, fome from more than Twenty Miles distant, and when I made them a second Visit in the Beginning of August, some came more than Forty Miles to hear me.

And many came without any Intelligence of what was going on here, and confequently without any Defign of theirs, fo much as to gratify their Curiofity; fo that it feem'd as ifGod had funimoned them. together from all Quarters for nothing I 2 elfe elfe but to deliver his Meffage to them, and that he did this (with regard to fome of them) without making Ufe of any buman Means; altho' there was Pains taken by fome of them to give Notice to others at remote Places.

Nor is it lefs furprizing that they were one after another affected with a folemn Concern for their Souls, almost as foon as they came upon the Spot where divine Truths were taught them. I could not but think often that their coming to the Place of our publick Worship, was like Saul and his Meffengers coming among the Prophets : They no fooner came but they prophefied; and these were almost as soon affected with a Sense of their Sin and Miferv, and with an earnest concern for Deliverance, as they made their Appearance in our Affembly .- After this Work of Grace began with Power among them, 'twas common for Strangers of the Indians, before they had been with us one Day, to be much awakened, deeply convinced of their Sin and Mifery, and to enquire with great Solicitude, What they should do to be faved ?

3 dly. 'Tis likewife remarkable how God preferved these poor ignorant Indians from being prejudiced against me, and the Truths I taught them, by those Means that were used with them for that Purpose by ungodly People. There were many Attempts made by some ill-minded Persons of the white People to prejudice them against or fright them from Christianity. They sometimes told

told them. The Indians were well enough on't already :--- That there was no need of all this Noife about Christianity :--- That if they were Christians they would be in no better, no fafer, or happier State, than they were already in, Gc.

Sometimes they told them, That I was a Knave, a Deceiver, and the like : That I daily taught them a Company of Lies, and had no other Defign but to impofe upon them, &c.

And when none of these and such like Suggestions would avail to their Purpose, they then tried another Expedient, and told the Indians, " My Defign was to gather together as large a Body of them as I possible could, and then sell them to England for Slaves." Than which nothing could be more likely to terrify the Indians, they being naturally of a jealous Disposition, and the most averse to a State of Servitude perhaps of any People living.

But all these wicked Infinuations (thro' divine Goodness over-ruling) constantly turned against the Authors' of them, and only serv'd to engage the Affections' of the Indians more firmly to me: For they being awaken'd to a folemn Concern for their Souls, could not but observe that the Perfons who endeavour'd to imbitter their Minds against, me were altogether unconcerned about their own Souls, and not only fo but vicious and prophane; and thence could not but argue, that if they had no Cencern for their own, 'twas not likely they should have for the Souls of others.

It

It feems yet the more wonderful that the Indians were preferved from once hearkening to thefe Suggestions, in as much as I was an utter Stranger among them, and could give them no Affurance of my fincere Affection to, and Concern for them, by any Thing that was paft, while the Perfons that infinuated thefe Things were their old Acquaintance, who had had frequent Opportunities of gratifying their thir/ty Appetites with strong Drink, and confequently, doubtles, had the greatest Interest in their Affections,——But from this Instance of their Prefervation from fatal Prejudices, I have had Occasion with Admiration to fay, If God will Work, who can binder or refise?

4thly. Nor is it less wonderful how God was pleafed to provide a Remedy for my want of Skill and Freedom in the Indian Language, by remarkably fitting my Interpreter for, and affifting him in the Performance of his Work. It might reafonably be fuppos'd I must needs labour under a vast Disadvantage in addressing the Indians by an Interpreter, and that divine Truths would unavoidably loofe much of the Energy and Pathos with which they might at first be delivered, by reafon of their coming to the Audience from a fecond Hand. But altho' this has often (to my Sorrow and Discouragement) been the Case, in Times past, when my Interpreter had little or no Sense of divine Things, yet now it was quite otherwite. I can't think my Addreffes to the Indians ordinarily narily fince the Beginning of this Seaton of Grace, have loft any Thing of the Power or Pungency with which they were made, unless it were fometimes for want of pertinent and pathetick Terms and Expressions in the Indian Language; which Difficulty could not have been much redreis'd by my perfonal Acquaintance with their Language. My Interpreter had before gain'd fome goodDegree of doctrinal Knowledge, whereby he was rendered capable of understanding and communicating, without mistakes, the Intent and Meaning of my Discourses, and that without being confined strictly and oblig'd to interpret verbatim. He had likewife, to appearance, an experimental Acquaint-ance with divine Things, and it pleafed God at this Seafon to infpire his Mind with longing Defires for the Conversion of the Indians, and to give him admirable Zeal and Fervency in addreffing them in order thereto. And tis remarkable that when I was favoured with any special Affistance in any Work, and enabled to speak with more than common Freedom, Fervency and Power, under a lively and affecting Sen/e of divine Things, he was ulually affected in the fame Manner almost instantly, and seem'd at once quickened and enabled to fpeak in the fame pathetick Language, and under the same Influence that I did. And a furprizing Energy often accompa-nied the Word at fuch Seafons, fo that the Face of the whole Affembly would be apparently chang'd chang'd almost in an instant, and Tears and Sobs became common among them.

He also appeared to have fuch a clear doctrinal View of God's usual Methods of dealing with Souls under a preparatory Work of Conviction and Humiliation as he never had before, fo that I could, with his help, discourse freely with the distress about their internal Exercises, their Fears, Discouragements, Temptations, &c.

He likewife took Pains Day and Night to repeat and inculate upon the Minds of the Indians the Truths I taught them daily, and this he appear'd to do not from fpiritual Pride, and an Affectation of fetting himfelf up as a publickTeacher; but from a Spirit of Faithfulnefs, and an honeft Concern for their Souls.

His Conversation among the Indians has likewife (fo far as I know) been Savory, as becomes a Chriftian, and a Person employed in his Work; and I may justly fay, he has been a great Comfort to me, and a great Instrument of promoting this good Work among the Indians: So that whatever be the State of his own Soul, 'tis apparent God has remarkably fitted him for this Work.

And thus God has manifested that, without bestowing on me the Gift of Tongues, he could find a Way wherein I might be as effectually enabled to convey the Truths of his glorious Gospel to the Minds of these poor benighted Pagans,

5thly. 'Tis further remarkable that God has carried on his Work here by fuch Means, and in

fuch a Manner as tended to obviate, and leave no room for those Prejudices and Objections that have often been raifed against fuch a Work. When Perfons have been awakened to a folemn Concern for their Souls, by hearing the more awful Truths of God's Word, and the Terrors of the divine Law infifted upon, it has usually in fuch Cafes been objected by fome, that fuch Perfons were only frighted with a fearful Noife of Hell and Damnation; and, that there was no Evidence that their Concern was the Effect of a Divine Influence. But God has left no room for this Objection in the prefent Cafe, this Work of Grace having been begun and carried on, by almost one continued Strain of Gospel-Invitation to perishing Sinners, as may reasonably be guess'd, from a View of the Pallages of Scripture I chiefly infifted upon in my Difcourfes from Time to Time : Which I have for that Purpose inferted in my Journal.

Nor have I ever feen fo general an awakening in any Affembly in my Life as appeared here, while I was opening and infifting upon the Parable of the great Supper, Luke xiv. In which Difcourfe I was enabled to fet before my Hearers the unfearchable Riches of Gofpel Grace.

Not that I would be underftood here, that I never inftructed the Indians refpecting their fallen State, and the Sinfulnefs and Milery of it: For this was what I at first chiefly infisted upon with them, and endeavoured to repeat and inculcate in K almost almost every Discourse, knowing that without this Foundation I should but build upon the Sand; and that it would be in vain to invite them to Christ, unless I could convince them of their Need of him, Mark ii. 17.

But fill this great awakening, this furprizing Concern was never excited by any Harrangues of Terror, but always appear'd moft remarkable when I infifted upon the Compositions of a dying Saviour, the plentiful Provisions of the Gospel, and the free Offers of divine Grace to needy distreffed Sinners.

Nor would I be underftood to infinuate, that fuch a religious Concern might juftly be fulpected as not being genuine, and from a divine Influence, becaufe produc'd by the preaching of Terror: For this is perhaps God's more ufual Way of awakeningSinners, and appears intirely agreeable to Scripture and found Reafon.—But what I meant here to obferve is, that God faw fit to improve and blefs milder Mcans for the effectual awakening of thefe. Indians, and thereby obviated the forementioned Objection, which the World might otherwife have had a more plaufible Colour of making.

And as there has been no Room for any plaufible Objection against this Work, in regard of the Means, fo neither in regard of the Manner in which it has been carried on.—'Tis true, Perfons Concern for their Souls has been exceeding great, the Convictions of their Sin and Milery have rifen

fen to a high Degree, and produced many Tears, Cries and Groans: But then they have not been attended with those Disorders, either bodily or mental, that have fometimes prevailed among Persons under religious Impressions .- There has here been no appearance of those Convulsions, bodily Agonies, frightful Screamings, Swoonings, and the like, that have been fo much complained of in fome Places; altho' there have been fome who, (with the Jaylor) have been made to tremble under a Sente of their Sin and Mifery----Numbers who have been made to cry out from a distressing View of their perifhing State --- And some that have been, for a Time, in a great Mealure, depriv'd of their bodily Strength, yet without any fuch convulsive Appearances.

Nor has there been any Appearance of mental Diforders here, fuch as Visions, Trances, Imaginations of being under prophetick Inspiration, and the like; or fcarce any unbecoming Disposition to appear remarkably affected either with Concern or Joy, tho' I must confess, I observed one or two Persons, whose Concern, I thought, was in a confiderable Measure affected; and one whose Joy appeared to be of the same Kind. But these Workings of spiritual Pride, I endeavoured to crush in their first Appearances, and have not fince observed any Affection either of Joy or Sorrow, but what appeared genuine and unaffected. But,

6thly. And lastly, The Effects of this Work have likewife been very remarkable. I doubt not but that many of these People have gain'd more dostrinal Knowledge of divine Truths, fince I first vifited them in June last, than could have been inftill'd into their Minds by the most diligent Use of proper and instructive Means for whole Years together, without fuch a divine Influence. Their Pagan Notions and idolatrous Practices seem to be entirely abandoned in these Parts. They are regulated, and appear regularly difposed in the Affairs of Marriage, an Inftance whereof I have given in my Journal of Aug. 14. They feem generally divorc'd from Drunkenness, their darling Vice, and the Sin that eafily befets them : So that I dont know of more than two or three who have been my fleady Hearers, that have drank to excels fince I first visited them, altho' before it was common for fome or other of them to be drunk almost every Day : And some of them feem now to fear this Sin in particular more than Death itself. A Principle of Honesty and Justice appears in many of them, and they feem concern'd to discharge their old Debts, which they have neglected, and, perhaps, fcarce thought of for Years past. Their Manner of living is much more decent and comfortable than formerly, having now the Benefit of that Money which they ufed to confume upon Strong Drink. Love feems to reign among them, especially those who have givenEvidencies of having pass'd a favingChange : And

And I never faw any appearance of Bitternels or CenforiouInels in these, nor any Disposition to efteem themselves better than others, who had not received the like Mercy.

As their Sorrows under Convictions have been great and preffing, fo many of them have fince appear'd to rejoyce with Joy unspeakable, and full of Glory : And yet I never faw any Thing extatick or flighty in their Joy. Their Confolations don't incline them to Air and Lightness; but on the Contrary, are attended with Solemnity, and oftentimes with Tears, and an apparent Brokenness of Heart, as may be feen in feveral Paffages of my Journal : And in this Respect fome of them have been furprized at themselves, and have with Concern observ'd to me, that when their Hearts have been glad, (which is a Phrase they commonly make Use of to express spiritual Joy) they could not help crying for all.

And now upon the whole, I think, I may juftly tay, here are all the Symptoms and Evidences of a remarkable Work of Grace among these Indians, that can reasonably be defir'd or look'd for. May the great Author of this Work maintain, and promote the fame here, and propagate it every where, 'till the whole Earth be fill'd with his Glory. Amen

I have now rode more than Three Thousand Miles, that I have kept an exact Account of, fince the Beginning of March laft, and almost the whole of it has been in my own proper Business.

as a Miffionary, upon the Defign (either immediately or more remotely) of propagating Christian Knowledge among the Indians. I have taken Pains to look out for a Colleague, or Companion, to travel with me; and have likewife us'd Endeavours to procure fomething for his Support, among religious Perfons in New-England, which coft me a Journey of feveral Hundred Miles in Length; but have not as yet found any Perfon qualified and disposed for this good Work, altho' I had fome Encouragement from Ministers and others that 'twas hopeful a Maintenance might be procured for one, when the Man should be found.

I have likewife of late reprefented to the Gentlemen concern'd with this Miffion, the Neceffity of having an Englifh-School fpeedily fet up among thefe Indians, who are now willing to be at the Pains of gathering together in a Body for this Purpofe. And in order hereto have humbly propos'd to them the Collecting of Money for the Maintenance of a School-Mafter, and defraying of other neceffary Charges in the Promotion of this good Work; which they are now attempting in the feveral Congregations of Chriftians to which they respectively belong.

The feveral Companies of Indians I have preached to in the Summer paft, live at great Diflances from each other. 'Tis more than Seventy Miles from Crojweekfung in New-Jerfey, to the Forks of Delaware in Pennfylvania. And from thence to fundry of the Indian Settlements I visited on Sufquebannab,

among the Indians.

quebannab, is more than an Hundred and Twenty quebannab, is more than an Hundred and I wenty Miles. And fo much of my Time is neceflarily confumed in fourneying, that I can have but little for any of my neceffary Studies, and confe-quently for the Study of the Indian Languages in particular; and efpecially feeing I am obliged to difcourfe fo frequently to the Indians at each of the G Phene much the much the much states of the G Phene much here with them these Places while I am with them, in order to redeem Time to visit the reft. I am, at Times, almost discouraged from attempting to gain any Acquaintance with the Indian Languages, they are fo very numerous, (fome Account of which I gave in my Journal of May last) and especially feeing my other Labours and Fatigues ingrofs almost the whole of my Time, and bear exceeding hard upon my Constitution, fo that my Health is much impair'd—However I have taken confiderable Pains to learn the Delaware-Language, and propole still to do so, as far as my other Bu-finess and bodily Health will admit. I have already made fome Proficiency in it, tho' I have la-boured under many and great Difadvantages in my Attempts of that Nature. And it is but juft to obferve here, that all the Pains I took to acquaint my felf with the Language of the Indians I ipent my first Year with, were of little or no fervice to me here among the Delawares, fo that my Work, when I came among these Indians, was all to begin a-new.

As these poor ignorant Pagans stood in need of having Line upon Line, and Precept upon Precept, cept, in order to their being instructed and grounded in the Principles of Christianity, fo I preached publickly; and taught from House to House almost every Day for whole Weeks together, when I was with them. And my publick Difcourfes did not then make up the one Half of my Work, while there was fo many conftantly coming to me with that important Enquiry, What must we do to be faved ? And opening to me the various Exercifes of their Minds. And yet I can fay (to the Praise of rich Grace) that the apparent Succefs with which my Labours were crown'd, unfpeakably more than compenfated for the Labour. itself, and was likewife a great Means of supporting and carrying me thro' the Bufinets and Fatigues, which (it feems) my Nature would have funk under, without fuch an encouraging Profpect. But altho' this Success has afforded Matter of Support, Comfort and Thankfulnefs, yet in this Seafon I have found great Need of Affiftance in my Work, and have been much opprefs'd for want of one to bear a Part of my Labours and Hardships .-

May the Lord of the Harvest send forth other Labourers into this Part of his Harvest, that those who sit in Darkness may see great Light, and that the whole Earth may be filled with the Knowledge of himself. Amen.

LORDS-DAY, November 24.

REACH'D both Parts of the Day from the Story of Zaccheus, Luke xix. 1-9. In the latter Exercife, when I open'd and infifted. upon the Salvation that comes to the Sinner, upon his becoming a Son of Abraham, or a true Believer, the Word feem'd to be attended with divine Power to the Hearts of the Hearers .-- -Numbers were much affected with divine Truths----Former Convictions were revived---One or two Perfons newly awaken'd----And a most affectionate Engagement in divine Service appear'd among them univerfally.

The Impressions they were under appear'd to be the genuine Effect of Gods Word brought home to their Hearts, by the Power and Influence of the divine Spirit.

November 26. After having spent some time in private Conferences with my People, I difcours'd publickly among them from John v. 1 9. I was favour'd with some special freedom and fervency in my Difcourfe, and a powerful Energy accompanied divine Truths. Many went and and fob'd affectionately, and fcarce any appear'd unconcern'd in the whole Affembly. The Influence that feiz'd the Audience appear'd gentle, and yet pungent and efficacious. It produc'd no boifterous Commotion of the Paffions, but feem'd deeply to affect the Heart; and excited in the Perfons under Convictions of their loft State, heavy Groans and Tears.----And in others who had obtain'd Comfort, a fweet and humble Melting. It feem'd like the gentle but fleady Showers that effectually Water the Farth, without violently beating upon the Surface.

The Perfons lately awakened, were, fome of them, deeply diffrefs'd for their Souls, and appear'd earnefty folicitous to obtain an Intereft in Chrift: And fome of them, after publick Worfhip was over, in Anguish of Spirit, faid They knew not what to do, nor how to get their their wicked Hearts changed, &c.

November 28. Difcours'd to the Indians publickly, after having us'd fome private Endeavours to inftruct and excite fome in the Duties of Christianity. Open'd and made Remarks upon the facred Story of our Lord's Transfiguration, I uke ix. 28.---36.----Had a principal View in my infifting upon this Passage of Scripture to the Edification and Consolation of God's People. And observ'd fome, that I have Reason to think are truly such, exceedingly affected with an Account of the Glory of Chrift in his Transfiguration; and fill'd with longing Defires of being with him, that they might with open Face behold his Glory. After publick Service was over, I ask'd one

After publick Service was over, I ask'd one of them, who wept and fob'd moft affectionately, what fhe now wanted? She replied, Oh! to be with Christ, fhe did not know how to ftay, &c. This was a bleffed refreshing Season to the religious People in general. The Lord Jefus Christ feem'd to manifest his divine Glory to them, as when transfigured before his Disciples. And they, with the Disciples, were ready universally to fay, Lord it is good: for us to be here.

The Influence of God's Word was not confin'd to those who had given Evidences of being truly gracious, tho' at this time, I calculated my Discourse for, and directed it chiefly to such. But it appear'd to be a Season of divine Power in the whole Affembly; so that most were, in some Measure, affected. And one aged Man in particular, lately awakened, was now brought under deep and pressing Concern for his Soul, and was earnessly inquisitive how he might find Jesus Christ.

God feems still to vouchfafe his divine Prefence, and the Influence of his bleffed Spirit to accompany his Word, at least in fome Measure, in all our Meetings for divine Worship.

Novem. 30. Preach'd near Night, after having fpent fome Hours in private Conference with fome of my People about their Souls concerns cerns. Explain'd and infifted upon the Story of the rich Man and Lazarus, Luke, xvi, 19, 26.---The Word made powerful Impref-fions upon many in the Affembly, efpecially while I difcours'd of the Bleffedneis of Lazarus in Abraham's Bosom. This I could perceive, affected them much more than what I fpoke of the rich Man's Mifery and Torments. And thus it has been usually with them. They have almost always appear'd much more affected with the comfortable than the dreadful Truths of Gods Word. And that which has diffreffed many of them under Convictions, is, that they found they wanted, and could not obtain, the Happiness of the godly. At least they have often appear'd to be more affected with this, than with the Terrors of Hell. But whatever be the Means of their awakening, 'tis plain, Numbers are made deeply sensible of their Sin and Mifery, the wickedness and flubbornness of their own Hearts, their utter Inability to help themfelves, or to come to Chrift for Help, without divine Affiftance; and fo are brought to fee their perisbing need of Chrift to. do all for them, and to lie at the Foot of Sovereign Mercy.

LORD'S-DAY, December 1. Difcours'd to my People in the Forenoon from Lake xvi. 27, 31. There appear'd an unfeign'd Affection in divers Perfons, and some seem'd deeply impressed with divine Truths. In the Afternoon preach'd to a Number of white People; at which time the Indians attended with Diligence, and many of them were able to understand a confiderable Part of the Difcourfe.

At Night Difcours'd to my People again, and gave them fome particular Cautions and Directions relating to their Conduct in divers Refpects. And preffed them to Watchfulnefs in all their Deportment, feeing they were encompafied with those that waited for their halting, and who flood ready to draw them into Temptations of every kind, and then to expose Religion for their misteps.

LORD'S-DAY, Decem. 8. Difcourfed on the Story of the Blind Man, John ix.----There appear'd no remarkable Effect of the Word upon the Affembly at this Time. The Perfons who have lately been much concern'd for their Souls, feemed now not fo affected nor folicitous to obtain an Intereft in Chrift as has been ufual; altho' they attended divineService with Serioufnefs and Diligence.

Such have been the Doings of the Lord here, in awakening Sinners, and affecting the Hearts of those who are brought to folid Comfort, with a fresh Sense of divine Things from time to time, that 'tis now strange to see the Affembly fit with dry Eyes, and without Sobs and Groans!

Decems

Decem. 12. Preach''d from the Parable of the Ten Virgins, Mat. xxv. The divine Power feem'd in fome Measure to attend this Discourse, in which I was favour'd with uncommon Freedom and plainness of Address, and enabled to open divine Truths, and explain them to the Capacities of my People, in a Manner beyond my[elf.---- There appear'd in many Persons an affectionate Concern for their Souls; altho' the Concern in general seem'd not fo deep and prefsing as it had formerly done. Yet it was refreshing to see many melted into Tears and unaffected Sobs; fome with a Sense of divine Love, and fome for want of it !

LORD'S-DAY, Decem. 15. Preach'd to the Indians from Luke xiii. 24, 28 .--- Divine Truths fell with Weight and Power upon the Audience, and feem'd to reach the Hearts of many. Near Night difcours'd to them again from Mat. xxv. 3 1---46. At which Seafon alfo, the Word appear'd to be accompanied with a divine Influence, and made powerful Impressions upon the Affembly in general, as well as upon divers Perfons in a very special and particular Manner. This was an amazing. Seafon of Grace ! The Word of the Lord, this Day, was quick and powerful, Sharper than a two edged Sword, and pierced to the Hearts of many. The Affembly was greatly affected; and deeply wrought upon; yet without fo much apparent Commotion of the Paffions

Paffions, as was ufual in the Beginning of this Work of Grace. The Impressions made by the Word of God upon the Audience appear'd folid, rational and deep, worthy of the folemn Truths by Means of which they were produc'd, and far from being the Effects of any fudden Iright or groundles Perturbation of Mind. O! How did the Hearts of the Hearers

O! How did the Hearts of the Hearers feem to bow under the weight of divine Truths! And how evident did it now appear that they received and felt them, not as the Word of Man, but as the Word of God! None can frame a juft Idea of the Appearance of our Affembly at this Time, but those who have feen a Congregation folemnly awed, and deeply impressed by the special Power and Influence of divine Truths delivered to them in the Name of God!

Decem. 16. Difcours'd to my People in the Evening from Luke xi. 1--13. After having infifted fometime upon the 9th Verfe, wherein there is a Command and Encouragement to ask for divineFavours, I called upon them to ask for a new Heart with utmost Importunity, as the Man mentioned in the Parable, I was difcourfing upon, pleaded for Loaves of Bread at Midnight.

There was much Affection and Concern in the Affembly; and efpecially one Woman appeared in great diffrefs for her Soul. She was brought to fuch an Agony in feeking after Chrift, that the Sweat ran off her Face for a confiderable Time together, altho' the Evening was very cold; and her bitter Gries were the most affecting Indication of the inward Anguish of her Heart.

Decem. 21. My People having now attained to a confiderable Degree of Knowledge in the Principles of Christianity, I thought it proper to fet up a catechetical Lecture among them; and this Evening attempted fomething in that Form; proposing Questions to them agreeable to the Reverend Affembly's Shorter Catechism, receiving their Anfwers, and then explaining and infifting as appear'd neceffary and proper upon each Queftion. After which I endeavour'd to make fome practical Improve-ment of the whole. This was the Method I enter'd upon .---- They were able readily and rationally to answer many important Questions I proposed to them: So that, upon Trial, I found their doctrinal Knowledge to exceed my own expectations .--- In the Improvement of my Difcourfe, when I came to infer and open the Bleffednefs of those who have fo great and glorious a God, as had before been spoken of, for their everlasting Friend and Portion, fundry were much affected; and efpecially when I exhorted, and endeavour'd to perfuade them to be reconciled to God, thro' his dear Son, and thus to fecure an Intereft in his everlafting Favour. So that they appear'd to be not only enlightned and instructed, but affected and engaged in their Souls Concern by this Method of discoursing.

LORD'S-DAY, Decem. 22. Difcouried upon the Story of the young Man in the Gofpel, Mat. ix. 16. ix. 16--22. God made it a seasonable Word, I'm perfuaded, to some Souls.

There were fundry Perfons of the Indians newly come here, who had frequently liv'd among Quakers, and being more civiliz'd and conform'd to English Manners than the generality of the Indians, they had imbib'd fome of the Quakers Errors; efpecially this fundamental one, viz. That if Men will but live foberly and honeftly, according to the Dictates of their own Coniciences (or the Light within) there is then no Danger or Doubt of their Salvation, &c .-- -These Perfons I found much worfe to deal with than those who are wholy under Pagan Darknefs, who make no Pretences to Knowledge in Chriftianity at all, nor have any felf-righteous Foundation to fland upon. However, they all, except one, appear'd now convinced, that this fober bonest Life, of itself, was not fufficient to Salvation; fince Chrift himself had declar'd it fo in the Gafe of the young Man. And feem'd in fome Measure, concern'd to obtain that change of Heart which I had been labouring to fnew them the neceffity of.

This was likewife a Seafon of Comfart to fome Souls, and in particular to one (the fame mentioned in my Journal of the 16th Inflant) who never before obtain'd any fettled Comfort, tho' I have abundant Reafon to think fhe had paffed a faving Change fome Days before.

She now appeared in a heavenly frame of Mind, compos'd and delighted with the divine

Witt

Will. When I came to difcourfe particularly with her, and to enquire of her, how fhe got Relief and Deliverance from the fpiritual Diftreffes she had lately been under, she answer'd in broken English, * Me try, me try, save myfelf, last my Strength be all gone, (meaning her ability to fave herfelf) coud'nt me stir bit further. Den last, me forc'd let Jesus Christ alone, send me Hell if be please. I faid, but you was not willing to go to Hell was you? She replied, + Could not me help it. My Heart he would wicked for all. Could not me make him good, (meaning fine faw 'twas right she should go to Hell, because her Heart was wicked, and would be fo after all fhe could do to mend it.) I ask'd her, how fhe got out of this Cafe? She answered still in the tame broken Language, § By, by my Heart be grad desperately: I ask'd her why her Heart was glad? She replied, Grad my Heart Jefus Christ do what he please with me. Den me tink, grad my Heart Jesus Christ send me Hell. Didn't me care where he put me, me lobe him for all, &c.

And fhe could not readily be convinc'd, but that fhe was willing to go to Hell, if Chrift was pleafed to fend her there. Tho' the Truth evidently

* In proper English thus, 'I tried and tried to fave myfelf, till at laft my Strength was all gone, and I could not this any further. Then at laft I was forced to let Jelus Christ alone to fend me to Hell if he pleafed.' † In plain English thus, 'I could not help it. My Heart would be wicked for all what I could do. I could not make it good. ‡ 'By and by my Heart was exceeding glad-----My Heart was glad that Jelus Christ would do with me what he pleafed. Then I thought my Heart would be glad altho" Christ fhould fend me to Hell. I did not care where he put me, I fhould love him for all. i. e. do what he would with me. evidently was, her Will was fo fwallowed up in the divine Will, that fhe could not frame any Hell in her Imagination that would be dreadful or undefirable, provided it was but the Will of God to fend her to it.

Toward Night difcourfed to them again in the catechetical Method I entered upon the Evening before. And when I came to improve the Truths I had explained to them, and to anfwer that Queftion, ' But how fhall I know whether God has chosen me to everlasting Life' by prefing them to come and give up their Hearts to Chrift, and thereby to make their Electron sure, they then appear'd much affected: And the Perfons under Concern were afresh engag'd in feeking after an Interest in him; while fome others, who had obtained Comfort before, were refreshed to find that Love to God in themselves, which was an Evitence of his electing Love to them.

Decem. 25 The Indians having been ufed upon Christmas-Days to drink and revel among fome of the white People in thefe Parts, I tho't it proper this Day to call them together and Difcourfe to them upon divine Things : Which I accordingly did from the Parable of the barren Figg. Tree, Luke xiii, 6---9----A divine Influence, I'm perfuaded, accompanied the Word at this Seafon. The Power of God appear'd in the Affembly, not by producing any remarkable Cries, but by flocking and roufing at Heart, (as it feem'd) feveral flupid Creatures, that were fcarce ever moved with any Concern before. The Power attending divine Truths feem'd to have the Influence of the Earthquake rather than the Whirkwind upon them. Their Paffions were not fo much alarm'd as has been common here, in Times paft; but their Judgments appear'd to be powerfully convinced by the masterly and conquering Influence of divine Truths. The Impreffions made upon the Affembly in general, feem'd not superficial but deep and Heart affecting. O how ready did they now appear univerfally to embrace and comply with every thing they heard and were convinced was Duty! God was in the midst of us of a Truth, bowing and melting flubborn Hearts ! How many Tears and Sobs were than to be feen and heard among us ! What Liveli-nefs and strict Attention ! What eargernefs and intenfenefs of Mind appear'd in the wholeAffembly in the time of divine Service ! They feem'd to watch & wait for the dropping of God's Word, as the thirsty Earth for the former and latter Rain.

Afterwards I difcourfed to them on the Duty of Husbands and Wives, from Eph. v. 22---33. And have Reason to think, this was a Word in Season.---Spent fome time further in the Evening, in inculcating the Truths I had infifted upon in my former Difcourfe respecting the barren Fig-Tree, and observ'd a powerful Influence still accompany what was spoken.

Decem. 26. This Évening I was vifited by a Perfon under great spiritual Exercise. The most most remarkable Instance of this Kind I ever faw. She was a Woman of (I believe) more than fourscore Years old, and appeared to be much broken and very childifb thro' Age, fo that it feem'd impossible for Man to instil into her Mind any Notions of divine Things, not fo much as to give her any doctrinal Instruction, because fhe feem'd uncapable of being taught .--- She was led by the Hand into my House, and appeared in extreme Anguish. I ask'd her, what ailed her? She answered, that her Heart was distressed and she fear'd she should never find Christ. I ask'd her, when she began to be concerned? with divers other Questions relating to her diftrefs To all which fhe answer'd, for Substance, to this effect, viz. That she had heard me Preach many Times, but never knew any Thing about it, never felt it in her Heart till the laft Sabbath ; and then it came (fhe faid) all one as if a Needle had been thrust into her Heart; fince which time, fhe had no reft Day nor Night. She added, that on the Evening before Christmas, a Number of the Indians being together at the House where she was, and discoursing about Christ, their talk prick'd her Heart, fo that she could not fit up, but fell down on her Bed; at which time fbe went away (as fhe expressed it) and felt as if fhe dream'd, and yet is confident she did not dream. When fhe was thus gone, fhe faw, fhe fays, two. Paths, one appeared very broad and crooked, and that, she fays, turn'd to the left Hand. The

The other appeared firait and very narrow, and that went up the Hill to the right Hand. She travelled, she faid, for fome Time up the narrow right Hand Path, till at length fome-thing feem'd to obstruct her Journey. She fometimes call'd it Darknefs, and then defcrib'd it otherwife, and feem'd to compare it to a Block or Bar. She then remembred, fhe fays, what fhe had heard me fay about ftriving to enter in at the ftraight Gate, (altho fhe took little Notice of it, at the Time when fhe heard me discourse upon that Subject) and thought the would climb over this Bar. But just as she was thinking of this, fhe came back again, as fhe term'd it, meaning that fhe came to herfelf; whereupon her Soul was extremely diffress'd, apprehending she had now turned back and forfaken Chrift, and that there was therefore no Hope of any Mercy for her.

As I was fenfible that Trances and imaginary Views of Things, are of dangerous Tendency in Religion, when fought after and depended upon, fo I could not but be much concern'd about this Exercife, efpecially at firft; apprehending this might be a Defign of Satan to bring a Blemifh upon the work of God here, by introducing visionary feenes, imaginary Terrors and all manner of mental Dilorders and Delusions, in the Room of genuine Convictions of Sin, and the enlightning Influences of the bleffed Spirit; and I was almost refolved to declare, that I look'd upon this to be one of Satan's Devices, and

and to caution my People against it, and the like Exercises, as fuch.——However I deter-min'd, first to enquire into her Knowledge, to see whether she had any just Views of Things, that might be the Occasion of her present diftreffing Concern, or whether 'twas a meer Fright arifing only from imaginary Terrors. I ask'd her divers Queftions respecting Man's ask'd her divers Queffions respecting Man's primitive, and, more especially, his prefent State, and respecting her own Heart; which she an-fwer'd rationally and to my surprize. And I thought 'twas next to impossible, if not alto-gether so, that a Pagan who was become a Child thro' Age, should in that State gain so much Knowledge by any meer human Instruc-tion, without being remarkably enlighten'd by a divine Instruct a divine Influence.

I then proposed to her the Provision made in the Gospel for the Salvation of Sinners, and the Ability and Willingness of Christ to fave to the uttermost all (old as well as young) that come to him. To which fhe feem'd to give a hearty Affent. But inftantly reply'd, Ay, but I can't come, my wicked Heart won't come to Christ: I dont know how to come, &c. And this she spoke in anguish of Spirit, striking on her Breast, with Tears in her Eyes, and with fuch Earnestne/s in her looks as was indeed piteous and affecting.

She feems to be really convinc'd of her Sin, and Mifery, and her need of a Change of Heart : And her Concern is abiding and conftant. So that that nothing appears but that this Exercife may have a faving Iffue. And indeed it feems hopeful, feeing fhe is fo folicitous to obtain an Intereft in Chrift, that her Heart (as fhe expresses it) prays Day and Night.

How far God may make Use of the Imagination in awakening fome Perfons under thefe, and fuch like Circumstances, I can't pretend to determine. Or whether this Exercise I have given an Account of, be from a divine Influence, I fhall leave others to judge : But this I must fay, that its Effects hitherto bespeak it to be fuch: Nor can it (as I fee) be accounted for, in a rational Way; but from the Influence offome Spirit, either good or evil. For the Woman I am fure, never heard divine Things treated of in the Manner fhe now view'd them in; and it would feem ftrange fhe fhould get fuch a rational Notion of them from the meer working of her own Fancy, without fome fuperiour, or at leaft, foreign aid .---- And yet I must fay, I haved looked upon it one of the Glories of this Work of Grace among the Indians, and a fpecial Evidence of its being from a divine In-fluence, that there has, till now, been no Appearance of fuch Things, no visionary Notions, Trances, and Imaginations intermix'd with those rational Convictions of Sin, and folid Confolations, that Numbers have been made the Subjects of. And might I have had my Defire, there had been no Appearance of any Thing of this Nature at all.

Decem. 28. Difcourfed to my People in the catechetical Method I lately enter'd upon. And in the improvement of my Difcourfe, wherein I was comparing Man's present with his primitive State; and fhewing what he had fallen from, and the Miferies he is now involv'd in, and exposed to in his natural Effate; and preffing Sinners to take a View of their deplorable Circumstances without Christ; as also to strive that they might obtain an Intereft in him; the Lord, I truft, granted a remarkable Influence of his bleffed Spirit to accompany what was spoken, and there was a great Concern appear'd in the Affembly: Many were melted into Tears and Sobs, and the Impreffions made upon them, feem'd deep and Heart-affecting. And in particular, there were two or three Perfons who appear'd to be brought to the last Exercises of a preparatory Work, and reduc'd almost to extremity; being in a great Measure convinced of the Impossibility of their helping themselves, or of mending their own Hearts; and seem'd to be upon the Point of giving up all Hope in themselves, and of venturing upon Christ as naked helples and undone. And yet were in Diffress and anguish because they faw no fafety in fo doing, unless they could do fomething towards faving themfelves.

One of these Persons was the very aged Woman above-mention'd, who now appear'd weary and heavy laden with a sense of her Sin and Mitery, and her perifhing need of an Interest in Christ.

LORD'S-DAY, Decem. 29. Preached from John 3. 1---5. A Number of white People were prefent as is ufual upon the Sabbath. The Difcourfe was accompanied with Power, and feem'd to have a filent, but deep and piercing Influence upon the Audience. Many wept and fob'd affectionately. And there were fome Tears among the white People as well as the Indians. Some could not refrain from crying out, tho' there were not many fo exercifed. But the Imprefiions made upon their Hearts, appear'd chiefly by the extraordinary Earneffnefs of their Attention, and their heavy Sighs and Tears.

After publick Worship was over, I went to my House, proposing to preach again after a short Season of Intermission. But they soon came in one after another, with Tears in their Eyes, to know what they should do to be Saved. And the divine Sprit in such a Manner set Home upon their Hearts what I spoke to them, that the House was soon fill'd with Cries, and Groans.— They all flock'd together upon this Occasion, and those whom I had Reason to think in a Christless State, were almost univerfally feiz'd with Concern for their Souls.

It was an amazing Seafon of Power among them, and feem'd as if God had bow'd the Heavens and come down. So aftonifhingly prevalent was the Operation upon old as well as young, that that it feem'd as if none would be left in a Secure and natural State, but that God was now about to convert all the World. And I was ready to think then, that I fhould never again defpair of the Conversion of any Man or Woman living, be they who or what they would.

'Tis impossible to give a just and lively Defcription of the Appearance of Things at this Scalon, at leaft, fuch as to convey a bright and adequate Idea of the Effects of this Influence ! A Number might now be feen rejoycing that God had not taken away the powerful Influence of his bleffed Spirit from this Place .--- Refresh'd to see so many striving to enter in at the frait Gate----And animated with such Concern for them, that they wanted to push them forward, as fome of them expressed it .---- At the fame time Numbers both of Men and Women; Old and Young, might be feen in Tears, and fome in Anguish of Spirit, appearing in their very Countenances like condemned Malefactors, bound towards the Place of Execution, with a heavy folicitude fitting in their Faces: So that there feemed here (as I thought) a lively Emblem of the folemn Day of Accounts ! A mixture of Heaven and Hell, of Joy unfpeakable, and Anguish inexpressible !

The Concern and religious Affection was fuch, that I could not pretend to have any formal religious Exercife among them; but fpent the Time in difcourfing to one and another, as I thought thought most proper, and seasonable for each; and sometimes addressed them all together, and finally concluded with Prayer.---Such were their Circumstances at this Season; that I could scarce have balf an Hours Rest from speaking from about half an Hour before 12 o'Clock (at which Time I began publick Worsship) till past feven at Night.

There appear'd to be four or five Perlons newly awakned this Day and the Evening before, fome of whom but very lately came among us.

Decem. 30. Was visited by four or five young Persons under Concern for their Souls, most of whom were very lately awakened. They wept much while I discours'd to them, and endeavour'd to press upon them the necessfity of sying to Christ, without delay, for Salvation.

Decem. 31. Spent fome Hours this Day in visiting my People from House to House, and conversing with them about their spiritual Concerns; endeavouring to press upon Christless-Souls the necessity of a Renovation of Heart : And scarce left a House, without leaving some or other of its Inhabitants in Tears, appearing solicitous for the state of the state of the state of the Christle State of the state of the state of the state of the content of the state of the state of the state of the state of the content of the state of the state

The Indians are now gather'd together from all Quarters to this Place, and have built them little Cottages, fo that more than Twenty Families live within a Quarter of a Mile of me.

A very convenient Situation in Regard both of publick and private Inftruction.

January 1. 1745-6. Spent fome confiderable Time in visiting my People again. Found fcarce one but what was under some ferious Impressions respecting their spiritual Concerns.

Jan, 2. Visited some Persons newly come among us, who had scarce ever heard any Thing of Christianity (except the emptyName) before. Endeavoured to instruct them particularly in the first Principles of Religion, in the most easy and familiar Manner I could.

There are Strangers from remote Parts almost continually droping in among us, so that I have Occasion repeatedly to open and inculcate the first Principles of Christianity.

Jan. 4. Profecuted my catechetical Method of inftructing.----Found my People able to answer Questions with Propriety, beyond what could have been expected from Persons so lately brought out of heathemisk Darkness.

In the Improvement of my Difcourfe, there appeared fome Concern and Affection in the Affembly: And efpecially those of whom I entertained Hopes as being truly gracious, at least divers of them, were much affected and refreshed.

LORD'S-DAY, Jan. 5. Difcours'd from Mat. xii. 10---13. There appeared not fo much Livelinefs and Affection in divine Service as usual. The fame Truths that have often produc'd many Tears and Sobs in the Affembly, feem'd feem'd now to have no fpecial Influence upon any in it.

Near Night I propos'd to have proceeded in my ufual Method of catechifing. But while we were engaged in the first Prayer, the Power of God seem'd to descend upon the Assembly infuch a remarkable Manner, and so many appear'd under prefsing Concern for their Souls, that I thought it much more expedient to infist upon the plentiful Provision made by divine Grace for the Redemption of perishing Sinners, and to prefs them to a speedy Acceptance of the great Salvation, than to ask them Questions about dostrinal Points. What was most prastical, seem'd most feasonable to be infisted upon, while Numbers appear'd fo extraordinarily folicitous to obtain an Interest in the great Redeemer.

Baptiz'd two Perfons this Day; one Adult (the Woman particularly mention'd in my Journal of December 22.) and one Child.

This Woman has discovered a very fweet and heavenly frame of Mind, from time to time, fince her tirst Reception of Comfort. One Morning in particular she came to see me, discovering an unfual Joy and Satisfaction in her Countenance, and when I enquired into the Reason of it, she replied, That God had made her feel that 'twas right for him to do what he pleased with all things; and that 'twould be right if he should cast her Husband and Som both into Hell; and she saw 'twas so right for God to do what he pleased with them, that she could not but rejoyce if God should send them into Hell. Tho' 'twas apparent she lov'd them dearly. She moreover enquir'd whether I was not sent to preach to the Indians, by fome good People a great way off. I reply'd, yes, by the good People in Scotland. She answer'd that her Heart lov'd those good People so, the Evening before, that she could scarce help praying for th m all Night, her Heart would go to God for them &c. fo that the Bleffing of those ready to perifb is like to come upon those pious Perions who have communicated of their Substance to the Propagation of the Gospel.

Jan. 11 Discoursed in a catechetical Method, as usual of late. And having open'd our first Parents primitive Apostacy, from God, and our Fall in him, I proceeded to improve my Difcourfe, by fhewing the Neceffity we flood in of an Almighty Redeemer, and the abfolute; need every Sinner has of an Interest in his Merits and Mediation. There was some Tendernefs and affectionate Concern appear'd in the Affembly.

LORD'S-DAY, Jan. 12. Preach'd from Maiab 55---6. The Word of God feem'd to fall upon the Audience with a divine weight and Influence, and evidently appear'd to be not the Word of Man. The bleffed Spirit, I'm perfuaded, accompany'd what was fpoken to the Hearts of many. So that there was a powerful Revival of of Conviction in Numbers who were under spiritual Exercise before.

Toward Night, catechiz'd in my ufual Method. Near the Clofe of my Difcourfe, there app ar'd a great Concern, and much Affection in the Audience. Which increas'd while I continu'd to invite them to come to an all-fufficient Redeemer for eternal Salvation.

The Spirit of God feems from time to time, to be firiving with Numbers of Souls here. They are fo frequently and repeatedly rouz'd that they feem unable at prefent to lull themfelves afleep.

Jan. 13. Was visited by divers Persons under deepConcern for their Souls: One of whom was newly awaken'd .--- 'Tis a most agreeable Work to treat withSouls who are folicitoufly enquiring what they shall do to be faved. And as we are never to be weary in well doing, to the Obligation feems to be peculiarly ftrong when the Work is fo very defirable. And yet I must fay, my Health is fo much impair'd, & my Spirits fo wafted with my Labours and folitary Manner of living (there being no human Creature in the Houfe with me) that their repeated and almost inceffant Application to me for help and direction, are fometimes exceeding burdenfom, and fo exhauft my fpirits, that I become fit for Nothing at all, intirely unable to profecute any business fometimes for Days together. And what contributes much toward this difficulty is, that I'm oblig'd to fpend much time in `communicating communicating a little Matter to them : There being often times many things necessary to be premis'd, before I can fpeak directly to what I principally Aim at : Which Things would readily be taken for granted, where there was a Competency of doctrinal Knowledge.

Jan. 14. Spent some time in private Conferences with my People, and found fome difpos'd to take Comfort, as I thought, upon flighty grounds.- - They are now generally awaken'd, and 'tis become fo difgraceful, as well as terrifying to the Confcience, to be defti-tute of Religion, that they are in eminent Danger of taking up with any Appearances of Grace, rather than to live under the Fear and Difgrace of an unregenerate State.

Jan. 19. Profecuted my catechetical Method of difcourfing. There appear'd a great folemnity and fome confiderable Affection in the Affembly.

This Method of inftructing, I find very profitable. When I first enter'd upon it, I was exercis'd with fears, least my discourses would unavoidably be fo dostrinal that they would tend only to enlighten the Head, but not to affect the Heart. But the event proves quite otherwife : For these Exercises have hitherto been remarkably bleffed in the latter as well as the former Respects.

LORD'S-DAY, Jan. 19. Discours'd to my People from Isaiab lv. 7.--- Toward Night catechiz'd in my ordinary Method. And this ap- \cap pear'd pear'd to be a powerful Scafon of Grace among us. Numbers were much affected.—Convictions powerfully reviv'd.—Divers of the Chriftians refresh'd and ftrengthned—And one weary heavy laden Soul, I have abundant Reason to hope, brought to true Rest and folid Comfort in Christ, who afterwards gave me such an Account of God's Dealing with his Soul as was abundantly Satisfying as well as refreshing to me.

He told me, he had often heard me fay, that Perfons must fee and feel themselves utterly helplefs and undone, that they must be emptied of a Dependance upon themfelves, and of all hope of faving themselves by their own Doings in order to their coming to Christ for Salvation. And he had long been ftriving after this View of Things; fuppofing this would be an excellent Frame of mind to be thus emptied of a Dependance upon his own Goodneis: That God would have respect to this Frame, would then be well pleafed with him, and beftow eternal Life upon him .---- But when he came to feel himfelf in this helplefs undone Condition, he found it quite contrary to all his Thoughts and Expectations; fo that 'twas not the fame, nor indeed any Thing like the Frame he had been feeking after. Instead of its being a good I rame of Mind, he now found nothing but an mis in himself, and faw 'twas forever imposfille for him to make himfelfany better. He wow er'd he fail, that he had ever hoped to mend his own Heart. He was amaz'd he had never never before feen that 'twas utterly impoffible for him, by all his Contrivances and Endeavours, to do any Thing that Way, fince the matter now appear'd to him in fo clear a Light. Inftead of imagining now, that God would be pleas'd with him for the fake of this Frame of Mind, and this View of his undone Effate, he faw clearly, and felt it would be juft with God to fend him to eternal Mifery; and that there was na Goodnefs in what he then felt; for he could not help feeing, that he was naked, finful and miferable, and there was nothing in fuch a fight to deferve God's Love or Pity.

He faw these Things in a Manner so clear and convincing, that it seem'd to him, he faid, he could convince every Body of their utter Inability ever to help themselves, and their unworthiness of any Help from God.

In this Frame of Mind he came to publick Worfhip this Evening, and while I was inviting Sinners to come to Chrift naked and empty, without any Goodnefs of their own to recommend them to his Acceptance, then he thought with himfelf, that he had often tried to come and give up his Heart to Chrift, and he ufed to hope, that fometime or other he fhould be able to do fo. But now he was convinced he could not, and it feem'd utterly vain for him ever to try any more: And he could not, he faid, find a Heart to make any further attempt, becaufe he faw it would fignify nothing at all: Nor did he now hope for a better Opportunity, or more ability hereafter hereafter, as he had formerly done, becaufe he faw, and was fully convinced, his own Strength would forever fail.

While he was musing in this Manner, he faw, he faid, with his Heart (which is a common Phrafe among them) fomething that was unfpeakably good and lovely, and what he had never feen before; and this flole away his Heart whether he would or no. He did not, he faid, know what 'twas he faw. He did not fay, this is Jefus Christ, but 'twas fuch Glory and Beauty as he never faw before. He did not now give away hisHeart so as he had formerly intended and attempted to do, but it went away of itfelf after that Glory he then difcovered. He used to try to make a Bargain with Chrift, to give up his Heart to him, that he might have eternal Life for it. But now he thought nothing about himfelf, or what would become of him hereafter. But was pleafed, and his Mind wholly taken up with the unfpeakable Excellency of what he then beheld.

After fometime he was wonderfully pleafed with the way of Salvation by Chrift; fo that it feem'd unfpeakably better to be fav'd altogether by the meer free Grace of God in Chrift, than to have any Hand in faving himfelf.----And the Confequence of this Exercife is, that he appears to retain a fenfe and relifh of divine Things, and to maintain a Life of ferioufnefs and true Religion.

Jan. 28. The Indians in these Parts having in Times past run themselves in Debt by their exceffive Drinking; and fome having taken the Advantage of them, and put them to trouble and Charge by arrefting fundry of them, whereby 'twas fuppofed a great Eody of their Hunting Lands were much endangered, and might speedily be taken from them. And I being sensible that they could not subsist tobeing fenlible that they could not fublif to-gether in thefe Parts in order to their being a Chriftian Congregation, if thefe Lands fhould drop out of their Hands, which was thought very likely, thought it my Duty to use my utmost Endeavours to prevent fo unhappy an Event. And having acquainted the Gentle-men concern'd with this Miffion of this Affair, according to the best Information I could get of it, they thought it proper to expend the Money they had been and ftill were collecting for the religious Interests of the Indians (at least a part of it) for the Dilcharging of their Debts, and fecuring of these Lands, that there might be no entanglement lying upon them to hinder the Settlement and hopeful Enlargement of a CHRISTIAN CONGREGATION of Indians in thefe Parts .---- And having received Orders from them, I answered, in behalf of the Indians, Eighty two Pound's five Shillings, New-Jerfey Currency, at eight Shillings per Ounce; and fo prevented the Danger of Difficulty in this Respect.

As God has wrought a wonderful Work of Grace among these Indians, and now inclines others others from remote Places to fall in a mong them almost continually, and as he has opened a Door for the Prevention of the Difficulty'now mentioned, which feem'd greatly to threaten their religious Interests, as well as worldly Comfort, 'tis hopeful he designs to establish a Church for himself among them, and to hand down true Religion to their Posterity.

Jan. 30. Preach'd to the Indians from John iii. 16---17. There was a folemn Attention and fome Affection visible in the Audience; especially divers Perfons who had long been concern'd for their Souls, seem'd astresh excited and engaged in seeking after an Interest in Christ. And one, with much Concern, asterwards told me, his Heart was so prick'd with my preaching, he knew not where to turn nor what to do.

Jan. 31. This Day the Perfon I had made made Choice of and engaged for a School-master among the Indians, arriv'd among us, and was heartily welcom'd by my People universally...-Whereupon I distributed feveral Dozen of Primers among the Children and young People.

February 1. 1745-5. My School-master enter'd upon his Business among the Indians.----He has generally about thirty Children and young Persons in his School in the Day time, and about Fisteen married People in his Evening-School. The Number of the latter fort of Persons being less than than it would be if if they could be more conftant at Home, and ipare Time from their necessary Employments for an Attendance upon thefe In-Aructions.

In the Evening catechiz'd in my ufual Method. Towards the close of my Difcourse, a furprizing Power feem'd to attend the Word, etpecially to fome Perfons .---- One Man confiderably in Years, who had been a remarkable Drunkard, a Conjurer and Murderer, that was awakned fome Months before, was now brought to great Extremity under his fpiritual Diffrefs, to that he trembled for Hours together, and ap-prehended himfelf juft droping into Hell, without any Power to refcue or relieve himfelf .----Divers others appeared under great Concern as well as he, and folicitous to obtain a faving Change.

LORD'S-DAY, February 2. Preach'd from John v. 24, 25. There appear'd (as usual) fome Concern and Affection in the Affembly.

Toward Night proceeded in my usual Method of catechifing. Observed my People more ready in answering the Questions propofedto them than ever before. 'Tis apparent they advance daily in doctrinal Knowledge. But what is still more defirable, the Spirit of God is yet operating among them, whereby experimental, as well (peculative, Knowledge is propagated in their Minds.

Feb. 5. Discours'd to a confiderable Number of the Indians in the Evening ; at which Time P divers of them appeared much affected and melted with divine Things.

Ieb. 8. Spent a confiderable Part of the Day in vifiting my People from Houfe to Houfe, and converfing with them about their Souls Concerns. Divers Perfons wept while I difcours'd to them, and appear'd concern'd for nothing fo much as for an Intereft in the great Redeemer.

In the Evening catechiz'd as ufual. Divine Truths made fome Impression upon the Audience, and were attended with an affectionate Engagement of Soul in fome.

LORD'S-DAY, Feb. 9. Difcours'd to my People from the Story of the Blund Man, Mat. x. 46---52. The Word of God feem'd weighty and powerful upon the Affembly at this Time, and made confiderable Impreffions upon many. Divers in particular who have generally been remarkably flupid and carelefs under the Means of Grace, were now awakened, and wept affectionately. And the moft earneft Attention, as well as Tendernefs and Affection, appeared in the Audience univerfally.

Baptiz'd three Perfons, two Adults and one Child. The Adults, I have reafon to hope, were both truly pious. There was a confiderable melting in the Affembly, while I was difcourfing particularly to the Perfons, and adminiftring the Ordinance.

God has been pleafed to own and blefs the Administration of this, as well as of his other Ordinances, among the Indians. There are fome here here that have been powerfully awakened at feeing others baptiz'd. And fome that have obtain'd Relief and Comfort, just in the Seafon when this Ordinance has been administred.

Toward Night catechiz'd. God made this a powerful Seafon to fome. There were many affected .--- Former Convictions appear'd to be powerfully reviv'd. There was likewife one, who had been a vile Drunkard, remarkably awaken'd. He appear'd to be in great Anguish of Soul, wept and trembled, and continued to to do till near Midnight:----There was also a poor beaven laden Soul, who had been long under spiritual Diftress, as constant and presling as ever I faw, that was now brought to a comfortable Calm, and feem'd to be bow'd and reconcil'd to divine Sovereignty; and told me, She now faw and felt 'twas right God should do with her as he pleas'd. And her Heart felt pleased and satisfied it should be so. Altho' of late she had often found her Heart rife and quarel with God because he would, if he pleas'd, fend her to Hell after all fhe had done, or could do to fave herfelf, &c. And added, That the heavy Burden she had lain under, was now remov'd: That fhe had tried to recover her Concern and Diffress again, (fearing that the Spirit of God was departing from her, and would leave her wholly careles) but that the could not recover it : That she felt she never could do any Thing to fave herfelf, but must perish forever if Christ did not do all for her: That P 2 fhe did not deferve he fhould help her; and that 'twould be right if he fhould leave her to perifh. But Chrift could fave her, tho' fhe could do nothing to fave herfelf, &c. And here fhe feem'd to reft.

Forks of Delaware in Pennsylvania, 1745-6.

LORD'S-DAY, Feb. 16. I knowing that divers of the Indians in those Parts, were obfrinately set against Christianity, and that some of them had refused to hear me Preach in Times past, thought it might be proper and beneficial to the Christian Interest here to have a Number of my religious People from Crosweekfung with me, in order to converse with them about religious Matters : Hoping it might be a Means to convince them of the Truth and Importance of Christianity, to see and hear some of their own Nation discoursing of divine Things, and manifesting earnest Desires that others might be brought out of heathanish Darkneis, as themfelves were.

And having taken balf a Dozen of the moft ferious and knowing Perfons for this Purpofe, I this Day met with them and the Indians of this Place, (fundry of whom probably could not have been prevail'd upon to attend the Meeting, had it not been for thefe religious Indians that accompany'd me here) and preached to them ----Some of them who had, in Times pair, been extremely averfe to Chriftianity,

now behaved foberly, and fome others laugh'd and mock'd. However the Word of God fell with fuch Weight and Power, that fundry feem'd to be flunned, and express'd a willingness to hear me again of these Matters.

Afterwards pray'd with, and made an Addrefs to the white People prefent, and could not but obferve fome visible Effects of the Word, such as Tears and Sobs, among them.

After publick Worship, spent some Time and took Pains to convince those that mock'd, of the Truth and Importance of what I had been insisting upon; and so endeavour'd to awaken their Attention to divine Truths. And had Reason to think, from what I observ'd then and afterwards, that my Endeavours took considerable Effect upon one of the worst of them.

Those few Indians then prefent, who used to be my Hearers in these Parts (fome having remov'd from hence to Croscoeksung) feem'd fomewhat kindly disposid toward, and glad to see again, altho' they had been fo much attack'd by fome of the opposing Pagans, that they were almost asham'd or astraid to maniseft their Friendship.

Hb. 17. After having fpent much Time in difcourfing to the Indians in their refpective Houfes, I got them together, and repeated and inculcated what I had before taught them ----

Afterwards difcours'd to them from AEts viii. 5--8. A divine Influence feem'd to attend the Word. Sundry of the Indians here appear'd

to

to be fomewhat awakened, and manifefted a concern of Mind, by their earneft Attention, Tears and Sobs. My People from Crofweekfung continued with them Day and Night, repeating and inculcating the Truths I had taught them: And fometimes pray'd and fung Pfalms among them; difcourfing with each other, in their Hearing, of the great Things God had done for them, and for the Indians from whence they came: Which feem'd (as my_People 'old me) to take more effect upon them, than when they directed their difcourfes immediately to them.

Feb. 18. Preach'd to an Affembly of Irifb People near Fifteen Miles diftant from the Indians.

Feb. 19. Preach'd to the Indians again, after having spent confiderable Time in converfing with them more privately. There appear'd a great Solemnity, and some Concern and Affection among the Indians belonging to these Parts, as well as a fweet melting among those who came with me.----Divers of the Indians here feem'd to have their Prejudices and Averfion to Christianity remov'd, and appear'd well disposed and inclined to hear the Word of God.

Feb. 20. Preach'd to a fmall Affembly of High Dutch People, who had feldom heard the Gofpel preach'd, and were (fome of them at leaft) very Ignorant. But have divers of them lately been put upon an Enquiry after the Way of Salvation, with fome thoughtfulnefs. They They gave wonderful Attention, and fome of them were much affected under the Word, and afterwards faid, (as I was inform'd) that they never had been fo much cnlighten'd about the Way of Salvation in their whole Lives before. They requefted me to tarry with them, or come again and preach to them. And it grieved me that I could not comply with their Requeit, for I could not but be affected with their Circumftances; they being as Sheep not having a Shepherd, and fome of them appearing under fome Degree of Soul-Trouble, ftanding in peculiar need of the Affiftance of an experienced fpiritual Guide.

Feb. 21. Preach'd to a Number of People, many of them Low-Dutch. Sundry of the fore-mentioned High-Dutch attended the Sermon, tho' eight or ten Miles diftant from their Houfes.— Divers of the Indians also belonging to these Parts, came of their own accord with my People (from Crosweeksing) to the Meeting. And there were two in particular, who, the last Sabbath, oppos'd and redicul'd Christianity, that were now present and behaved foberly. May the present encouraging Appearance continue.

Feb. 22. Preach'd to the Indians. They appear'd more free from Prejudice, and more cordial to Chriftianity than before. And fome of them appear'd affected with divine Truths.

LORD'S-DAY, Feb. 23. Preach'd to the Indians from John vi. 35--37.--- After publick Service, difcours'd difcours'd particularly with fundry of them, and invited them to go down to Grefweeklung, and tarry there at least for fome time; knowing they would then be free from the Scoffs and Temptations of the opposing Pagans, as well as in the Way of hearing divine Truths difcours'd of, both in publick and private. And got a Promife of fome of them, that they would fpeedily pay us a Vifit, and attend fome further Instructions. They feem'd to be confiderably enlightened, and much freed from their Prejudices' against' Christianity. But 'tis much to be fear'd their Prejudices will revive again, unlefs they could enjoy the Means of Instruction here, or be remov'd where they might be under fuch Advantages, and out of the Way of their Pagan Acquaintance.

Crofweekfung, in New-Jerfey, 1745-6.

March 1. Catechiz'd in my ordinary Method. Was pleafed and refreshed to fee them answer the Questions propos'd to them with such remarkable Readiness, Diferentian and Knowledge.

Toward the Clofe of my difcourfe, divine Truths made confiderable Impreffions upon the Audience, and produc'd Tears and Sobs in fome under Concern: And more efpecially a fweet and humble melting in fundry that, I have Reafon to hope, were truly gracious.

LORD'S-DAY, March 2. Preach'd frnm John xv. 1--6.----The Affembly appear'd not fo lively lively in their Attention as usual, nor fo much affected with divine Truths in general as has been common.

Some of my People who went up to the Forks of Delaware with me, being now return'd, were accompany'd by two of the Indians belonging to the Forks, who had promifed me a ipeedy vifit. May the Lord meet with them here. They can fcarce go into a Houfe now, but they will meet with Christian Conversation, whereby, 'tis hopeful, they may be both inftructed and awaken'd. Difcours'd to the Indians again in the Afternoon, and obferv'd among them fome livelinefs and Engagement in divine Service, tho' not equal to what has often appear'd here.

I know of no Affembly of Chriftians, where there feems to be fo much of the Prefence of God, where brotherly Love fo much prevails, and where I fhould take fo much delight in the publick Worfhip of God, in the general, as in my own Congregation. Altho' not more than nine Months ago, they were worfhiping Devils and dumb Idols under the Power of Pagan Darknefs and Superfition ! Amazing Change this ! effected by nothing lefs than divine Power and Grace ! This is the Doing of the Lord, and 'tis juftly marvelous in our Eyes ! March 5. Spent fome Time juft at Evening in prayer, finging and difcourfing to my People upon divine Things; and obferv'd fome agreeable Tendernels and Affection among them.

Their

Their prefent Situation is fo compact and commodious, that they are eafily and quickly call'd together with only the Sound of a Conk-Shell (a Shell like that of a Perwinkle) So that they have frequent Opportunities of attending religious Exercifes publickly; which feems to be a great Means, under God, of keeping alive the Impreffions of divine Things in their Minds.

March 8. Catechiz'd in the Evening. My People anfwered the Queffions propos'd to them well. I can perceive their Knowledge in Religion increafes daily.----And what is ftill more defirable, the divine Influence that has been fo remarkable among them, appears ftill to continue in fome good Meafure. The divine Prefence feem'd to be in the Affembly this Evening. Some, who I have good Reafon to think are Chriftians indeed, were melted with a fenfe of the divine Goodnefs, and their own Barrennefs and Ingratitude, and feem'd to bate themfelves, as one of them afterwards expreffed it.---Convictions alfo appear'd to be reviv'd in feveral Influences; and divine Truths were attended with fuch Influence upon the Affembly in general, that it might juftly be call'd, an Evening of divine Power.

LORD'S-DAY, March 9. Preach'd from Luke K. 38-42.--- The Word of God was attended with Power and Energy upon the Audience. Numbers were affected and concern'd to obtain the ONE THING NEEDFUL. And fundry that have have given good Evidences of being truly gracious, were much affected with a Senfe of their want of Spirituality; and faw the need they flood in of growing in Grace. And most that had been under any Impressions of divine Things in Times path, feem'd now to have those Impressions reviv'd.

In the Afternoon propos'd to have catechiz'd in my ufual Method. But while we were engag'd in the first Prayer in the Indian Language, (as ufual) a great part of the Affembly was fo much mov'd, and affected with divine Things, that I thought it feasonable and proper to omit the Proposing of Questions for that Time, and infist upon the most practical Truths. And accordingly did fo: Making a further Improvement of the Passage of Scripture, I discours'd upon in the former Part of the Day.

There appear'd to be a powerful divine Influence in the Congregation. Sundry that I have Reafon to think are truly pious, were fo deeply affected with a fenfe of their own Barrennels, and their unworthy Treatment of the bleffed Redeemer, that they look'd on him as peirced by themfelves, and mourned, yea fome of them were in Bitternels as for a firsk born.—Some poor awakned Sinners also appear'd to be in Anguish of Soul to obtain an Interest in Christ. So that there was a great mourning in the Affembly: Many heavy Groans, Sobs and Tears ! And one or two Perlons newly come among us, were confiderably awaken'd. Q 2 Methinks

Methinks it would have refreshed the Heart of any who truly love Zion's Interest, to have been in the midst of this divine Influence, and seen the Effects of it upon Saints and Sinners. The Place of divine Worschip appeared both Solemn and Sweet ! And was so endear'd by a Display of the divine Presence and Grace, that those who had any relish of divine Things, could not but cry, How amiable are thy Tabernacles O Lord of Hosts !

After publick Worfhip was over, Numbers came to my Houfe, where we fang and difcours'd of divine Things; and the Prefence of God feem'd here alfo to be in the midft of us.

While we were finging, there was one (the Woman mention'd in my Journal of Feb. 9.) who, I may venture fay, if I may be allow'd to fay fo much of any Perfon I ever faw, was fill'd with foy un(peakable and full of Glory, & could not but burit forth in Prayer and Praifes to God before us all, with many Tears, crying fometimes in English and sometimes in Indian, O bleffed Lord, do come, do come ! O do take me away, do let me die and go to Jejus Christ! I am afraid if I live I shall Sin again! O do let me die now! O dear Jesus, do come! I can't stay, I can't stay! O how can I live in this World! Do take my Soul away from this Sinful Place ! O let me never Sin any more ! O what shall I do, what shall I do! Dear Jesus, O dear Jesus, &c.---- In this Extacy fhe continued fome Time, uttering these and fuch like Expressions incessantly .----And

And the grand Argument she used with God to take her away immediately, was, that if she liv'd, she should Sin against him.

When she had a little recovered herself, I ask'd her, if Christ was not now fweet to her Soul? Whereupon, turning to me with Tears in her Eyes, and with all the Tokens of deep Humility I ever faw in any Perfon, the faid, Proe many Times heard you speak of the Goodness and the Sweetness of Christ, that he was better than all the World. But O! I knew nothing what you meant, I never believ'd you ! I never believ'd you! Bat now I know it is true! Or Words to that Effect .--- I answered, And do you fee enough in Chrift for the greatest of Sinners? She replied, O! Enough, enough ! For all the Sinners in the World if they would but come. And when I ask'd her, if she could not tell them of the Goodness of Christ; turning herself about to fome poor Chriftlefs Souls who flood by, and were much affected, she faid, O! There's enough in Christ for you, if you would but come ! O strive, strive to give up your Hearts to him, &c .--- And upon hearing fomething of the Glory of Heaven mentioned, that there was no Sin in that World, &c. She again fell into the fame extafy of Joy, and defire of Chrift's coming; repeating her former Expressions, O dear Lord, do let me go ! O what shall I do, what shall I do ! I want to go to Christ.! I can't live! O do let me die, &c.

She continued in this fweet Frame for more than

than two Hours, before the was well able to get Home.

I am very fenfible there may be great Joys arifing even to an extacy, where there is ftill no fubftantial Evidence of their being wellgrounded. But in the prefent Cafe there feem'd to be no Evidence wanting, in Order to prove this Joy to be divine, either in Regard of its Preparatives, Attendants, or Confequents.

Of all the Perfons I have feen under fpiritual Exercife, I fcarce ever faw one appear more bow'd and broken under Convictions of Sin and Mifery (or what is ufually call'd a preparatory Work) than this Woman. Nor fcarce any who feem'd to have a greater Acquaintance with her own Heart than fhe had. She would frequently complain to me of the Hardnefs and Rebellion of her Heart. Would tell me, her Heart rofe and quarrel'd with God, when fhe thought he would do with her as he pleased, and fend her to Hell notwithstanding her Prayers, good Frames, &c. That her Heart was not willing to come to Chrift for Salvation, but tried every where else for Help.

And as fhe feem'd to be remarkably fenfible of her Stubbornnefs and Contrariety to God, under Conviction, fo fhe appear'd to be no lefs remarkably bow'd and reconcil'd to divine Sovereignty before fhe obtain'd any Relief or Comfort. Something of which I have before noticed in my Journal of Feb. 9. Since which time fhe has feem'd conftantly to breath the Spirit and Temper of the

the new Creature: Crying after Chrift, not thro' fear of Hell as before, but with ftrong Defires after him as her only fatisfying Portion. And has many Times wept and fob'd bitterly, becaufe (as fhe apprehended) fhe did not and could not love him.-- -When I have fometimes ask'd her, Why fhe appear'd fo forrowful, and whether it was becaufe fhe was afraid of Hell? She would anfwer, No, I ben't diftrefs'd about that; but my Heart is fo wicked I can't love Chrift; and thereupon burft out into Tears.---But altho' this has been the habitual Frame of her Mind for feveral Weeks together, fo that the Exercife of Grace appear'd evident to others, yet fbe feem'd wholly infenfible of it herfelf, and never had any remarkable Comfort, and fenfible Satisfaction till this Evening.

This fweet and furprifing Extacy, appear'd to fpring from a true fpiritual Difcovery of the Glory, ravifhing Beauty and Excellency of Chrift: And not from any grofs imaginary Notions of his human Nature; fuch as that of feeing him in fuch a Place or Pofture, as hanging on the Crofs, as bleeding, dying, as gently fmiling, and the like; which Delufions fome have been carried away with. Nor did it rife from a fordid felfifb Apprehension of ber having any Benefit whatfoever conferred on her, but from a View of his perfonal Excellency, and tranfcendant Lovelinefs, which drew forth those vehement Defires of enjoying him so manifested, and made her long to be abfent from the

the Body, that she might be present with the Lord,

The Attendants of this ravishing Comfort, were such as abundantly discover'd its Spring to be divine, and that 'twas truly a Joy in the Holy Ghoft .--- Now the view'd divine Truths as living Realities; and could fay, I know these Things are fo, I feel they are true ! --- Now her Soul was refign'd to the divine Will in the most tender Points; so that when I faid to her, What if God should take away your * Husband from you, (who was then very fick) how do you think you could bear that? She replied, He belongs to God, and not me, he may do with him just what he pleases !- --- Now the had the most tender Sense of the Evil of Sin, and discovered the utmost Aversion to it; longing to die that fhe might be delivered from it. --Now the could freely truft her all with God for Time and Eternity. And when I quered with her, how fhe could be willing to die and leave her little Infant, and what fhe thought would become of it in Cafe she fhould ? She answer'd, God will take care of it. It belongs to him, he will take care of it .----

Now the appear'd to have the moft humbling Senfe of her own Meannels and Unworthinels, her Weaknels and Inability to preferve herfelf from Sin, and to perfevere in the Way of Holinels, crying, If I live, I fhall Sin. And I then chen hought I had never feen fuch an appearance of Extafy and Humility meeting in any one Perfon in all my Life before.

"The Man particula.ly mentioned in my Journal of January 19.

The Confequents of this Joy are no lefs defirable and Satisfactory than its Attendants. She fince appears to be a most tender, broken-hearted, affectionate, devout, and humble Chriftian, as exemplary in Life and Conversation as any Person in my Congregation. May she still grow in Grace and in the Knowledge of Christ. March 10. Toward Night the Indians met together of their own accord and fang, pray'd; and difcours'd of divine Things among themfelves. At which Time there was much Affection among them. Some who are hopefully gracious, appear'd to be melted with divine Things. And fome others feem'd much concern'd for their Souls .- Perceiving their Engagement, and Affection in religious Exerciles I went among them, and pray'd and gave a Word of Exhortation ; and observ'd two or three fomewhat affected and concern'd, who fcarce ever appear'd to be under any religious Impreffions before. It feem'd to be a Day and Evening of divine Power. Numbers retained the warm Impreffions of divine Things that had been made upon their Minds the Day before.

March 14. Was visited by a confiderable Number of my People, and spent some Time in religious Exercises with them.

March 15: In the Evening Catechiz'd. R My

My People answer'd the Questions put 14 them with furprizing Readiness and Judgment. There appeared fome warmth and feeling Senfe of divine Things among those, I have reason to hope, are real Christians, while I was discourfing upon Peace of Conscience and Joy in the Holy-Ghost. These feem'd quicknet and enliven'd in divine Service, tho' there was not so much appearance of Concern among those I have Reason to think in a Christless State.

LORD'S-DAY, March 16. Preach'd to my Congregation from Heb. ii. 1--3. Divine Truths feem'd to have fome confiderable Influence upon many of the Hearers; and produc'd many Tears, as well as heavy Sighs and Sobs among both thofe who have given Evidences of being real Chriftians and others alfo. And the Impreffions made upon the Audience, appeared in general deep and Heart affecting, not fuperficial, noi[y and affected.

Toward Night discours'd again on the great Salvation. The Word was again attended with some Power upon the Audience. Numbers wept affectionately, and, to appearance, unfeignealy; so that the Spirit of God seem'd to be moving upon the Face of the Assembly.

Baptiz'd the Woman particularly mentioned in my Journal of last Lord's Day; who now, as well as then, appear'd to be in a devout, humble and excellent Frame of Mind.

My Houfe being throng'd with my People in the Evening, I fpent the Time in religious Exercifes

Exercifes with them, till my Nature was almost fpent.----They are fo unwearied in religious Exercifes and unfatiable in their Thirsting after CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE that I can fometimes fearce avoid labouring fo, as greatly to exhaust my Strength and Spirits.

March 19. Sundry of the Perfons that went with me to the Forks of Delaware in February last, having been detain'd there by the danger-ous Illness of one of their Company, return'd Home but this Day. Whereupon my People generally met together of their own Accord in order to fpend fome time in religious Exercifes; and in fpecial to give Thanks to God for his preferving Goodness to those who had been absent from them for feveral Weeks, and recovering Mercy to him that had been fick, and that he had now return'd them all in Safety. I being then absent, they defir'd my Schoolmaster to affift them in carrying on their religious Solemnity; who tells me they appear'd engaged and Affectionate in repeated Prayer, finging, &c.

March 22. Catechiz'd in my ufual Method in the Evening.----My People answer'd Quettions to my great Satisfaction. There appear'd nothing very remarkable in the Assembly, confidering what has been common among us. Altho' I may justly fay, the strict Attention, the Tenderness and Assection, the many Tears, and Heart affecting Sobs appearing in Numbers in the Assembly would have been very remark-R 2 chla able, were it not that God has made their Things common with us, and even with Strangers foon after their coming among us, from time to time. Altho' I am far from thinking that every Appearance, and particular Inftance of Affection, that has been among us, has been truly genuine, and purely from a divine Influence. I am fentible of the Contrary. And doubt not, but that there has been fome corrupt Mixtures, fome Chaff as well as Wheat, especially fince religious Concern became fo common and prevalent here.

LORD'S-DAY, March 23. There being about Fifteen Strangers, adult Perfons, come among us in the Week paft; divers of whom had never been in any religious Meeting till now, I thought it proper to difcourfe this Day in a Manner peculiarly fuited to their Circumflances and Capacities: And accordingly attempted it from Hofea 13. 9. In the Forenoon opening in the plaineft Manner I could, Man's Apoftacy and ruin'd State. After having fpoken fome Things refpecting the Being and Perfections of God and his Creation of Man in a State of Uprightnefs and Happinefs. In the Afternoon, endeavoured to open the glorious Provision God has made for the Redemption of Apoftate Creatures, by giving his own dear Son to fuffer for them, and fatisfie divine Juffice on their behalf.

There was not that Affection and Concern in

the Affembly that has been common among us, altho' there was a defirable Attention appearing in general, and even in most of the Strangers.

Near Sun-set I felt an uncommon Concern upon my Mind, especially for the poor Strangers, that God had to much withheld his Prefence, and the powerful Influence of his Spirit, from the Affembly in the Exercises of the Day; and thereby denied them of that Matter of Conviction which I hop'd they might have had. And in this Frame I visited fundry Houses and discours'd with some Concern and Affection to, divers Perfons particularly; but without much appearance of Succefs, till I came to a Houfe where divers of the Strangers were; and there the folemn Truths I difcours'd of appeared to take Effect, first upon some Children, then upon divers adult Perfons that had been fomewhat awaken'd before, and afterwards upon feveral of the Pagan Strangers.

I continued my Difcourfe, with fome Fervency, till almost every one in the House was melted into Tears; and divers wept aloud, and appear'd earnestly concern'd to obtain an Interest in Christ----Upon this, Numbers foon gather'd from all the Houses round about, and so throng'd the Place that we were oblig'd to remove to the House, where we usually meet for publick Worship. And the Congregation gathering immediately, and many appearing remarkably affected, I discours'd fome Time from Lak. xix. 10 Endeayouring Endeavouring to open the Mercy, Compassion and Concern of Christ for lost, helpless, and undone Sinners.

There was much visible Concern and Affection in the Affembly; and I doubt not but that a divine Influence accompanied what was spoken to the Hearts of many. There were five or fix of the Strangers (Men and Women) who appear'd to be confiderable awakened. And in particular one very rugged young Man, who seem'd as if nothing would move him, was now brought to tremble like the Jaylor and weep for a long Time.

The Pagans that were awakened feem'd at once to put off their Savage Roughness and Pagan Manners, and became fociable, orderly and humane in their Carriage. When they first came, I exhorted my religious People to take Pains with them (as they had done with other Strangers from time to time) to inftruct them in Chriftianity. But when fome of them attempted fomething of that Nature, the Strangers would foon rife up and walk to other Houfes, in Order to avoid the Hearing of fuch Difcourfes. Whereupon fome of the ferious Perfons agreed to difperfe themfelves into the fe-veral Parts of the Settlement. So that whereever the Strangers went, they 'met with fome instructive Discourse, and warm Addresses refpecting their Souls Concern .---- But now there was no need of using Policy in order to get an Opportunity of conversing with some of them about

about their fpiritual Concerns; for they were fo far touch'd with a Senfe of their perifhing State, as made them tamely yield to the clofeft Addreffes that were made them, refpecting their Sin and Mifery, their need of an Acquaintance with, and Interest in the great Redeemer.

March 24. Number'd the Indians to fee how many Souls God had gather'd together here, fince my coming into thefe Parts, and found there was now about an Hundred and Thirty Perfons together, old and young. Sundry of thofe that are my ftated Hearers, perhaps to the Number of Fifteen or Twenty, were abfent at this Seafon. So that if all had been together, the Number would now have been very confiderable; especially confidering how few were together at my first coming into thefe Parts, the whole Number not amounting to Ten Perfons at that time.

My People going out this Day upon the Defign of clearing fome of their Lands above fifteen Miles diftant from this Settlement, in Order to their fettling there in a compact Form, where they might be under Advantages of attending the publick Worfhip of God, of having their Children Schooled, and at the fame Time have a conveniency for Planting, &c. Their Land in the Place of our prefent Refidence being of little or no value for that Purpofe. And the Defign of their fettling thus in a Body, and cultivating their Lands (which they they have done very little at in their Pagan-State) being of fuch necessity and Importance to their religious Intereft, as well as worldly Comfort, I thought it proper to call them together, and shew them the Duty of labouring with Faithfulness and Industry; and that they must not now be flothful in Business, as they had ever been in their Pagan State. And endea-vour'd to press the Importance of their being laborious, diligent and vigorous in the Prosecution of their Bufiness, especially at the present Juncture, (the Season of Planting being now near) in order to their being in a Capacity of living together, and enjoying the Means of Grace and Inftruction. And having given them Directions for their Work, (which they very much wanted) as well as for their Behaviour in divers Respects, I explained, fang, and endeavoured to inculcate upon them Plalm exxvii. common Metre, Dr. Watts's Verfion. And hav-common Metre, Dr. Watts's Verlion. And having recommended them, and the Defign of their going forth, to God, by Prayer with them, I difmiffed them to their Bufinefs. In the Evening read and expounded to my People (thofe of them who were yet at Home, and the Strangers newly come) the Subftance of the third Chapter of the AEts. Numbers feem'd to melt under the Word, efpecially while I was difcourfing upon ver. 19. Sundry of the Strangers alfo were affected.----When I ask'd them afterwards, whether they did not now feel that their Hearts were wicked, as I had had taught them? One replied, Tes, fhe felt it now. Altho' before the came here (upon hearing that I taught the Indians their Hearts were all bad by Nature, and needed to be changed and made good by the Power of God) She had faid, Her Heart was not wicked, and the never bad done any Thing that was bad in her Life. And this indeed feems to be the Cafe with them, I think, univerfally in their Pagan-State.

They feem to have no Concioufness of Sin and Guilt, unless they can charge themfelves with fome gross Acts of Sin contrary to the Gommands of the Second Table.

March 27. Difcours'd to a Number of my People in one of their Houses in a more private Manner. Enquired particularly into their fpiritual States, in Order to see what Impressions of a religious Nature, they were under. Laid before them the Marks and Tokens of a regenerate, as well as unregenerate State : And endeavoured to suit and direct my Discourse to them severally according as I apprehended their States to be.

There was a confiderable Number gather'd together, before I finish'd my Discourse; and divers seem'd much affected, while I was urging the Necessity and infinite Importance of getting into a renew'd State.----I find particular and close Dealing with Souls in private, is often very fuccessful.

March 29. In the Evening catechiz'd as ufual upon Saturday.—Treated upon the Benefits S which which Believers receive from Christ at Death----The Questions were answered with great Readinefs and Propriety. And those who, I have Reason to think, are the dear People of God, were fweetly melted almost in general. There appear'd fuch a Livelines and Vigour in their Attendance upon the Word of God, and fuch Eagerness to be niade Partakers of the Benefits then mentioned, that they feem'd to be not only looking for, but hasting to the coming of the Day of God. Divine Truths feem'd to diftil upon the Audience with a gentle, but melting Efficacy, as the refreshing Showers upon the new mown Grass. The Affembly in general, as well as those who appear truly religious, were affected with some brief Account of the Bleffedness of the Godly at Death: And most then difcovered an affectionate Inclination to cry, Let me die the Death of the Righteous, &c. Altho' many were not duly engag'd to obtain the Change of Heart that is neceffary in Order to that bleffed End.

LORD'S-DAY, March 30. Difcourfed from Matt. XXV. 31--40. There was a very confiderable moving and affectionate melting in the Affembly. I hope there were fome real, deep and abiding Impressions of divine Things made upon the Minds of many.---There was one aged Man newly come among us, who appear'd to be confiderably awakened, that never was touch'd with any Concern for his Soul before.

In the Evening catechiz'd. There was not that Tendernefs and melting Engagement among God's People that appeared the Evening before, and at many other Times. Altho' they answer'd the Questions diffinctly and well, and were devout and attentive in divine Service.

March 31. Call'd my People together, as I had done the Monday Morning, before, and difcours'd to them again on the Neceffity and Importance of their labouring industriously, in order to their living together and enjoying the Means of Grace, &c. And having engag'd in folemn Prayer to God among them, for a Bleffing upon their Attempts, I difmiffed them to their Work. -

Numbers of them (both Men and Women) feem'd to offer themfelves willingly to this Service; and fome appear'd affectionately concern'd that God might go with them, and begin their little Town for them; that by his Bleffing it might be a Place comfortable for them and theirs, in regard both of procuring the Necelfaries of Life, and of attending the Worfhip of God.

April 5. 1746. Catechiz'd towards Evening. There appear'd to be fome Affection and fervent Engagement in divine Service thro' the Affembly in general; efpecially towards the Conclusion of my Discourse.

After publick Worship, a Number of those I have Reafon to think are truly religious, came to my Houfe and feem'd eager ot of fome further Entertainment upon divine Things. And while I was converfing with them about their fpiritual Exercises, observing to them, that God's Work in the Hearts of all his Children, was, for Substance, the fame; and that their Trials and Temptations were alfo alike; and shewing the Obligations such were under to love one another in a peculiar Manner, they feem'd to be melted into Tenderness and Affection toward each other: And I thought that particular Token of their being the Difciples of CHRIST, viz. of their baving Love one toward another, had fcarce ever appear'd more evident than at this Time.

LORD'S-DAY, April 6. Preach'd from Matt. vii. 21-23. There were confiderable Effects of the Word visible in the Audience, and fuch as were very defirable : An earnest Attention, a great Solemnity, many Tears and heavy Sighs, which were modeftly fuppreffed in a confiderable Measure, and appear'd unaffected and without any indecent Commotion of the Paffions. Divers of the religious People were put upon ferious and close Examination of their spiritual States, by hearing that not every one that faith to Christ, Lord, Lord, shall enter into his Kingdom. And fome of them expressed Fears least they had deceived themfelves and taken up a falfe Hope, because they found they had done fo little of the Will of his Father who is in Haven.

There was also one Man brought under very great great and preffing Concern for his Soul; which appear'd more efpecially after his Retirement from publick Worfhip. And that which, he fays, gave him his great Uneafinefs, was, not fo much any particular Sin, as that he had never done the Will of God at all, but had finned continually, and fo had no claim to the Kingdom of Heaven.

In the Afternoon I open'd to them the Difcipline of Chrift in his Church, and the Method in which Offenders are to be dealt with. At which Time the religious People were much affected, efpecially when they heard, that the Offender continuing obftinate, muft finally be efteemed and treated as an Heathen-Man, as a Pagan that has no Part nor Lot among God's visible People. This they feem'd to have the most awful Apprehensions of : A State of Heathenism, out of which they were so lately brought, appearing very dreadful to them.

After publick Worship I visited fundry Houses to see how they spent the remainder of the Sabbath, and to treat with them folenoly on the great Concerns of their Souls : And the Lord seem'd to smile upon my private Endeavours, and to make these particular and personal Addresses more effectual upon some, than my publick Discourses.

April 7. Difcours'd to my People at Evening from 1 Cor. xi. 23---26. And endeavoured to open to them the Inftitution, Nature and Ends of the Lord's-Supper, as well as the Qualifications lifications and Preparations neceffary to the right Participation of that Ordinance.---Sundry Perfons appeared much affected with the Love of Chrift manifefted in his making this Provision for the Comfort of his People, at a Seafon when himfelf was just entering upon his fharpeft Sufferings.

LORD'S-DAY, April 20. Difcours'd both Forenoon and Afternoon from Luke xxiv. Explaining most of the Chapter, and making remarks upon it. There was a defirable Attention in the Audience, tho' there was not so much appearance of Affection and Tenderness among them as has been usual. ---Our Meeting was very full, there being fundry Strangers present who had never been with us before.

In the Evening catechiz'd. My People anfwered the Queffions propos'd to them, readily and diffinctly; and I could perceive they advanced in their Knowledge of the Principles of Chriftianity.

There appear'd an affectionate melting in the Affembly at this Time. Sundry who, I truft, are truly religious, were refreshed and quickened, and seem'd, by their Discourse and Behaviour after publick Worship, to have their Hearts knit together in Love.----This was a sweet and bleffed Season, like many others, that my poor People have been favour'd with in Months past! God has caused this little Heece to be repeatedly wet with the bleffed Dows of his divine Grace, while all the Earth around has been comparatively dry. April 25. Having of late apprehended that a Number of Perfons in my Congregation, were proper Subjects of the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper, and that it might be Seafonable fpeedi-ly to administer it to them : And having taken Advice of fome of the Reverend Corre-(pondents in this folemn Affair; and accordingly having proposed and appointed the next Lord's-Day (with leave of divine Providence) for the Administration of this Ordinance, this Day, as preparatory thereto, was fet apart for folemn Fasting and Prayer, to implore the Bleffing of God upon our Defign of renewing Covenant with him, and with one another, to walk together in the Fear of God, in Love and Chriftian-Fellowship; and to intreat that his divine Prefence might be with us in our de-figned approach to his Table; as well as to humble ourfelves before God on Account of the apparent withdrawment (at least in a Measure) of that bleffed Influence that has been fo prevalent upon Perfons of all Ages among us: As alfo on Account of the rifing Ap-pearance of Carelefneis, Vanity and Vice a mong fome, who, fometime fince, appeared to be touch'd and affected with divine Truths, and brought to fome fenfibility of their miferable and perifhing State by Nature. And that we might also importunately pray for the peaceable Settlement of the Indians together in a Body, that they might be a commodious Congregation for the Worfhip of God; and that God would blaft and defeat all the Attempts that were or might be made against that pious Defign. *

The Solemnity was observed and feriously attended, not only by those who proposed to communicate at the Lord's Table, but by the whole Congregation univerfally. --- In the former Part of the Day, I endeavour'd to open to my People the Nature and Defign of a Fast, as I had attempted more briefly to do b fore, and to inftruct them in the Duties of fuch a Solemnity .- -- In the Afternoon, I infiftedupon the special Reasons there were for our engaging in these folemn Exercises at this Time; both in Regard of the Need we flood in of divine Affiftance, in order to a due Preparation for that facred Ordinance we were fome of us propofing (with leave of divine Providence) speedily to attend upon: And alfo in respect of the manifest Decline of God's Work here, as to the effectual Conviction and Conversion of Sinners, there having been few of late deeply awakened out of a State of Security.

* There being at this Time a terrible Clamour raited against the Indians in various Places in the Country, and Infinuations as tho' I was training them up to cut People's Throats. - Numbers withing to have them banifhed out of these Parts, and fome giving out great Words in Order to fright and deter them from fettling upon the belt and most convenient Tract of their own Lands, threatning to moleit and trouble them in the Law, pretending a Claim to these Lands themselves, altho' never purchased of the Indians,

The

among the Indians.

The Worship of God was attended with great Solemnity and Reverence, with much Tenderness and many Tears, by those who appear to be truly religious: And there was some appearance of divine Power upon those who had been awakened some Time before, and who were still under Concern.

Aftér repeated Prayer and Attendance upon the Word of God, I proposed to the religious People, with as much Brevity and Plainness as I could, the Substance of the Doctrine of the Christian Faith, as I had formerly done, previous to their Baptism, and had their renewed chearful Affent to it.---I then led them to a folemn renewal of their baptismal Covenant, where in they had explicitly and publickly given up themfelves to God, the Father, Son and Holy-Ghoft, avouching him to be their God; and at the fame Time renouncing their Heathenis Vanities, their idolatrous and superstitious Practices, and folemnly engaging to take the Word of God, fo far as it was, or might be made known to them, for the Rule of their Lives, promifing to walk together in love, to watch over themfelves, and one another; to lead Lives of Serioufnefs and Devotion, and to difcharge the relative Duties incumbent upon them refpectively, &c.

This folemn Transaction was attended with much Gravity and Seriousness: And at the fame Time with utmost Readiness, Freedom, and Chearfulness; and a religious Union and T Harmony

Harmony of Soul, feem'd to crown the whole Solemnity. Lecould not but think in the Evening, that there had been manifeft Tokens of the divine Prefence with us in all the feveral Services of the Day; tho' is was also manifeft there was not that Concern among Christlefs Souls that has often appeared here.

April 26. Toward Noon pray'd with a dying Child, and gave a Word of Exhortation to the By-ftanders to prepare for Death, which feem'd to take Effect upon fome.

In the Afternoon difcours'd to my People from Matt. xxvi. 26---30. Of the Author, the Nature and Defign of the Lord's-Supper; and endeavoured to point out the worthy Receivers of that Ordinance.

The religious People were affected and even meited with divine Truths, --with a View of the dying Love of Chrift. Sundry others who had been for fome Months under Convictions of their perifhing State, appear'd now to be much mov'd with Concern, and afrefh engag'd in feeking after an Interest in Chrift; altho' I can't fay, the Word of God appeared fo quick and powerful, fo fharp and piercing to the Affembly as it had fometimes formerly done.

Baptiz'd two adult Perfons, both ferious and exemplary in their Lives, and, I hope, truly religious. One of them was the Man particu-Jarly mentioned in my Journal of the 6th Inft who altho' he was then greatly diffrefs'd, becaufe ba had never dons the Will of God, has lince ('tis hopeful) obtain'd fpiritual Comfort apon good Grounds.

In the Evening I catechiz'd those that were defign'd to partake of the Lord's-Supper the next Day, upon the Inftitution, Nature and End of that Ordinance; and had abundant Satisfaction respecting their doctrimal Knowledge and Fitness in that Respect for an Attendance upon it. They likewise appear'd in general, to have an affecting Sense of the colemnity of this facred Ordinance, and to be humbled unler a Sense of their own Unworthiness to approach to God in it, and to be earnessly concern'd that they might be duly prepar'd for an Attendance upon it. Their Hearts were full of Love one toward another, and that was the Frame of Mind they feen'd much concern'd to maintain, & bring to the Lord's Table with them.

In finging and prayer, after catechizing, there appear'd an agreeable Tenderness and Melting among them, and such Tokens of brotherly Love and Affection, that would even constrain one to fay, Lord, 'iis good to be bere; 'tis good to dwell where such an heavenly Influence diffuils!

LORD'S-DAY, April 27. Preach'd from Tit. ii. 14. Who gave himfelf for us, &c.— The Word of God at this 'Fime was attended with fome Appearance of divine Power upon the Affembly; fo that the Attention and Gravity of the Audience was remarkable; and especially towards the Conclusion of the Exercife divers Persons were much affected.

Administred the Sacrament of the Lord's-Supper to Twenty three Persons of the Indians, (the Number of Men and Women being near equal) divers others, to the Number of five or fix, being now absent at the Forks of Delaware, who would otherwise have communicated with us.

The Ordinance was attended with great Solemnity, and with a molt defirable Tendernefs and Affection. And 'twas remarkable that in the Seafon of the Performance of the Sacramental Actions, efpecially in the Distribution of the Bread, they feem'd to be affected in a most lively Manner, as if Chrift had been really crucified before them. And the Words of the Institution when repeated and enlarged upon in the Seafon of the Administration, feem'd to meet with the fame Reception, to be entertain'd with the fame full and firm Belief and affectionate Engagement of Soul, as if the Lord Jefus Chrift himfelf had been prefent, and had perfonally fpoken to them.

The Affections of the Communicants, altho confiderably raifed, were notwithftanding agreeably regulated, and kept within proper Bounds. So that there was a fweet, gentle and affectinate melting, without any indecent or boiftrous Commotion of the Paffions.

Having refted fome Time after the Adminifiration of the Sacrament (being extremely tired with the neceffary Prolixity of the Work)

among the INDIANS.

I walk'd from Houfe to Houfe, and converied particularly with most of the Communicants, and found they had been almost universally refressed at the Lord's-Table as with new Wine. And never did I fee fuch an Appearance of Christian Leve among any People in all my Life. It was fo remarkable, that one might well have cried with an agreeable Surprize, Behold how they love one another ! I think there could be no greater Tokens of mutual Affection among the People of God in the early Days of Christianity, than what now appear'd here. The Sight was to defirable, and fo well becoming the Gospel, that nothing less could be faid of it, than that it was the Doing of the Lord, the genuine Operations of him who is Love !

Toward Night discours'd again on the foremention'd Tit. ii. 14. and infifted on the immediate End and Defign of Christ's Death, viz. That he might redeem his People from all Iniquity, &c.

This appear'd to be a Scalon of divine Power among us. The religious People were much refreshed, and seem'd remarkably tender and affectionate, full of Love, Joy, Peace and Defires of being compleatly redeem'd from all Iniquity; so that some of them afterwards told me, they had never felt the like before.---Convictions also appear'd to be reviv'd in many Inftances; and divers. Persons were awakened whom I had never observ'd under any religious Impressions before.

. Such

Sach was the Influence that attended our Aifembly, and fo unfpeakably defirable the Frame of Mind that many enjoy'd in the divine Service, that it feem'd almost grievous to conclude the publick Worship. And the Congregation when difmis'd, altho' it was then almost dark, appear'd loth to leave the Place and Employments that had been render'd fa dear to them by the Benefits enjoy'd, while a bleffed quickening Influence diftill'd upon them.

And upon the whole, I must fay, I had great Satisfaction with Relation to the Administration of this Ordinance in divers Respects. I have abundant Reason to think, that these who came to the Lord's Table, had a good Degree of destrinal Knowledge of the Nature and D^{*}sign of the Ordinance; and that they acted understandingly in what they did.

In the preparatory Services I found (I may juftly fay) uncommon Fredom in opening the their Underftandings and Capacities, the Covemant of Grace, and in fhewing them the Nature of this Ordinance as a Seal of that Covenant. Altho' many of them knew of no fuch Thing as a Seal before my coming among them, or at leaft of the Ufe and Defign of it in the common Affairs of Life----They were likewife thoroughly fenfible that 'twas no more than a Seal or Sign, and not the real Body and Blood of Chrift---That 'twas defign'd for the Refrefhment and Edification of the Soul, and not for the feafling of the Body----They were alfo acquainte acquainted with the End of the Ordinance, that they were therein call'd to commemorate the dying Love of Chrift, &c.

And this Competency of doctrinal Knowledge, together with their grave and decent attendance upon the Ordinance; their affectionate melting under it; and the fweet and chriftian Frame of Mind they difcovered confequent upon it, gave me great Satisfaction refpecting my Administration of it to them.

And O what a fweet and bleffed Seafon was this! God himfelf, I'm perfuaded, was in the midft of his People! attending his own Ordinances! And I doubt not but many in the Conclufion of the Day, could fay, with their whole Hearts, verily a Day thus fpent in God's Houfe, is better than a Thoufand elfewhere. There feem'd to be but one Heart among the pious People! The fweet Union, Harmony and endearing Love and Tendernefs fubfifting among them, was (I thought) the moft lively Emblem of the heavenly World, I had ever feen.

April 28. Concluded the Sacramental Solemnity with a Difcourfe upon John xiv. 15. If ye love me, keep my Commadments. At which Time there appeared a very agreeable Tendernefs in the Audience in general, but efpecially in the Communicants.---O how free, how engag'd and affectionate did thefe appear in the Service of God: They feem'd willing to have their Ears bored to the Door-Pofts of God's House, and to be his Servants forever.

Obferving

Observing Numbers in this excellent Frame, and the Affembly in general affected and that by a divine Influence, I thought it proper to improve this advantagious Season, as *Hezekial*s did the defirable Season of his great Palfover; (2. Chron: xxxi.) in Order to promote the bleffed Reformation begun among them; and to engage those that appear serious and religious; to perfevere therein; and accordingly propos'd to them, that they fhould renewedly enter into Covenant before God, that they would watch over themfelves and one another, least they should dishonour the Name of Christ by falling into finful and unbecoming Practices. And efpecially that they would watch against the Sin of Drunkenness, (the Sin that easily be-sets them) and the Temptations leading thereto; as well as the Appearance of Evil in that Refpect .---- They chearfully complied with the Proposal; and explicitly joyn'd in that Covenant. Whereupon I proceeded in the most folemn Manner I was capable of, to call God to Witnefs refpecting their facred Engagement; and minded them of the greatness of the Guilt they would contract to themfelves in the Violation of it; as well as observed to them, that God would be a terrible Wittnefs against those who fhould prefume to do fo, in the great and notable Day of the Lord.

It was a Seafon of amazing Solemnity ! And a divine Awe appeared upon the Face of the whole Astembly in this Transaction ! Affectionate Sobs, Sighs and Tears, were now frequent in the Audience: And I doubt not but that many filent Cries were then fent up to the Fountain of Grace, for fupplies of Grace fufficient for the fullfilment of these folemn Engagements.

Baptiz'd fix Children this Day.

LORD'S-DAY, May 4. My People being now remov'd to their Lands, mention'd in my Journal of March 24. Where they were then, and have fince been making Provision for a compact Settlement, in Order to their more convenient Enjoyment of the Gospel, and other Means of Instruction, as well as the Comforts of Life: I this Day visited them (being now obliged to board with an English Family, at some Distance from them) and preach'd to them in the Forenoon from Mark iv. 5. Endeavoured to shew them the Reason there was to fear left many promissing Appearances and hopeful Beginnings in Religion, might prove abortive, like the Seed dropp'd upon story Places.

In the Afternoon difcours'd upon Rom viii. 9. Now if any Man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.----I have Reason to think this Discourse was peculiarly Seasonable, and that it had a good Effect upon some of the Hearers.

Spent fome Hours afterwards in private Conferences with my People, and labour'd to regulate fome Things I apprehended amils among fome of them.

May 5. Vifited my People again, and took Care. of their worldly Concerns, giving them Directions relating to their Eufinefs.

I daily difcover more and more of what Importance 'tis like to be to their religious Intetefts, that they become laborious and induftrious, acquainted with the Affairs of Husbandry, and able, in a good Measure', to raife the Neceffaries and Comforts of Life within themfelves; for their prefent Method of living greatly expofes them to Temptations of various Kinds.

May 9. Preach'd from John v. 40. in the open Wildernefs; the Indians having as yet no Houfe for publick Worfhip in this Place, nor fearce any Shelters for themfelves.----Divine Truths made confiderable Impreffions upon the Audience, and it was a Scalon of Solemnity, Tendernefs and Affection.

Baptiz'd one Man this Day (the Conjurer, Murderer, &c. mention'd in my Journal of August 8. 1745. and February 1. 1745-6) who appears to be fuch a remarkable Instance of divine Grace, that I can't omit fome brief Account of him here.

He liv'd near, and fometimes attended my Meeting in the Forks of Delaware for more than a Year together; but was (like many others of them) extremely attach'd to ftrong Drink, and feem'd to be no ways reformed by the Means I ufed with them for their Inftruction and Conversion. In this 'Time he likewife marder'd a likely young Indian, which threw

threw him into fome kind of Horror and Defparation, fo that he kept at a Diftance from me, and refused to hear me preach for several Months together (as I noted in a former Journal of March 4. 1744-5) till I'd had an Opportunity of converfing freely with him, and giving him Encouragement, that his Sin might be forgiven for Chrift Sake. After which he again attended my Meeting at fome Times.

But that which was the worft of all his Conduct, was his Conjuration. He was one of them who are fometimes call'd Powwows among the Indians : And notwithstanding his frequent attendance upon my Preaching, he still followed his old Charms and juggling Tricks, giving out that himself was some great One, and to him they gave heed, fuppofing him to be possesfed of a great Power. So that when I have inftructed them refpecting the Miracles wrought by Chrift in healing the Sick, &c. and mention'd them as Evidences of his divine Miffion, and the Truth of his Doctrines, they have quickly observ'd the Wonders of that Kind which this Man had perform'd by his Magick Charms : Whence they had a high Opinion of him and his superstitious Notions, which feem'd to be a fatal Obstruction to fome of them in Regard of their receiving the Goipel. And I have often thought, 'twould be a great Favour to the Defign of Gofpellizing the Indians, if God would take that Wretch out of the World; for I had fcarce any hope of his ever coming to Good: But God, whole V 2 Thoughing

Thoughts are not as Man's Thoughts, has been pleafed to take a much more defirable Method with him : A Method agreeable to his own merciful Nature, and, I truft, advantagious to his own Intereft among the Indians, as well as effectual to the Salvation of the poor Soul himfelf. And to him b. the Glory of it.

The first genuine Concern for his Soul that ever appear'd in him, was excited by feeing my Interpreter and his Wife Baptiz'd at the Porks of Delaware, July 21. 1745. Which fo pre-vail'd upon him, that, with the Invitation of an Indian who was a Friend to Christianity, he follow'd me down to Grofweekfung in the Beginning of August following, in Order to hear me preach, and there continued for feveral Weeks, in the Seafon of the moft remarkable and powerful Awakening among the Indians; at which Time he was more effectually awakened, and brought under great Concern for his Soul: And then, he fays, upon his feeling the Word of God in his Heart, (as he expresses it) his Spirit of Conjuration left him intirely, that he has had no more Power of that Nature fince, than any other Man living. And declares that he dont now fo much as know how he us'd to charm and conjure; and that he could not do any Thing of that Nature if he was never fo defirous of it.

He continued under Convictions of his finful and perifhing State, and a confiderable Degree of Concern for his Soul, all the Fall and former

among the INDIANS.

part of the Winter paft, but was not fo deeply exercis'd till fometime in January; and then the Word of God took fuch hold upon him, that he was brought into great Diffrefs, and knew not what to do, nor where to turn himfelf.-----He then told me, that when he-us'd to hear me preach from time to time in the Fall of the Year, my preaching prick'd his Heart and made him very uneafy, but did not bring him to fo great Diffrefs, becaufe he ftill hop'd he could do fomething for his own Relief: But now, he faid, I drave him up into fuch a fbarp Corner, that he had no Way to turn, and could not avoid being in Diffrefs

He continued conftantly under the heavy Burden and Preffure of a wounded Spirit, till at length he was brought into the accute Anguish and utmost Agony of Soul, mention'd in my fournal of February 1st. which continued that Night and part of the next Day.

After this, he was brought to the utmoft calmnefs and composure of Mind, his trembling and heavy Burden were remov'd, and he appear'd perfectly Sedate; altho' he had, to his Apprehensions, scarce any hope of Salvation.

I observ'd him to appear remarkably composs'd, and thereupon ask'd him how he did? He replied, 'Tis done, 'tis done, 'tis all done now. I ask'd him what he meant? He anfwer'd, I can never do any more to fave myself, 'tis all done forever, I can do no more. I queried with him whether he could not do a little more

rather

rather than to go to Hell. He reply'd, My Heart is dead, I can never help myfelf. I ask'd him, what he thought would become of him then ? He answer'd, I must go to Hell. I ask'd him, if he thought 'twas right that God should fend him to Hell? He reply'd, O 'tis right. The Devil has been in me ever since I was born. I ask'd him, if he felt this when he was in fuch great Diftres the Evening before? He answer'd, No, I did not then think it was right. I thought God would send me to Hell, and that I was then dropping into it, but my Heart quar-rell'd with God and would not say 'twas right he should (end me there. But now I know 'tis right, for I've always ferved the Devil, and my Heart has no Goodness in it now, but is as bad as over it was, &c .---- I thought I had fcarce ever feen any Perfon more effectually brought off from a Dependance upon his own Contrivances and Endeavours for Salvation, or more apparently to lie at the Foot of Sovereign Mercy than this Man now did under these Views of Things.

In this Frame of Mind he continued for feveral Days, paffing Sentence of Condemnation upon himfelf, and conftantly owning, that 'twould be right he fhould be damn'd, and that he expected this would be his Portion for the Greatnefs of his Sins. And yet 'twas plain he had a fecret Hope of Mercy, tho' imperceptible to himfelf, which kept him not only from Defpair, but from any preffing Diffrefs: So that that inftead of being fad and dejected, his very Countenance appear'd pleafant and agreeable.

While he was in this Frame, he fundry Times ask'd me, when I would preach again, . and feem'd defirous to hear the Word of God every Day. I ask'd him why he wanted to hear me preach, feeing his Heart was dead and all was done. That he could never help him-(elf, and expected that he must go to Hell. He reply'd, I love to hear you speak about Christ for all. I added, but what good will that do you, if you must go to Hell at last ! (using now his own Language with him ; having before from time to time, labour'd in the beft Manner I could, to reprefent to him the Excellency of Chrift, his All-fufficiency and Wil-lingnefs to fave loft Sinners, and Perfons juft in his Cafe; altho' to no Purpofe, as to yielding him any fpecial Comfort.) He answer'd, I wou'd have others come to Christ, if I must go ta Hell myself.---'Twas remarkable in this Season that he seem'd to have a great Love to the People of God, and nothing affected him so much as the Thoughts of being separated from them. This scem'd to be a very dreadful Part of the Hell he thought himfelf doom'd to .----'Twas likewise remarkable, that in this Season he was most diligent in the Use of all Means for his Soul's Salvation ; altho' he had the clear-eft View of the Insufficiency of Means to afford him Help. And would frequently fay, that all be did, signified nothing at all; and yet was never never more conftant in doing, attending Secret and Family Prayer daily, and furprizingly diligent and attentive in hearing the Word of God: So that he neither defpair'd of Mercy, nor yet prefum'd to hope upon his own Doings, but us'd Means, becaufe appointed of God in Order to Salvation; and becaufe he would wait upon God in his own Way.

After he had continued in this Frame of Mind more than a Week, while I was difcourfing publickly, he feem'd to have a lively, Soul refreshing View of the Excellency of Christ, and the Way of Salvation by him, which melted him into Tears, and fill'd him with Admiration, Comfort, Satisfaction and Praite to God; since which he has appear'd to be a humble, devout and affectionate Christian; serious and exemplary in his Conversation and Behaviour, frequently complaining of his Barrenness, his want of spiritual Warmth, Llse and Activity, and yet frequently favour'd with quickening and refreshing Influences. And in all Respects, so far as I am capable to judge, he bears the Marks and Characters of one created anew in Christ Jesus to good Works.

His Zeal for the Caufe of God was pleafing to me, when he was with me at the Forks of Delaware in February laft. There being an old Indian at the Place where I preach'd, who threatned to be-witch me and my religious People who accompanied me there ; this Man prefently challeng'd him to do his worft, telling him him, that himfelf had been as great a Conjurer as he, and that notwithftanding as foon as he felt that Word in his Heart which these People lov'd (meaning the Word of God) his Power of conjuring immediately left him ---And fo it would you, faid he, if you did but once feel it in your Heart; and you have no Power to hurt them, nor fo much as to touch one of them, &c.

So that I may conclude my Account of him by obferving (in allufion to what was faid of St. Paul) that he now zealoufly defends, and practically preaches the Faith which he once defiroyed, or at leaft was inftrumental of obftructing.---May God have the Glory of the amazing Change he has wrought in him.

LORD'S-DAY, May 18. Difcours'd both Parts of the Day from Revel. iii. 20. There appeared fome affectionate melting towards the Conclusion of the Forenoon Exercise, and one or two Instances of fresh awakening.----In the Intermission of publick Worship, I took Occasion to discourse to Numbers in a more private Way, on the Kindness and Patience of the bleffed Redeemer in standing and knocking, in continuing his gracious Calls to Sinners, who had long neglected and abused his Grace! Which feem'd to take fome Effect upon fundry:

In the Afternoon, divine Truths were attended with Solemnity, and with fome Tears, altho' there was not that powerful, awakening and quickening Influence, which in Times paft has been common in our Affemblies. The X Appearance

Appearance of the Audience under divine Truths, was comparatively difcouraging; and I was ready to fear, that God was about to withdraw the bleffed Influence of his Spirit from us.

May 19. Vifited and preach'd to my People from Acts xx. 18, 19. And endeavoured to rectify their Notions about religious Affections: Shewing them on the one Hand, the definables nels of religious Affection, Tendemels and fervent Engagement in the Worship and Service of God, when such Affection flows from a true firitual Difcovery of divine Glories, from a juftly-affecting Senfe of the transcendant Excellency and Perfections of the bleffed God ---- A View of the Glory and Loveliness of the great Redeemer : And that fuch Views of divine Things, will naturally excite us to ferve the Lord with many Tears, with much Affection and Fervency, and yet with all Humility of Mind .---And on the other Hand, observing the finfulnefs of feeking after high Affections immediately, and for their own Sakes, that is, of making them the Object our Eye and Heart is nextly and principally fet upon, when the Glory of God ought to be fo. Shewed them, that if the Heart be directly and thiefly fix'd on God, and the Soul engaged to glorify him, fome Degree of religious Affection will be the Effect and Attendant of it. But to seek after Affection, directly and chiefly, to have the Heart principally fet upon that, is to place it in the Room of

of God and his Glory. If it be fought that others may take Notice of and admire us for our spirituality and forwardnets in Religion, 'tis then abominable Pride: If for the Sake of feeling the Pleafure of being affected, 'tis then Idolatry and Self-Gratification .--- Labour'd alfo to expose the difagreeableness of those Affections. that are fometimes wrought up in Perfons by the Power of Fancy and their own Attempts for that Purpose, while I still endeavoured to recommend to them that religious Affection, Fervency and Devotion which ought to attend all our religious Exercifes, and without which Religion will be but an empty Name and lifeless Carcase.

This appear'd to be a feasonable Discourse, and prov'd very Satisfactory to fome of the re-ligious People, who before were exercised with fome Difficulties relating to this Point, Afterwards took Care of, and gave my Peos ple Directions about their worldly Affairs.

May 24. Visited the Indians, and took Care of their fecular Bufinefs, which they are not able to manage themfelves, without the constant Care and Advice of others.

Afterwards difcours'd to fome particularly about their spiritual Concerns,

LORD'S-DAY, May'25. Difcours'd both Parts of the Day from John xii. 44--48. There was fome Degree of divine Power attending the Word of God. Sundry wept and appeared confiderably affected : And one who had long been un-X 2 der fpiritual Trouble, now obtained Clearnefs and Comfort, and appear'd to rejoyce in God her Saviour. It was a Day of Grace and divine Goodnefs: A Day wherein fomething, I truft, was done for the Caufe of God among my People. A Seafon of Sweetnefs and Comfort to divers of the religious People, altho' there was not that powerful Influence upon the Congregation which was common fome Months ago.

LORD'S-DAY, June 1. 1746. Preach'd both Forenoon and Afternoon from Mat. xi. 27, 28. The Prefence of God feem'd to be in the Affembly, and Numbers were confiderably melted and affected under divine Truths. There was a defirable Appearance in the Congregation in general, an earneft Attention and agreeable Tendernefs, and it feem'd as if God defign'd to vifit us with further Showers of divine Grace.---I then baptiz'd Ten Perfons, five Adults and five Children, and was not a little refreshed with this Addition made to the Church of fuch as (I hope) shall be (aved.

I have Reafon to hope, that God has lately (at, and fince our Celebration of the Lord's Supper) brought home to himfelf, fundry Souls who had long been under fpiritual Trouble and Concern : Altho' there have been few Inftances of Perfons lately awakened out of a State of Security. And those comforted of late, feem to be brought in, in a more filent Way, neither their Concern nor Confolation being being fo powerful and remarkable as appear'd among those more fuddenly wrought upon in the Beginning of this Work of Grace.

June 6. Difcours'd to my People from Part of Ifaiah liii.----The divine Prefence appear'd to be amongft us in fome Meafure. Divers Perfons were much melted and refrefhed, and one Man in particular, who had long been under Concern for his Soul, was now brought to fee and feel in a very lively Manner the Impoffibility of his doing any Thing to help himfelf, or to bring him into the Favour of God, by his Tears, Prayers and other religious Performances; and found himfelf undone as to any Power or Goodnefs of his own, and that there was no Way left him, but to leave himfelf with God to be difpofed of as he pleafed.

June 7. Being defired by the Reverend Mr. William Tennent to be his Affifant in the Administration of the Lord's Supper: My People also being invited to attend the facramental Solemnity, they chearfully embraced the Opportunity, and this Day attended the preparatory Services with me.

LORD'S DAY, June 8. Moft of my People, who had been Communicants at the Lord's Table before, being prefent at this facramental Occafion, communicated, with others, in this holy Ordinance, at the defire, and, I truft, to the Satisfaction and Comfort of Numbers of God's People, who had long'd to fee this Day, and whofe Hearts had rejoiced in this Work of Grace Grace among the Indians, which prepared the Way for what appear'd fo agreeable at this Time.

Those of my People who communicated, feem'd in general agreeably affected at the Lord's Table, and some of them confiderably melted with the Love of Christ; altho' they were not so remarkably refresh'd and feasted at this Time, as when I administred this Ordipance to them in our own Congregation only.

Some of the By-standers were affected with seeing these, who had been Aliens from the Common Wealth of Israel, and Strangers to the Covenant of Promise, who of all Men had liv'd without God and without hope in the World, now brought near to God as his professing People, and fealing Covenant with him, by a folemn and devout Attendance upon this facred Ordinance. And as Numbers of God's People were refreshed with this Sight, and thereby excited to blefs God for the Enlargement of his Kingdom in the World, fo fome others (I was told) were awakened by it, apprehending the Danger they were in of being themfelves fi-nally caft out, while they faw others, from the East and West, preparing, and hopefully pre-par'd in fome good Measure, to fit down in the Kingdom of God.

At this Seafon others of my People alfo, who were not Communicants, were confiderably affected, Convictions were reviv'd in divers Inftances; and one (the Man particularly mention'd tion'd in my Journal of the 6th Inftant) obtain'd Comfort and Satisfaction; and has fince given me fuch an Account of his fpiritual Exercifes, and the Manner in which he obtain'd Relief, as appears very hopeful. It feems as if he who commanded the Light to fine out of Darknefs, had now fined in his Heart; and goven him the Light of an experimental Knowledge of the Glory of God in the Face of Jefus Chrift:

among the INDIANS:

June 9. A confiderable Number of my People met together early in the Day in a retir'd Place in the Woods, and pray'd, fang and convers'd of divine Things, and were feen by fome religious Perfons of the white People; to be affected and engag'd, and divers of them in Tears in thefe religious Exercifes.

Afterwards they attended the concluding Exercifes of the Sacramental Solemnity, and then return'd home, divers of them rejoycing for all the Goodnefs of God they had feen and felt: So that this appear'd to be a profitable as well as a comfortable Seafon to Numbers of my Congregation. And their being prefent at this Occafion, and a Number of them communicating at the Lord's Table with others of God's People, was, I truft, for the Honour of God, and the Intereft of Religion in these Parts, as Numbers, I have Reafon to think, were quickened by Means of it.

June 13. Preach'd to my People upon the New Creature, from 2 Cor. v. 17. The Prefence of God appear'd to be in the Affembly.---Ir It was a fweet and agreeable Meeting, wherein the People of God were refresh'd and strengthned, beholding their Faces in the Glass of God's Word, and finding in themselves the Marks and Lineaments of the New Creature.— Some Sinners under Concern, were also renewedly affected, and a fresh engag'd for the securing of their eternal Interests.

Baptiz'd five Perfons at this Time, three Adults and two Children. One of these was the very aged Woman of whole Exercise I gave an Account in my Journal of December 26th. She now gave me a very punctual, rational and fatisfactory Account of the remarkable Change fhe experienced fome Months after the Begin-ning of her Concern, which, I must fay, appeared to be the genuine Operations of the divine Spirit, fo far as I am capable of judging. And altho' fhe was become fo childifh 'thro' old Age, that I could do nothing in a Way of questioning with her, nor scarce make her understand any that I ask'd her, yet when I let her alone to go on with her own Story, fhe could give a very diffinct and particular Relation of the many and various Exercifes of Soul fhe had experienced: So deep were the Impref-fions: left upon her Mind by that Influence and Exercife fhe had been under ! And I have great Reason to hope, she is born a new in her old Age, fhe being, I prefume, upwards of four core.----I had good hopes of the other A-

June 19. Vifited my People with two of the Reverend Correspondents. Spent some Time in Conversation with some of them upon spiritual Things; and took some Care of their worldly Concerns.

This Day makes up a compleat Tear from the first Time of my preaching to these Indians in New-Jersey.----What amazing Things has God wrought in this space of Time for these poor People ! What a surprizing Change appears in their Tempers and Behaviour ! How are moross and Savage Pagans in this short space of Time, transform'd into agreeable, affectionate and humble Christians ! And their Drunken and Pagan Howlings, turn'd into devout and fervent Prayers and Praises to God ! They who were fometimes Darkness, are now become Light in the Lord. May they walk as Children of the Light and of the Day. And now to him that is of Power to stabilish them according to the Gospel and the Preaching of Christ.---To God only wise, be Glory, thro' Jefus Christ forever and ever. Amen,

Before I conclude the prefent Journal, I would make a few general Remarks upon what to me appears worthy of Notice, relating to the continued Work of Grace among myPeople.

And First, I can't but take Notice that I have in the general, ever fince my first coming Y among among these Indians in New-Jersey, been favour'd with that Affistance, which (to me) is uncommon, in preaching Christ crucified, and making him the Genter and Mark to which all my Difcourses among them were directed.

'Twas the principal Scope and Drift of all my Difcourfes to this. People for feveral Months together (after having taught them fomething of the Being and Perfections of God, his Creation of Man in a State of Rectitude and Happinefs; and the Obligations Mankind werethence under to love and honour him) to lead them into an Acquaintance with their deplorable State by Nature, as fallen Creatures : Their Inability to extricate and deliver themfelves from it : The utter Infufficiency of any external, Reformations and Amendments of Life, or of any religious Performances, they were capable of, while in this State, to bring them into the Favour of God, and Intereft them in his eternal Mercy. And thence to fhew them their absolute need of Chrift to redeem and fave them from the Mifery of their fallen State .- - To open his All-fufficiency and Willingness to fave the Chief of Sinners .--- The Freene(s and Riches of his divine Grace, propos'd without Money and without Price, to all that will accept the Offer. - And thereupon to prefs them without delay to betake themfelves to him, under a Sense of their Misery and undone Estate, for Relief and everlafting Salvation .---- And to fhew them the abundant Encouragement the -Gofpel

Work of GRACE among the INDIANS. 171

Gofpel propofes to needy perifhing and helplefs Sinners, in order to engage them fo to do. Thefe Things I repeatedly and largely infifted upon from time to time.

And I have often Times remark'd with Admiration, that whatever Subject I have been treating upon, after having fpent Time fufficient to explain and illustrate the Truths contain'd therein, I have been naturally and eafily led to Christ as the Substance of every Subject. If I treated on the Being and glorious Perfections of God, I was thence naturally led to difcoufe of Chrift as the only Way to the Father .--- If I attempted to open the deplorable Mifery of our fallen State, 'twas natural from thence to fhew the Necessity of Christ to undertake for us to attone for our Sins, and to redeem us from the Power of them .--- If I taught the Commands of God, and shew'd our Violation of them, this brought me in the moft eafy and natural Way, to speak of, and recommend the Lord Jejus Christ as One who had magnified the Law we had broken, and who was become the End of it for Righteousness, to every one that believes. And never did I find fo much Freedom and Affistance in making all the various Lines of my Difcourfes meet together and center in Chrift, as I have frequently done among these Indians!

Sometimes when I've had Thoughts of offering but a few Words upon fome particular Subject, and faw no Occafion, nor indeed much Y 2 Room

Room for any confiderable Enlargement, there, has at unawares appear'd fuch a Fountain of Gospel-Grace shining forth in, or naturally refutling from a just Explication of it, and Chrift has seem'd in such a Manner to be pointed out as the Subftance of what I was confidering and explaining, that I have been drawn in a Way not only easy and natural, proper and pertinent, but almost unavoidable to discourse of him, either in Regard of his Undertaking, Incarnation, Satisfaction, admirable Fitnels for the Work of Man's Redemption, or the infinite Need that Sinners stand in of an Interest in him ; which has open'd the Way for a continued Strain of Gospel-Invitation to perishing Souls, to come empty and naked, weary and heavy-laden, and cast themselves upon him.

And as I have been remarkably influenced and affifted to dwell upon the Lord Jefus Chrift, and the Way of Salvation by him, in the general Currant of my Difcourfes here, and have been, at 'Times, furprizingly furnifhed with pertinent Matter relating to him and the Defign of his Incarnation: So I have been no-lefs affifted oftentimes in Regard of an advantagious Manner of opening the Myfteries of divine Grace, and reprefenting the infinite Excellencies and unfearchable Riches of Chrift, as well as of recommending him to the Acceptance of perifhing Sinners. I have frequently been enabled to reprefent the divine Glory, the infinite preciouinefs and tranfcendent Lovelinefs of the great Redeemer

Redeemer; the Suitableness of his Person and Purchase to supply the Wants, and answer the utmost Desires of immortal Souls .-- - To' open the infinite Riches of his Grace, and the wonderful Encouragement propos'd in the Gospel to unworthy, helplefs Sinners .- .- To call, invite and befeech them to come and give up themfelves to him, and be reconciled to God thro' him -- To expostulate with them refpecting their neglect of one fo infinitely lovely, and freely offered .-- And this in fuch a Manner, with such Freedom, Pertinency, Pathos and Application to the Confcience, as (I'm fure) I never could have made myfelf Master of by the most assiduous Application of Mind I am capable of. And have frequently at fuch Seafons been furprizingly help'd in adapting my Discourses to the Capacities of my People, and bringing them down into fuch eafy, vulgar and familiar Methods of Expression, as has render'd them intelligible even to Pagans.

I don't mention these Things as a Recommendation of my own Performances; for, I'm fure, I found from time to time, that I had no Skill or Wildom for my great Work; and knew not how to chuse out acceptable Words proper to address poor benighted Pagans with ! But thus God was pleased to help me not to know any Thing among them, save Jesus Christ and him crucified. Thus I was enabled to shew them their Misery and Undonness without him, and to reprefent his compleat Fitnefs to redeem and fave them.

And this was the Preaching God made Ufe of for the awakening of Sinners, and the Propagation of this Work of Grace among the Indians.---And 'twas remarkable, from time to time, that when I was favour'd with any fpecial Freedom, in difcourfing of the Ability and Willingmefs of Chrift to fave Sinners, and the Need they flood in of fuch a Saviour, there was then the greatest Appearance of divine Power in awakening Numbers of fecure Souls, promoting Convictions begun, and comforting the Diffrefs'd.

I have fometimes formerly in reading the Apoftle's Difcourfe to Cornelius (Acts x.) admired to fee him fo quickly introduce the Lord Jefus Chrift into his Sermon, and fo intirely dwell upon him thro' the whole of it, obferving him in this Point very widely to differ from many of our modern Preachers: But latterly this has not feem'd ftrange, fince Chrift has appeared to be the Subftance of the Gofpel, and the Center in which the feveral Lines of divine Revelation meet. Altho' I am ftill fenfible there are many Things neceffary to be fpoken to Perfons under Pagan Darknefs in Order to make Way for a proper Introduction of the Name of Chrift, and his Undertaking in Behalf of fallen Man.

Secondly. 'Tis worthy of Remark, that Numbers of these People are brought to a strict Compliance with the Rules of Morality and Sebriety

Work of GRACE among the Indians. 175

Sobriety, and to a confcientious Performance of the external Duties of Christianity, by the internal Power and Influence of divine Truths (the peculiar Doctrines of Grace) upon their Minds; without their having these moral Duties frequently repeated and inculcated upon them, and the contrary Vices particularly exposed and fpoken against. What has been the general firain and drift of my Preaching among these Indians; what were the Truths I principally infifted upon, and how I was influenced and enabled to dwell from time to time upon the peculiar Doctrines of Grace, I have already obferved in the preceeding Remark. Those Doctrines, which had the most direct Tendency to humble the fallen Creature; to fhew him the Misery of his natural State; to bring him down to the Foot of fourreign Mercy, and to exalt the great Redeemer, discover his tranfcendant Excellency and infinite Precioufnefs, and fo to recommend him to the Sinner's Acceptance, were the Subject-Matter of what was deliver'd in publick and private to them, and from time to time repeated and inculcated upon them.

AndGod was pleafed to give thefe divine Truths fuch a powerful Influence upon the Minds of thefe People, and fo to blefs them for the effectual awakening of Numbers of them, that their Lives were quickly reform'd, without my infifting upon the Precepts of Morality, and fpending Time in repeated Harangues upon external ternal Duties. There was indeed no Room for any Kind of Discoursesbut those that respected the effentials of Religion, and the experimental Knowledge of divine Things, whilst there were fo many enquiring daily, not how they should regulate their external Conduct, (for that, Persons who are honeftly difpos'd to com-ply with Duty, when known, may, in ordinary Cafes, be eafily fatisfied about) but how they should escape from the Wrath they fear'd and felt a Defert of,---obtain an effectual Change of Heart, --- get an Intereft in Chrift, -- and come to the Enjoyment of eternal Bleffednefs.----So that my great Work Itill was to lead them into a further View of their utter undonne(s in themfeives, the total Depravity and Corruption of their Hearts; that there was no Manner of Goodness in them; no good Dispositions nor Defires; no Love to God, nor Delight in his Commands : But on the Contrary, Hatred, Enmity and all Manner of Wickedness reigning in them.—And at the fame Time to open to them the glorious and compleat Remedy provided in Chrift for helplefs perifhing Sin-ners, and offer'd freely to those who have no Goodness of their own, no Works of Righteousnefs which they have done to recommend them to God.

This was the continued Strain of my Preaching! This my great Concern, and conftant Endeavour fo to enlighten the Mind, as thereby duly to affect the Heart, and, as far as poffible ble, give Perfons a Senfe and Feeling of thefe precious and important Doctrines of Grace, at leaft, fo far as Means might conduce to it. And thefe were the Doctrines ---this the Method of Preaching which were bleffed of God for the awakening, and, I truft, the faving Conversion of Numbers of Souls---and which were made the Means of producing a remarkable Reformation among the Hearers in general.

When these Truths were felt at Heart, there was now no Vice unreform'd---no external Duty neglected .---- Drunkennefs; the darling Vice; was broken off from, and scarce an Instant of it known among my Hearers for Months toge-ther. The abusive Practice of Husbands and Wives in putting away each other; and taking others in their Stead, was quickly reform'd; So that there are three or four Couple who have voluntarily difmifs'd those they had wrongfully taken, and now live together again in Love and Peace. The fame might be faid of all other vicious Practices .--- The Reformation was general; and all fpringing from the internal Influence of divine Truths upon their Hearts; and not from any external Reftraints, or becaufe they had heard thefe Vices particularly expos'd; and repeatedly spoken against : For some of them I never fo much as mention'd; particularly that of the parting of Men and their Wives, 'til fome, having their Confcience awaken'd by God's Word, came and, of their own accord, confess'd themfelves guilty in that 7: Respect:

Respect. And when I did 'at any Time mention their wicked Practices, and the Sins they were guilty of contrary to the Light of Nature, 'twasnot with Design, nor indeed with any Hope, of working an effectual Reformation in their external Manners by this Means, for I knew, that while the Tree remain'd corrupt the Fruit would naturally be so; but with design to lead them, by observing the Wickedness of their Lives, to a View of the Corruption of their Hearts, and so to convince them of the Necefsity of a Renovation of Nature, and to excite them with utmost Diligence, to sea a fee a fee that great Change, which, if once obtain'd, I was fensible, would of Course produce a Reformation of external Manners in every Respect.

And as all Vice was reform'd upon their feeling the Power of these Truths upon their Hearts, fo the external Duties of Christianity were complied with, and confcientioufly perform'd from the fame internal Influence; Family-Prayer fet up and conftantly maintain'd, unless among fome few more lately come, who had felt little of this divine Influence .--- This Duty constantly perform'd even in fomeFamilies where there were none but Females, and fcarce a prayerlefs Perfon to be found among near an Hundred of them .---The LORD'S-DAY, ferioufly and religioufly obferv'd, and Care taken by Parents to keep their Children orderly upon that facred Day, &c. And this, not because I had driven them to the Performance of these Duties by a frequent quent inculcating of them, but because they had felt the Power of God's Word upon their Hearts----were made fenfible of their Sin and Mifery, and thence could not but pray, and comply with every Thing they knew was Duty, from what they felt within themfelves. When their Hearts were touch'd with a Senfe of their eternal Concernments, they could pray with great Freedom as well as Fervency, without being at the Trouble first to learn fet Forms for that Purpose. And some of them who were fuddenly awaken'd at their first coming among us, were brought to pray and cry for Mercy with utmost Importunity, without ever being instructed in the Duty of Prayer, or so much as once directed to a Performance of it.

The happy Effects of these peculiar Doctrines of Grace, which I have so much infifted upon with this People, plainly discover, even to Demonstration, that instead of their opening a Door to Licentiousness (as many vainly imagine and flanderously infinuate) they have a direct contrary Tendency: So that a close Application, a Sense and beeling of them, will have the most powerful Influence toward the Renovation and effectual Reformation both of Heart and Life.

And happy Experience, as well as the Word of God and the Example of Chrift and his Apoftles, has taught me that that Method of preaching, which is beft fuited to awaken in Mankind, a Senfe and lively Apprehension of Z 2 their

A View of the bleffed Effect of honeft Endeavours to bring home divine Truths to the Confeience, and duly to affect the Heart with them, has often minded me of those Words of our Lord, (which I have thought might be a proper Exhortation for Ministers in respect of their treating with others, as well as for Perfons in general with Regard to themfelves) Cleanse first the inside of the Casp and Platter, that the outfide may be clean alfo .---- Cleanfe, fays he, the infide, THAT the outfide may be clean. 2. D. The only effectual Way to have the outfide clean, is, to begin with what is within ; and if the Fountain be purified, the Streams will naturally be pure. And most certain it is, if we can awaken in Sinners a lively Senfe of their inward Pollution and Depravity --- their Need of a Change of Heart, and fo engage them them to feek after inward Cleanfing, their *ex*ternal Defilement will naturally be cleanfed; their vicious Ways, of Courfe be reformed, and their Conversation and Behaviour become regular.

Now altho' I can't pretend that the Reformation among my People, does, in every Inftance, fpring from a faving Change of Heart, yet I may truly fay, it flows from fome Heartaffecting View and Senfe of divine Truths that all have had in a greater or leffer Degree.

I don't intend by what I have obferv'd here, to represent the Preaching of Morality, and preffing Perfons to the external Performance, of Duty, to be altogether unneffary and ufelefs at any Time; and especially at Times when there is lefs of divine Power attending the Means of Grace .---- When for want of internal Influences, there is need of external Reftraints. 'Tis doubtless among the Things that ought to be done, while others are not to be left undone. --But what I principally defign'd by this Remark, was to difcover plain Matter of Fast, viz. That the Reformation, the Sobriety and external Compliance with the Rules and Duties of Chriftianity, appearing among my People, are not the Effect of any meer doctrinal Instruction, or meerly rational View of the Beauty of Morality, but from the internal Power and Influence that divine Truths (the Soul-hum-, bling Doctrines of Grace) have had upon their Hearts.

Thirdly

Thirdly, 'Tis remarkable that God has fo continu'd and renew'd the Showers of his Grace here .--- So quickly fet up his visible Kingdom aamong these People; and so fmil'd upon them in Relation to their acquirement of Knowledge, both divine and human. 'Tis now near a Year fince the Beginning of this gracious out-pouring of the divine Spirit among them : And altho' it has often seem'd to decline and abate for some short space of Time, (as may be observed by feveral Paffages of my Journal, where I have endeavour'd to note Things just as they appear'd to me from time to time) yet the Shower has feem'd to be renew'd and the Work of Grace reviv'd again : So that a divine Influence feems still apparently to attend the Means of Grace in a greater or lefs Degree in most of our Meetings for religious Exercifes; whereby religious Perfons are refreshed, ftrengthened and establish-ed...Convictions reviv'd and promoted in many Instances and fome few Perfons newly awakened, from time to time. Altho' it must be acknowledged, that for fome time paft, there has, in the general, appear'd a more manifett decline of this Work, and the divine Spirit has feem'd in a confiderable Measure, withdrawn, especially in Regard of his awakening Influences; fo that the Strangers' who come latterly, are not feiz'd with Concern as formerly; and fome few who have been much affected with divine Truths in time past, now appear less concern'd. Yet (bleffed be God) there is still an Appearance rance of divine Power and Grace, a defirable Degree of Tendernefs, religious Affection and Devotion in our Affemblies.

And as God has continued and renewed the Showers of his Grace among this People for fome Time, fo he has with uncommon quickness fet up his visible Kingdom, and gather'd himself a Church in the midst of them. I have now baptizd, fince the Conclusion of my last Journal, Thirty Perfons, fifteen Adults and fifteen Children. Which added to the Number there mention'd, makes Seventy Seven Perfons ; whereof Thirty eight are Adults, and Thirty nine Children; and all within the Space of eleven Months past.-And it must be noted that I have baptiz'd no Adults, but fuch as appear'd to have a Work of fpecial Grace wrought in their Hearts: I mean fuch who have had the Experience not only of the awakening and humbling, but (in a Judgment of Charity) of the renewing and comforting Influences of the divine Spirit. Altho' there are many others under folemn Concern for their Souls, who (I apprehend) are Perfons of fufficient Knowledge, and vifible Serioufnefs, at present, to render them proper Subjects of the Ordinance of Baptism. Yet fince they give no comfortable Evidences of having as yet pass'd a faving Change, but only appear under Convictions of their Sin and Mifery, and having no Principle of spiritual Life wrought in them, are liable to loofe the Impreffions of Religion they are now under : And confidering confidering the great Propenfity there is in this People naturally to abufe themfelves with firing Drink, and fearing leaft tome; who at prefent appear, ferious and concern'd for their Souls, might loofe their Concern and return to this Sin, and fo (if baptiz'd) prove a feandal to their Profeffion, I have thought proper hitherto to omit the Baptism of any but fuch who give fome hopeful Evidences of a faving Change, altho' I don't pretend to determine positively refpecting the States of any. I likewife administred the Lord's Supper to a

I likewife administred the Lord's Supper to a Number of Perfons, who I have abundant Reaion to think (as I elfewhere obferv'd) were proper Subjects of that Ordinance, within the Space of ten Months and ten Days, after my first coming among these Indians in New-Jersey. And from the Time that I ain inform'd, fome of them were attending an idolatrous Feast and Sacrafice in Honour to Devils, to the Time they fat down at the Lord's Table (I truft) to the Honour of God, was not more than a full Tear. Surely Christ's little Flock here; fo iuddenly gather'd from among Pagans, may justly fay, in the Language of the Church of old, The Lord hath done great Things for us, whereof we are glad.

Much of the Goodnels of God has also appear'd in Relation to their acquirement of Knowledge, both in Religion and in the Affairs of common Life. There has been a wonderful Thirst after Christian Knowledge prevailing among mong them in General, and an eager Defire of being inftructed in Chriftian Doctrines and Manners. This has prompted them to ask many pertinent as well as important Queffions; the Anfwers to which have tended much to enlighten their Minds, and promote their Knowledge in divine Things. Many of the Doctrines I have delivered, they have queried with me about; in Order to gain further Light and Infight into them; particularly the Doctrine of Predeflination. And have from time to time manifefted a good Underftanding of them, by their Anfwers to the Queffions propos'd to them in my catechetical Lettures.

They have likewife queried with me, refpecting a proper Method as well as proper Matter of Prayer, and Expressions fuitable to be made Use of in that religious Exercise; and have taken Pains in order to the Performance of this Duty with Understanding.

They have likewife taken Pains, and appear'd remarkably apt in learning to fing P_{falm} -Tunes, and are now able to fing with a good Degree of Decency in the Worfhip of God.

They have also acquir'd a confiderable Degree of ufeful Knowledge in the Affairs of common Life: So that they now appear like rational Creatures; fit for human Society, free of that favage Roughness and brutish Stupidity, which render'd them very disagreeable in their Pagan State.

Aa

They feem Ambitious of a thorough Acquaintance with the Englifb Language, and for that End frequently ipeak it among themfelves; and many of them have made good Proficiency in their Acquirement of it, fince my coming among them; fo that most of them can underftand a confiderable Part, and fome the Subftance of my Discourses, without an Interpreter, (being used to my low and vulgar Methods of Expression) tho' they could not well understand other Ministers.

And as they are defirous of Inftruction, and furprizingly apt in the Reception of it, fo divine Providence has finil'd upon them in Regard of proper Means in Order to it.----The Attempts made for the Procurement of a School among them have been fucceeded, and a kind Providence has fent them a School-master, of whom I may justly fay, I know of no Man like minded, who will naturally care for their State.

He has generally Thirty or Thirty-five Children in his School: And when he kept an Evening School (as he did while the length of the Evenings would admit of it) he had Fifteen or Twenty People, married and fingle.

The Children learn with furprizing Readinefs; fo that their Master tells me, he never had an English School that learn'd, in general, comparably fo faft. There were not above two in Thirty, altho' fome of them were very fmall, but what learn'd to know all the Letters in the Alphabet diffinctly, within three Days after his Entrance

Entrance upon his Bufinefs; and divers in that fpace of Time learn'd to fpell confiderably: And fome of them, fince the Beginning of February laft (at which Time the School was fet up) have learn'd fo much, that they are able to read in a Pfalter or Teftament without fpelling.

They are inftructed twice a Week in the Reverend Affembly's florter Catechifm, viz. on Wednefday and Saturday. And fome of them, fince the latter End of February, (at which Time they began) have learn'd to fay it pretty diftinctly by Heart confiderably more than half thro's and most of them have made fome' Proficiency in it.

They are likewile inftructed in the Duty of fecret Prayer, and most of them constantly attend it Night and Morning, and are very careful to inform their Master if they apprehend any of their little School-Mates neglect that religious Exercise.

Fourthly, 'Tis worthy to be noted (to the Praife of Sovereign Grace) that amidft fo great a Work of Conviction,---fo much Concern and religious Affection, there has been no Prevalency, nor indeed any confiderable Appearance of falfs Religion, (if I may fo term it) or Heats of Imagination, intemperate Zeal, and fpiritual Pride; which corrupt Mixtures too often attend the Revival and powerful Propagation of Religion; and that there have been fo very few Inflances of irregular and fcandalous Behaviour among A a 2. those those who have appear'd ferious.----I may juffly repeat what I observ'd in a Remark at the Conclusion of my last Journal, viz. That there has here been no Appearance of bodily Agonies, Convulsions, frightful Screamings, Swoonings, and the like : And may now further add, that there has been no Prevalency of Visions, Trances and Imaginations' of any kind; altho' there has been fome Appearance of fomething of that Nature fince the Conclusion of that Journal: An Infrance of which I have given an Account of in my Journal of December 26th.

But this Work of Grace has, in the main, been carried on with a furprizing Degree of Purity, and freedom from trafb and corrupt Mixture. The religious Concern that Perfons have been under, has generally been rational and inft; arifing from a Scafe of their Sins, and exposed-ness to the divine Displeasure on the Account of them; as well as their utter Inability to deliver themfelves from - the Mifery they felt and feared. And if there has been in any Inflances an Appearance of irrational Concern and Perturbation of Mind, when the Subjects of it knew not why, yet there has been no Prevalency of any fuch Thing ; and indeed I fearce know of any Inftance of that Nature at all .----And 'tis very remarkable, that altho' the Concern of many Perfons under Convictions of their perifhing State has been very great and preffing, yet I have never feen any Thing like Deperation attending it in any one Inflance. They

1. They have had the most lively Senfe of their undonnefs in themfelves; have been brought to give up all Hopes of Deliverance from them-telves; and their fpiritual Exercises leading hereto, have been attended with great Distress and Anguish of Soul: And yet in the Seasons of the greatest Extremity, there has been no Appearance of Deforie in correct of them Appearance of Despair in any of them ---- nothing that has difcouraged, or in any wife hinder'd them from the most diligent Use of all proper Means for their Conversion and Salvation; whence 'tis apparent, there is not that Danger of Persons being driven into Despair under spiritual Trouble (unless in Cases of deep and habitual melancholly) that the World in general is ready to imagine.

The Cumfort that Perfons have obtain'd after their Diftreffes, has likewife in general appear'd folid, well grounded and fcriptural; arifing from a spiritual and *supernatural Illu-*mination of Mind,----a View of divine Things (in a Measure) as they are,----a complacency of Soul in the divine Perfections,----and a peculiar Satisfaction, in the Way of Salvation, by free sovereign Grace in the great Redeemer.

Their Joys have feem'd to rife from a variety of Views and Confiderations of divine Things, altho' for Substance the fame. Some, who under Conviction seem'd to have the hardest Struggels and Heart-rifings against divine Sovereignty, have feem'd, at the first Dawn of their Comfort, to rejoyce in a peculiar Manner in that that divine Perfection----have been delighted to think that themfelves, and all Things elfe were in the Hand of God, and that he would difpose of them just as he pleased.

Others, who just before their Reception of Comfort, have been remarkably opprefs'd with a Senfe of their undonness and poverty, who have feen themselves, as it were, falling down into remediless Perdition, have been at first more peculiarly delighted with a View of the Freeness and Riches of divine Grace, and the Offer of Salvation made to perishing Sinners without Money and without Price.

Some have at first appear'd to rejoyce especially in the Wisdom of God, discover'd 'in the Way of Salvation by Christ; it then appearing to them a new and living Way, a Way they had never thought, nor had any just Conception of, until open'd to them by the special Influence of the divine Spirit. And some of them upon a lively spiritual View of this Way of Salvation, have wonder'd at their past Folly in seking Salvation other Ways, and have admired that they never faw this Way of Salvation before, which now appear'd so plain and easy, as well as excellent to them.

Others again have had a more general View of the Beauty and Excellency of Chrift, and have had their Souls delighted with an Apprehension of his divine Glory, as unspeakably exceeding all they had ever conceived of before: Yet without fingling out (as it were) any any one of the divine Perfections in particular. fo that altho' their Comforts have feem'd to arife from a variety of Views and Confiderations of divine Glories, ftill they were fpiritual and fupernatural Views of them, and not groundlefs Fancies, that were the fpring of their Joys and Comforts.

Yet it must be acknowledged, that when this Work became fo univerfal and prevalent, and gain'd fuch general Credit and Efteem among the Indians, that Satan feem'd to have little Advantage of working against it in his own proper Garb; he then transformed himself into an Angel of Light, and made fome vigorous Attempts to introduce turbulent Commotions of the Paffions in the Room of genuine Convictions of Sin, imaginary and fanciful Notions of Chrift, as appearing to the mental Eye in a human Shape, and being in fome particular Postures, &c. in the Room of spiritual and supernatural Discoveries of his divine Glory and Excellency, as well as divers other Delusions. And I have Reason to think, that if thefe Things had met with Countenance and Encouragement, there would have been a very confiderable Harvest of this Kind of Con-verts here. Spiritual Pride also discovered itfelf in various Inftances. Some Perfons who had been under great Affections, feem'd very defirous from thence of being thought truly gracious; who, when I could not but express to them my Fears respecting their spiritual States, discovered their Refentments to a confiderable Degree upon that Occasion. There also appear'd in one or troo of them an unbecoming Ambition of being Teachers of others. So that Satan has been a bufy Adversary here as well as elfewhere. But (bleffed be God) tho' fomething of this Nature has appear'd, yet nothing of it has prevaikd, nor indeed made any confiderable Progrefs at all. My People are now appris'd of these Things, are acquainted that Satan in fuch a Manner transformed himself into an Angel of Light in the first Season of the great out-pouring of the divine Spirit in the Days of the Apoftles, and that fomething of this Nature, in a greater or leffer Degree, has attended almost every Revival and remarkable Propagation of true Religion ever fince. And they have learn'd fo 'to' diftinguish between the Gold and Drofs, that the Credit of the latter is trod down like the Mire of the Streets: And it being natural for this Kind of Stuff to die with its Credit, there is now fearce any Appearance of it among them.

And as there has been no Prevalency of irregular Heats, immaginary Notions, fpiritual Pride, and fatanical Delufions among my People, fo there has been a very few Inftances of fcandalous and irregular Behaviour among thofe who have made a Profession, or even an Appearance of Serioufnefs. I don't know of more than three or four such Perfons that have been guilty'of any open Mifconduct, fince their firft first Acquaintance with Christianity, and not one that perfists in any Thing of that Nature. And perhaps the remarkable Purity of this Work in the latter Respect, its freedom from frequent Instances of Scandal, is very much owing to its Purity in the former Respect, its freedom from corrupt Mixtures of Spiritual Pride, Wild-Fire and Delusion, which naturally lay a Foundation for fcandalous Practices.

May this bleffed Work in the Power and Purity of it prevail among the poor Indians here, as well as fpread elfewhere, till their remotest Tribes shall fee the Salvation of God. AMEN.

APPENDIX to the Journal.

T SHOULD have concluded what I had, at prefent, to offer upon the Affairs refpecting my Miffion, with the preceeding Account of the Money collected and expended for the religious Interests of the Indians, but that I have not long fince received from the Reverend President of the Correspondents, the Copy of a Letter directed to him from the Honourable Society for propagating Christian Knowledge, dated at Edinburg, March 21. 1745. Wherein I find 'tis expresly enjoyn'd upon their Miffionaries, That they give an exact Account of the Methods they make Use of for instructing themselves in the Indians Language, and what Progress they have already made in it. What Methods they are now taking to infiruct the Indians in the Principles of our holy Religion. And PARTICULARIY, that they set forth in their Journals, what Dif-ficulties they have already met with, and the M. theds they make Use of for surmounting the (ame

As to the two former of these Particulars, I truft that what I have already noted in my Journals from time to time, might have been in a good Measure Satisfactory to the Honer rable Society, had these journals arrived fafely and feafonably, which I am fensible they have not Appendix to the Journal. 197 not in general done, by Reafon of their falling into the Hands of the Enemy, altho' I have been at the Pains of fending two Copies of every Journal, for more than two Years paft, leaft one might miscarry in the Paffage. But with Relation to the latter of these Particulars, I have purposely omitted faying any Thing confiderable, and that for these two Reasons. First, because I could not oftentimes give any tollerable Account of the Difficulties I met with in my Work, without speaking somewhat particularly of the Caufes of them, and the Circumstances conducing to them, which would neceffarily have render'd my Journas very lengthy and tedious. Befides fome of theCaufes of my Difficulties I thought more fit to be conceal'd than divulg'd .---- And Secondly, Becaufe I thought, a frequent mentioning of the Difficulties attending my Work, might appear as an unbecoming Complaint under my Burdens; or as if I would rather be thought to be en-dow'd with a fingular Measure of Self-denial, Conftancy and holy Refolution to meet and confront fo many Difficulties, and yet to hold on and go forward amidft them all. But fince the Honourable Society are pleas'd to require a more exact and particular Account of these Things, I shall chearfully endeavour fomething for their Satisfaction in Relation to cach of these Particulars : Altho' in Regard of the latter, I am r ady to fay, Infandum---jubes renovare Dolorim.

198 Of learning the Indian Languages,

The most fuccessful Method I have taken for inftructing myfelf in any of the Indian Languages, is, to tranflate English Difcourfes by the Help of an Interpreter or two, into their Language, as near verbatim as the Senfe will admit of, and to obferve firicity how they use Words, and what Conftruction they will bear in various Cafes ; and thus to gain fome Acquaintance with the Root from whence particular Words proceed, and to fee how they are thence varied and diversified. But here occurs a very great Difficulty; for the Interpre-ters being unlearn'd and unacquainted with the Rules of Language, 'tis impossible fome-times to know by them what Part of Speech fome particular Words is of, whether Noun, Verb, or Participle, for they feem to use Par-ticiples fometimes where we should use Nouns, and fometimes where we should use Verbs in the English Language. But I have, notwithftanding many Difficultics, gain'd fome Acquaintance with the Grounds of the Delaware Language, and have learn'd most of the Defects in it; fo that I know what English Words can, and what cannot be translated into it. I have also gain'd fome Acquaintance with the particular Phrafiologies, as well as Peculiarities of their Language, one of which I can't but mention. Their Language don't admit of their fpeaking any Word denoting Relation, fuch as Father, Son, &c. abfolutely; that is, without prefixing a Pronoun-paffive to it, fuch as my, thy thy, his, &c. Hence they can't be baptiz'd in their own Language in the Name of THE Father, and THE Son, &c. But they may be baptiz'd in the Name of Jefus Chrift and HIS Father, &c. I have gain'd fo much Knowledge of their Language, that I can underftand a confiderable Part of what they fay, when they difcourfe upon divine Things, and am frequently able to correct my Interpreter, if he miftakes my Senfe. But I can do nothing to any Purpofe at fpeaking the Language myfelf.

Of learning the Indian Language.

And as an Apology for this Defect, I must renew, or rather enlarge, my former Complaint, viz. That while so much of my Time is necessa-rily confum'd in Journeying, while I am oblig'd to ride four Thousand Mile a Year (as I have done in the Year past) I can have little left for any of my necessary Studies, and consequently for the Study of the Indian Languages. And this I may venture to fay, is the great, if not the only Reafon why the Delaware Language is not familiar to me before this Time. And 'tis impoffible I fhould ever be able to fpeak it without clofe Application, which (at prefent) I fee no Prospect of having Time for. To preach and catechize frequently, to converfe privately with Perfons that need fo much Inftruction and Direction as these poor Indians do, to take Care of all their fecular Affairs as if they were a Company of Children, to ride a-broad frequently in Order to procure Collections for the Support of the School, and for their Help

200 Of learning the Indian Languages.

Help and Benefit in other Respects, to hear and decide all the petty Differences that arife among any of them, and to have the conftant Over Sight and Management of all their Affairs of every Kind, must needs ingross most of my Time and leave me little for Application to the Study of the Indian Languages. And when I add to this, the Time that is neceffa-rily confum'd upon my Journals, I must fay I have little to spare for other Business. I have not (as was observed before) fent to the Honourable Society lefs than two Copies of every Journal, for more than two Years past, most of which I suppose have been taken by the French in their Paffage. And a third Copy I have conftantly kept by me, left the others should miscarry; which has caused me not a little Labour, and fo ftraitned me for time, when I've been at Liberty from other Businets and had Opportunity to fit down to writing (which is but rare) I have been obliged to write twelve and thirteen Hours in a Day, till my Spirits have been extremely wafted, and my Life almost spent to get these Writings accomplish'd. And after all; after diligent Application to the various Parts of my Work, and after the most industrious Improvement of Time I am capable of, both early and late, I can't oftentimes possibly gain two Hours in a Week for Reading, or any other Studies, un-lefs just for what urges and appears of abfolute Neceffity for the present. And frequently when

Methods of instructing the Indians. 201

when I attempt to redeem Time by fparing it out of my fleeping Hours, I am by that Means thrown under bodily Indifposition, and render'd fit for nothing.

This is truly my prefent State, and is like to be fo, for aught I can fee, unlefs I could procure an Affiftant in my Work, or quit my prefent Busines.

But altho' I have not made that Proficiency I could wish to have done, in learning the In*cian* Languages, yet I have us'd all Endeavours to inftruct them in the Englifb Tongue, which perhaps will be more advantagious to the *Chrif*tian Interest among them, than if I should preach in their own Language; for that is very defective, (as I shall hereafter obferve) fo that many Things can't be communicated to them without introducing English Terms. Befides they can have no Books tranflated into their Language without great Difficulty and Expence, and if ftill accustomed to their own Language only, they would have no Advantage of hearing other Ministers occasionally, or in my Abfence. So that my having a perfect Acquaintance with the Indian Language, would be of no great Importance with Regard to this Congregation of Indians in New-Jerfey, altho' it might be of great Service to me in treating with the Indians elfewhere.

The Methods I am taking to instruct the Indians in the Pinciples of our holy Religion, are, to C c preach preach, or open and improve fome particular Points of Doctrine; to expound particular Paragraphs, or fometimes whole Chapters of God's Word to them: To give biflorical Relations from Scripture of the most material and remarkable Occurrences relating to the Church of God from the Beginning; and frequently to cate-chize them upon the Principles of Christianity. The latter of these Methods of instructing, I manage in a twofold Manner. I fometimes catechize Systematically, proposing Questions agreeable to the Reverend Affembly's Shorter Catechism. This I have carried on to a confiderable length. At other Times I catechize upon any important Subject that I think Difficult to them. Sometimes when I have difcours'd upon fome particular Point, and made it as plain and familiar to them as I can, I then Catechize them upon the most material Branches of my Difcourfe, to fee whether they had a thorough Understanding of it. But as I have catechiz'd chiefly in a Systematical Form, I shall here give some Specimen of the Method I make Use of in it, as well as of the Propri-ety and Justness of my People's Answers to the Questions propos'd to them.

Q. And will this Happiness last forever?

Anf. Tes, forever forever !

These Questions, like the former, were anfwered without Hesitation or Missing, as I remember, in any one Instance.

Questions upon the Duty which God requires of Man.

2. Has God let us know any Thing of his Will, or what he would have us do to pleafe him? Anf. Tes.

2. And does he require us to do his Will, and to pleafe him ? Anf. Tes.
2. Is it right that God fhould require this

2. Is it right that God fhould require this of us, has he any Bufinefs to command us as a Father does his Children? Anf. Tes.

2 Why is it right that God fhould command us to do what he pleafes?

Anf. Becaufe he made us, and gives us all our good Things. Q. Does

Methods of instructing the Indians.

2. Does God require us to do any Thing that will hurt us, and take away our Comfort and Happiness? Anf. No.

2. But God requires Sinners to repent and be forry for their Sins, and to have their Hearts broken: Now don't this hurt them and take away their Comfort to be made forry and to have their Hearts broken?

Anf. No, it does them good.

2. Did God teach Man his Will at first by writing it down in a Book, or did he put it into his Heart, and teach him without a Book what was right? Anf. He put it into his Heart and made him know what he should do.

2: Has God fince that Time writ down his Will in a Book ? Anf. Tes.

2. Has God written his whole Will in his Book; has he there told us all that he would have us believe and do? Anf. Tes.

2. What need was there of this Book, if God at first put his Will into the Heart of Man and made him feel what he should do?

Anf. There was need of it, because we have funned and made our Hearts blind.

2. And has God writ down the fame Things in his Book, that he at first put into the Heart of Man? Anf. Tes.

In this Manner I endeavour to adapt my Inftructions to the Capacities of my People; altho' they may perhaps feem ftrange to others who have never experienced the Difficulty of the Work. And these I have given an Account of

are

are the Methods I am from time to time purfuing, in order to inftruct them in the Principles of Christianity. And I think I may fay, 'tis my great Concern that these Instructions be given them in fuch a Manner, that they may not only be doctrinally taught, but duly affected thereby, that divine Truths may come to them not in Word only, but in Power and in the Holy Ghost, and be receiv'd not as the Word of Man.

Difficulties attending the Christianizing of the Indians

I fhall now attempt fomething with Relation to the last Particular requir'd by the Honourable Society in their Letter, viz. To give fome Account of the Difficulties I have already met with in my Work, and the M.thods I make use of for furmounting the same. And what I have to fay upon this Subject, I shall reduce to the following Heads.

First, I have met with great Difficulty in my Work among these Indians, from the rooted Aversion to Christianity that generally prevails among them. They are not only brutishly stupid and ignorant of divine Things, but many of them are obstinately set against Christianity, and seem to abhor even the Christian Name.

This Aversion to Christianity arises partly from a View of the Immorality and vicious Behaviour of many who are call'd Christians. They observe that horrid Wickedness in nominalChristians tians, which the Light of Nature condemns in themfelves: And not having diftinguishing Views of Things, are ready to look upon all the white People alike, and to condemn them alike for the abominable Practices of some .--Hence when I've attempted to treat with them about Christianity, they have frequently objected the fcandalous Practices of Christians, and caft in my Teeth all they could think of that was odious in the Conduct of any of them. Have obferv'd to me, that the white People lie, defraud, steal and drink worse than the Indians; that they have taught the Indians these Things, especially the latter of them; who before the coming of the English, knew of no fuch Thing as ftrong Drink: That the English have by these Means, made them quarrel and kill one another, and in a Word, brought 'em to the Practice of all those Vices that now prevail among them. So that they are now vaftly more vicious, as well as much more miserable, than they were before the coming of the white People into the Country.

These, and fuch likeObjections, they frequently make against Christianity, which are not cafily answered to their Satisfaction; many of them being Fatts too notoriously true.

The only way I have to take in Order to furmount this Difficulty, is, to diffinguish between nominal and real Christians, and to shew them, that the ill Conduct of many of the former proceed not from their being Christians, but from D d their their being Christians only in Name, not in Heart, &c. To which it has fometimes been objected, that if all those who will cheat the Indians, are Christians only in Name, there are but few left in the Country to be Chriftians in Heart. This and many other of the Remarks they pass upon the white People, and their Miscarriages, I am forced to own, and can't but grant, that many nominal Christians are more abominably wicked than the Indians. But then I attempt to flow them that there are some who feel the Power of Christianity, that are not fo. And I ask them when they ever faw meguilty of the Vices they complain of, and charge Christians in general with. But still the great Difficulty is, that the People who live back in the Country nearest to them, and the Traders that go among them, are generally of the most irreligious and vicious fort, and the Conduct of one or two Perfons, be it never fo exemplary, is not fufficient to counterballance the vicious Behaviour of fo many of the fame Denomination, and fo to recommend Christianity to Pagans.

Another Thing that ferves to make them more averfe to Christianity, is a Fear of being enfaved. They are, perhaps, fome of the most jealous People living, and extremely averfe to a State of Servitude, and hence are always afraid of fome Defign forming against them. Befildes they feem to have no Sentiments of Generofity, Benevolence and Goodness: That if any any Thing be propos'd to them, as being for their Good, they are ready rather to fulpect that there is at Bottom fome Defign forming against them, then that fuch Proposals flow from Good-will to them, and a Defire of their Wellfare: And hence, when I've attempted to recommend Christianity to their Acceptance, they have fometimes objected, that the white People have come among them, have cheated them out of their Lands, driven them back to the Mountains, from the pleafant Places they us'd to enjoy by the Sea Side, &c. That therefore they have no Reafon to think the white People are now feeking their Wellfare; but rather that they have fent me out to draw them together under a pretence of Kindnefs to them, that they may have an Opportunity to make Slaves of them as they do of the poor Negroes, or elfe to ship them on Board their Vessels, and make them fight with their Enemies, &c. Thus they have oftentimes confirued all the Kindnefs I could shew them, and the Hardfhips I have endur'd in Order to treat with them about Christianity. ' He never would (fay they) ' take all this Pains to do us Good, he mult ' have some wicked Design to burt us some way ' or other.' And to give them Affurance of the Contrary, is not an eafy Matter, while there are fo many, who (agreeable to their Apprehension) are only feeking their own, not the Good of others.

211

To remove this Difficulty I inform them, that I am not fent out among them by those Perfons in these Provinces, who, they suppose, have cheated them out of their Lands, but by pious People at a great Distance, who never had an Inch of their Lands, nor ever thought of doing them any Hurt, &c.

But here will arife fo many frivolous and impertinent Queffions, that 'twould tire one's Patience, and wear out one's Spirits to hear them; fuch as that ' But why did not thefe good ' People fend you to teach us before, while we ' had our Lands down by the Sea Side, &c. ' If they had fent you then, we fhould likely have ' heard you and turn'd Christians.' The poor Creatures still imagining that I should be much beholding to them in Cafe they would hearken to Christianity, and infinuating that this was a Favour they could not now be to good as to shew me, sheeing they had received for many Injuries from the white People.'

Another Spring of Averfion to Christianity in the Indians, is, their firong Attachment to their own religious Notions, (if they may be call'd religious) and the early Prejudices they have imbib'd in Favour of their own frantick and ridiculous Kind of Worship. What their Notions of God are, in their Pagan State, is hard precifely to determine. I have taken much Pains to enquire of my Christian People whether they, before their Acquaintance with Christianity, imagined there was a Plurality of great invisible Powers, or whether they sup-pos'd but one such Being, and worshipped him in a variety of Forms and Shapes. But can't learn any Thing of them so distinct as to be fully fatisfying upon the Point. Their Notions in that State were so prodigiously dark and confus'd, that they feem'd not to know what they thought themfelves. But fo far as I can learn, they had a Notion of a Plu-rality of invifible Deities, and paid fome kind of Homage to them promiteuouily, under a great variety of Forms and Shapes. And 'tis certain, those who yet remain Pagans pay fome Kind of superstitious Reverence to Beasts, Birds, Fishes, and even Reptiles; that is, some to one Kind of Animal and fome to another. They don't indeed fuppose a divine Power ef-fential to, or inhering in these Creatures, but that fome invifible Beings (I can't learn that 'tis al-ways one fuch Being only, but divers; not dif-tinguish'd from each other by certain Names, but only notionally) communicate to these A-nimals a GREAT POWER, either one or other of them, (just as it happens) or perhaps fometimes all of them, and to make these Creatures the immediate Authors of Good to certain Perfons. Whence fuch a Creature becomes (acred to the Perfons to whom he is fuppos'd to be the immediate Author of Good, and thro' him they must Worship the invisible Powers, tho' to others he is no more than another Creature. And perhaps another Animal is look'd upon upon to be the immediate Author of Good to another, and confequently he muft worship the invisible Powers in that Animal. And I have known a Pagan burn fine Tobacco for Incense, in Order to appease the Anger of that invisible Power which he supposed presided over Rattle-Snakes, because one of these Animals was killed by another Indian near his House.

But after the firicteft Enquiry respecting their Notions of the Deity, I find, that in ancient Times, before the coming of the white People, fome fuppos'd there were four invisible Powers who prefided over the four Corners of the Earth. Others imagin'd the Sun to be the only Deity, and that all Things were made by him: Others at the fame Time having a confus'd Notion of a certain Body or Fountain of DEITY, fomewhat like the Anima Mundi, fo frequently mentioned by the more learned ancient Heathens, diffusing itself to various Animals, and even to inanimate Things, making them the immediate Authors of Good to certain Perfons, as 'was before obferv'd, with Respect to various fuppos'd Deities. But after the com-ing of the white People, they feem'd to fuppose there were three Deities, and three only, because they faw People of three different Kinds of Complection, viz. English, Negroes and themselves.

'Tis a Notion pretty generally prevailing among them, that 'twas not the fame God made them who made us; but that they were made after after the white People, which further fhews, that they imagine a Plurality of divine Powers. And I fancy they fuppofe their God gain'd fome special Skill by seeing the white People made, and fo made them better: For 'tis certain they look upon themfelves and their Methods of living (which, they fay, their God exprefly prefcrib'd for them) vaftly preferable to the white People, and their Methods. And hence will frequently fit and laugh at them, as being good for Nothing elfe but to plow and fatigue themfelves wth hard Labour; while they enjoy the Satisfaction of stretching themfelves on the Ground, and fleeping as much as they pleafe, and have no other Trouble but now and then to chase the Deer, which is often attended with Pleafure rather than Pain. Hence, by the way, many of them look upon it as difgraceful for them to become Christians, as 'twould be efteem'd among Christians for any to become Pagans. And now altho' they suppose our Religion will do well enough for us, becaufe prescrib'd by our God, yet 'tis no ways proper for them, because not of the fame Make and Original. This they have fometimes of-fer'd as a Reafon why they did not incline to hearken to Christianity.

They feem to have fome confus'd Notion about a future State of Existence, and many of them imagine that the Chichung (i. e. The Shaddow) or what furvives the Body, will at Death go Southward, and in an unknown but but curious Place, will enjoy fome kind of Happinels, fuch as Hunting, Feafting, Dancing and the like. And what they fuppofe will contribute much to their Happinels in that State is, that they fhall never be weary of those Entertainments. It seems by this Notion of their going Southward to obtain Happinels, as if they had their Course into these Parts of the World from some very cold Climate, and found the further they went Southward the more comfortable they were; and thence concluded, that perfect Felicity was to be found further towards the fame Point.

They feem to have fome faint and glimering Notion about Rewards and Punifoments, or at leaft Happinefs and Mifery in a future State, that is, fome that I-have convers'd with, tho' others feem to know of no fuch Thing. Thofe that fuppofe this, feem to imagine, that moft will be happy, and that thofe who are not fo, will be punifhed only with Privation, being only excluded the Walls of that good World where happy Souls fhall dwell.

These Rewards and Punishments they fuppose to depend intirely upon their Conduct with Relation to the Duties of the second Table, i. e. their Behaviour towards Mankind, and seem, so far as I can see, not to imagine that they have any Reference to their religious Notions or Practices, or any Thing that relates to the Worship of God. I remember I once confulted a very ancient, but intelligent Indian upon this this Point for my own Satisfaction ; ask'd him whether the Indians of old Times had suppos'd there was any Thing of the Man that would furvive the Body? He reply'd, Tes. I ask'd him, where they fuppos'd its abode would be? He reply'd, 'twould go Southward. I ask'd him further, whether it would be happy there? He answered, after a confiderable Pause, that the Souls of good Folks would be happy, and the Souls of bad Folks miserable. I then ask'd him, who he call'd bad Folks? His answer (as I remember) was, those who lie, steal, quarrel with their Neighbours, are unkind to their Friends, and especially to aged Parents, and in a Word, such as are a Plague to Mankind. These were his bad Folks; but not a Word was faid about their neglect of divine Worship, and their Badness in that Respect.

They have indeed fome Kind of religious Worship, are frequently offering Sacrifices to fome fuppos'd invifible Powers, and are very ready to impute their Calamities in the present World, to the neglect of these Sacrifices, but there is no Appearance. of Reverence and Devotion in the Homage they pay them; and what they do of this Nature, feems to be done only to appeale the fuppos'd Anger of their Deities, to engage them to be placable to themfelves, and do them no Hurt, or at most, only to invite these Powers to fucceed them in those Enterprises they are engag'd in respecting the present Life. So that in of-F. e fering fering these Sacrifices, they feem to have no Reference to a futureState, but only to present Comfort. And this is the Account my Interpreter always gives me of this Matter. 'They Sacrifice (fays he) that they may have Suc-' cefs in Hunting and other Affairs, and that ' Sickness and other Calamities, may not befal ' them, which they fear in the prefent World, ' in Cafe of Neglect; but they don't suppose God will ever punish them in the coming ' World for neglecting to Sacrifice, &c.' And indeed they feem to imagine, that those whom they call bad Folks, are excluded from the Company of Good People in that State, not fo much becaufe God remembers, and is determin-ed to punish them for their Sins of any Kind, either immediately against himself or their Neighbour, as because they would be a Plague to Society, and would render others unhappy if admitted to dwell with them. So that they are excluded rather of Neceffity than by God acting as a righteous Judge.

They give much heed to Dreams, becaufe they fuppofe thefe invifible Powers give them Directions at fuch Times about certain Affairs, and fometime informs them what Anumal they would chufe to be Worshipped in. They are likewife much attach'd to the Traditions and fabulous Notions of their Fathers, who have inform'd them of divers Miracles that were anciently wrought among the Indians, which they firmly believe, and thence look upon their their Ancesters to have been the best of Men. They also mention fome wonderful Things which, they fay, have happen'd fince the Memory of fome who are now living. One I remember affirm'd to me, that himfelf had once been dead four Days, that most of his Friends in that Time were gather'd together to his Funeral, and that he should have been buried, but that fome of his Relations at a great Diftance, who were fent for upon that Occafion, were not arriv'd, before whole coming he came to Life again. In this Time, he fays, he went, to the Place where the Sun rifes (imagining the Earth to be plain) and directly over that Place, at a great Height in the Air, he was admitted, he fays, into a great House, which he fuppofes was feveral Miles in length, and faw many wonderful Things, too tedious as well as ridiculous to mention. Another Person, a Woman, whom I have not feen, but been credibly inform'd of by the Indians, declares, that fhe was dead feveral Days, that her Soul went Southward, and feafted and danced with the happy Spirits, and that fhe found all Things exactly agreeable to the Indian Notions of a future State.

These superstitious Notions and Traditions, and this kind of ridiculous Worship I have mentioned, they are extremly attach'd to, and the prejudice they have imbib'd in Favour of thefe Things, renders them not a little averse to the Doctrines of Christianity. Whence sonie of Ee 2 them them have told me, when I've endeavour'd to inftruct them, that their Fathers had taught them already, and that they did not want to learn now.

'Twill be too tedious to give any confiderable Account of the Methods I make use of for furmounting this Difficulty. I will just fay, I endeavour as much as possible to shew them the Inconfistency of their own Notions, and fo to confound them out of their own Mouths. But I must also fay, I have fometimes been almost nonplus'd with them, and scarce knew what to answer them. But never have been more perplex'd with them than when they have pretended to yield to me as knowing more than they, and contequently have ask'd me Numbers of impertinent, and yet difficult Queslions, as how the Indians came first into this Part of the World, away from all the white People, if what I faid was true, viz. that the same God made them, who made us? How the Indians became black, if they had the (ame original Parents with the white People? And Numbers more of the like Nature.

These Things, I must fay, have been not a little difficult and difcouraging, especially when withal, some of the Indians have appear'd angry and malicious against Christianity.

What further contributes to their Averfion to Chriftianity, is, the Influence that their Powwows (Conjurers or Diviners) have upon them. Thefe are a fort of Perfons who are fuppos'd to have a Power of for telling future Events, of recovering the Sick, at least oftentimes, and of charming, inchanting, or poyloning Persons to Death by their magick Divinations. And their Spirit, in its various Operations, feems to be a *fa-*tanical Imitation of the Spirit of Prophecy that the Church in early Ages was favour'd with. Some of these Diviners are endow'd with this Spirit in Infancy .--- Others in adult Age .----It feems not to depend upon their own Will, nor to be acquir'd by any Endeavours of the Perfon who is the Subject of it, altho' 'tis fuppos'd to be given to Children fometimes in Confequence of some Means the Parents use with them for that Purpose : One of which is to make the Child fwallow a fmall living Frog, after having perform'd fome fuperfitious Rites and Ceremonies upon it. They are not under the Influence of this Spirit always alike----but it comes upon them at Times. And those who are endow'd with it, are accounted fingularly favour'd.

I have labour'd to gain fome Acquaintance with this Affair of their Conjuration, and have for that End confulted and queried with the Man mentioned in my Journal of May oth. who, fince his Conversion to Christianity, has endeavour'd to give me the best Intelligence he could of this Matter. But it feems to be fuch a Mystery of Iniquity, that I can't well understand it, and don't know oftentimes what Ideas to affix to the Terms he makes use of; and. fo far as I can learn, he himfelf has not any clear Notions

Notions of the Thing, now his Spirit of Divi-nation is gone from him. However the Manner in which he fays he obtain'd this Spirit of Divination was this, He was admitted into the Presence of a GREAT MAN, who inform'd him, that he lov'd, pitied, and defired to do him Good. 'Twas not in this World that he faw the Great Man, but in a World above at a vast Distance from this. The great Man, he fays, was cloathed with the Day; yea with the brighteft Day he ever faw; a Day of many Years, yea of everlafting Continuance ! This whole World, he fays, was drawn upon him, fo that in him, the Earth and all Things in it might be feen. I ask'd him, if Rocks, Mountains and Seas was drawn upon, or appear'd in him? He reply'd, that every Thing that was beautiful and lovely in the Earth was upon him, and might be feen by looking on him, as well as if one was on the Earth to take a View of them there. By the fide of the great Man, he fays, flood his SHADDOW or Spirit; for he us'd (Chichung) the Word they commonly make use of to express that of the Man which furvives the Body, which Word properly fignifies a Shaddow. This Shaddow, he fays, was as lovely as the Man himfelf, and fill'd all Places, and was moft agreeable as well as wonderful to him.----Here he fays, he tarried fome Time, and was un-fpeakably entertain'd and delighted with a View of the great Man, of his Shaddow or Spirit

Spirit, and of all Things in him. And what is most of all astonishing, he imagines all this to have pass'd before he was born. He never had been, he fays, in this World at that Time. And what confirms him in the Belief of this, is, that the great Man told him, that he must come DOWN to Earth, be born of fuch a Wo-man, meet with fuch and fuch Things, and in particular, that he fhould once in his Life be guilty of Murder. At this he was difpleafed, and told the great Man, he would never Mur-der. But the great Man reply'd, I have faid it, and it fhall be fo. Which has accordingly happened. At this Time, he fays, the great Man ask'd him what he would chufe in Life. He replied, first to be a Hunter, and aftewards to be a Powwow or Diviner. Whereupon the great Man told him, he fhould have what he defired, and that his Shaddow should go along with him down to Earth, and be with him forever. There was, he fays, all this Time no Words spoken between them. The Conference was not carried on' by any human Language, but they had a kind of mental Intelligence of each others Thoughts, Difpofitions and Propofals. After this, he fays, he faw the great Man no more ; but fuppofes he now came down to Earth to be born, but the Spirit or Shaddow of the great Man still attended him, and ever after continued to appear to him in Dreams and other Ways, until he felt the Power of God's Word upon his Heart; fince which it has intirely left him. This Spirit, he fays, us'd fometimes to di-

This Spirit, he fays, us'd fometimes to direct him in Dreams to go to fuch a Place and hunt, affuring him he fhould there meet with Succefs, which accordingly prov'd fo. And when he had been there fometime, the Spirit would order him to another Place. So that he had Succefs in Hunting according to the great Man's Promife made to him at the Time of his chufing this Employment.

There were fome Times when this Spirit came upon him in a special Manner, and he was full of what he faw in the great Man: And then, he fays, he was all Light, and not only Light himfelf, but it was Light all around him, fo that he could fee thro' Men, and knew the Thoughts of their Hearts, &c. These Depths of Satan I leave to others to fathom or to dive into as they pleafe, and don't pretend, for my own Part, to know what Ideas to affix to fuch -Terms, and can't well guess what. Conceptions of Things these Creatures have at these Times when they call themfelves all Light. But my Interpreter tells me, that he heard one of them tell a certain Indian the fecret Thoughts of his Heart, which he had never divulg'd. The Cafe was this, the Indian was bitten with a Snake and was in extreme Pain with the Bite. Whereupon the Diviner (who was applied to for his Recovery) told him, that at fuch a Tme he had promifed, that the next Deer he kill'd, he

he would Sacrifice it to fome great Power, but, had broken his Promife. And now, faid he, that great Power has order'd this Snake to bite you for your Neglect. The Indian confefs'd it was fo, but faid he had never told any Body of it. But as Satan, no doubt, excited the Indian to make that Promise, 'twas no wonder he should be able to communicate the Matter to the Conjurer.

These Things ferve to fix them down in their Idolatry, and to make them believe there is no fafety to be expected, but by their continuing to offer fuch Sacrifices. And the Influence that thefe Powwows have upon them, either thro' the Efteem or Fear they have of them, is no fmall hindrance to their embracing Christianity,

To remove this Difficulty, I have labour'd to fhew the Indians, that these Diviners have no Power to recover the Sick, when the God whom Christians ferve, has determin'd them for Death, and that the supposed great Power who influences these Diviners has himself no Power in this Cafe : And that if they feem to recover any by their magick Charms, they are only fuch as the God I preach'd to them, had determined fhould recover, and who would have recover'd without their Conjurations, &c. And when I have apprehended them afraid of embracing Chriftianity, leaft they fhould be inchanted and poifoned, I have endeavour'd to relieve their Minds of this Fear, by asking them, why their Powwows did not inchant and poilon me, Ff feeing leeing they had as much Reason to hate me for preaching to, and defiring them to become Christians, as they could have to hate them in Case they should actually become such. And that they might have an Evidence of the Power and Goodness of God engag'd for the Protection of Christians, I ventur'd to bid aChallenge to all their Powwows and great Powers to do their worst on me first of all, and thus labour'd to tread down their Influence.

Many Things further might be offer'd upon this Head, but thus much may fuffice for a Reprefentation of their Averfion to, and Prejudice against Christianity, the Springs of it, and the Difficulties thence arifing.

Secondly. Another great Difficulty I have met with in my Attempts to christianize the Indians, has been to convey divine Truths to their Un erstandings, and to gain their affent to them as such.

In the first Place, I labour'd under a very great Difadvantage for want of an Interpreter, who had a good Degree of doctrinal as well as experimental Knowledge of divine Things: In both which Ref. ecs my prefent Interpreter was very defective when I first employ'd him, as I noted in the Account I before gave of him. And 'twas fometimes extremely difcouraging to me, when I could not make him understand what I defign'd to communicate; when Truths of the last Importance appear'd foolifbnefs to bim for want of a fpiritual Understanding and Reliff

Relish of them; and when he address'd the Indians in a lifeles indifferent Manner, without any Heart-Engagement or Fervency: And especially when he appear'd heartless and irrefolute about making Attempts for the Con-version of the indians to Christianity, as he fre-quently did. For altho' he had a defire that they should conform to Christian Manners (as l elfewhere observed) yet being abundantly acquainted with their ftrong Attachment to their own superstitious Notions, and the difficulty of bringing them off, and having no Senfe of divine Power and Grace, nor Dependance upon an almighty Arm for the accomplifhment of this Work, he us'd to be discourag'd, and tell me, It signifies Nothing for us to try, they will never turn, &c. So that he was a diftreffing Weight and Burden to me. And here I should have funk scores of Times, but that God in a remarkable. Manner fupported me; fometimes by giving me full Satisfaction that he himfelf had called me to this Work, and thence a fecret Hope that fometime or other I might meet with Success in it; or if not, that my Judgment should notwithstanding be with the Lord, and my Work with my God. Sometimes by giving me a Senfe of his Almighty Power, and that his Hand was not fortned. Sometimes by affording me a fresh and lively View of some remarkable Freedom and Affistance I had been repeatedly favour'd with in Prayer for the Ingathering of these Heathens F f 2 fome fome fome Years before, even before I was a Miffionary, and a refreshing Sense of the Stability and Faithfulness of the divine Promises, and that the Prayer of Faith should not fail.

Thus I was fupported under thefe Trials, and the Method God was pleas'd to take for the Removal of this Difficulty (refpecting my Interpreter) I have fufficiently reprefented eliewhere.

Another Thing that render'd it very Difficult to convey' divine Truths to the Underflandings of the Indians, was the Defectiveness of their Language, the want of Terms to express and convey Ideas of spiritual Things. There are no Words in the Indian Language to answer our English Words, Lord, Saviour, Salvation, Sinner, Justice, Condemnation, Faith, Repentance, Justification, Adoption, Sanchification, Grace, Glory; Heaven, with scores of the like Importance.

The only Methods I can make Use of for furmounting this Difficulty, are, either to deferibe the Things at large defign'd by these Terms, as if I was speaking of Regeneration, to call it, the Heart's being made Good. Or else I must introduce the English Terms into their Language, and fix the precise Meaning of them, that they may know what I intend whenever I use them.

But what renders it much more Difficult to convey divine Truths to the Understandings of these Indians, is, that there seems to be no Foundation

dation in their Minds to begin upon, I niean no Truths that may be taken for granted as be-ing already known, while I am attempting to instil others. And divine Truths having tuch a neceffary Connection with, and Dependance upon each other, I find it extremely difficult in my first Address to Pagans to begin and difcourfe of them in their proper Order and Connection, without having Reference to Truths not yet known----without taking for granted fuch. Things as need first to be taught and prov'd. There is no Point of Christian Doctrine but what they are either wholly ignorant of, or extremely confus'd in their Notions about. And therefore 'tis neceffary they fhould be instructed in every Truth, even in those that are the most easy and obvious to the Understanding, and which a Perfon educated under GofpelLight would be ready to pass over in filence, as not imagining that any rational Creature could be ignorant of.

The Method I have usually taken in my first Addreffes to Pagans, has been to introduce myfelf by faying, That I was come among them with a Defire and Defign of teaching them fome Things which I prefum'd they did not know, and which, I trusted, would be for their Comfort and Happines if known, defiring they would give their Attention, and hoping they might meet with Satisfaction in my Discourse. And thence have proceeded to observe, that there are two Things belonging to every Man, which which I call the Soul and Body. Thefe I endeavour to diffinguish from each other by ob-ferving to them, that there is something in them that is capable of Joy and Pleafure, when their Bodies are fick and much pained. And on the Contrary, that they find fomething with-in them that is fearful, forrowful, afhamed, &c. and confequently very uneafy when their Bo-dies are in perfect Health. I then observe to them, that this which rejoices in them (perhaps at the fight of 10me Friend who has been long absent) when their Bodies are Sick and in Pain- -- this which is forrowful, frighted, asham'd, &c. and confequently uncafy when their Bodies are perfectly at eafe---This I call the Soul. And altho' it can't be feen like the other Part of the Man, viz. the Body, yet'tis as real as their Thoughts, Defires, &c. which are likewife Things that can't be feen.

I then further observe, that this' Part of the Man which thinks, rejoices, grieves, &c. will live after the Body is dead. For the Proof of this, I produce the Opinion of their Fath.rs, who (as I am told by very aged Indians now living) always fuppos'd there was fomething of the Man that would furvive the Body. And if I can, for the Proof of any Thing I affert, fay, as St. Paul to the Athenians, as certain alfo of your own Sages have faid, 'tis fufficient. And having eftablish'd this Point, I next obferve, that what I have to fay to them, respects the confcious Part of this Man; and that with with Relation to its State after the Death of the Body, and that I am not come to treat with them about the Things that concern the prefent World.

This Method I am oblig'd to take, becaufe they will otherwife intirely miftake the Defign of my Preaching, and fuppofe the Bufinefs I. am upon, is fomething that relates to the prefent World, having never been 'call'd together by the white People upon any other Occafion, but only to be treated with about, the Sale of Lands, or fome other fecular Bufinefs. And I find it almost impossible to prevent their imagining that I am engag'd in the fame, or fuch like Affairs, and to beat it into them that my Concern is to treat with them about their invifule Part, and that with Relation to its future State.

But having thus opened the Way by diftinguifhing between Soul and Body, and fhewing the Immortality of the former, and that my Bufinefs is to treat with them in Order to their Happinefs in a futureState, I proceed to difcourfe of theBeing & Perfections of God, particularly of his iternity, Unity, Self-Sufficiency, infiniteWifdom, and Almighty Power. 'Tis neceffary in the first Place, to teach them that God is from Everla/ling, and fo diftinguifh'd from all Creatures; tho' it is very difficult to communicate any thing of that Nature to them, they having no Terms in their Language to fignify an Eternity a Parte ante. 'Tis likewife neceffary to difcourfe of the the divine Unity, in Order to confute the Notions they feem to have of a Plurality of Gods. The divine All-fufficiency must also necessfarily be mentioned, in Order to prevent their imagining that God was unhappy while alone, before the Formation 'of his Creatures. And fomething respecting the divine Wisdom and Power feems necessfary to be infifted upon, in Order to make Way for discoursing of God's Works.

Having offered fome Things upon the divine Perfections mention'd, I proceed to open the Work of Creation in general, and in particular God's Creation of Man in a State of Uprightnefs and Happinefs, placing them in a Garden of Pleasure; the Means and Manner of their Apostacy from that State, and loss of that Happineis. But before I can give a Relation of their Fall from God, I am oblig'd to make a large Digreffion in Order to give an Account of the Original and Circumstances of their -Tempter, his Capacity of affuming the Shape of a Serpent, from his being a Spirit without a Body, &c. Whence I go on to show, the Rains of our fallen State, the mental Blindness and vicious Dispositions our first Parents then contracted to themselves, and propagated to all their Posterity: The numerous Calamities bro't upon them and theirs by this Apostacy from upon them and theirs by this Apoftacy from God, and the exposedness of the whole human Race to eternal Perdition. And thence labour to shew them, the Necessity of an Almighty SAVIOUR

SAVIOUR to deliver us from this deplorable State, as well as of a divine Revelation to inftruct us in, and direct us agreeable to the Will of God.

And thus the Way, by fuch an introduc-tory Difcourfe, is prepared for opening the Gofpel Scheme of Salvation thro' the great Redee-mer, and for treating of those Doctrines that immediately relate to the Souls Renovation by the divine Spirit, and Preparation for a State of everlasting Blessedness.

In giving fuch a Relation of Things to Pagans, 'tis not a little difficult (as was observ'd before) to deliver Truths in their proper Order, without interfering, and without taking for granted Things not as yet known: To discourte of them in a familiar Manner, suited to the Capacities of Heathen : To illustrate them by eafy and natural Similitudes : To obviate or answer the Objections they are dispos'd to make against the feveral Particulars of it, as well as to take Notice of, and confute their contrary Notions.

What has fometimes been very difcouraging in my first Discourses to them, is, that when I've diffinguish'd between the present and fu-ture State, and shown them, that 'twas my Business to treat of these Things that concern the Life to come, they have some of them mock'd, look'd upon thefe Things of no Im-portance; have fcarce had a Curiofity to hear, and perhaps walk'd off before I had half done Ge

my Difcourfe. And in fuch a Cafe no Impreffions can be made upon their Minds to gain their Attention. They are not awed by hearing of the Anger of God engag'd againft Sinners, of everlafting Punifhment as the Portion of Gofpel-Neglecters. They are not allured by hearing of the Bleffednefs of thofe who embrace, and obey the Gofpel. So that to gain their Attention to my Difcourfes, has often been as difficult as to give them a juft Notion of the Defign of them, or to open Truths in their proper Order. Another Difficulty naturally falling under this Head I am now upon, is, that 'tis next to impossible to bring them to a ational Conviction that they are Sinners by Nature, and that their Hearts are corrupt and finful, unless one could charge them with fome grofs Acts of Immorality, fuch as the Light of Nature condemns. If they can be charged with Behaviour contrary to-the Commands of the Second Table---with manifest abuses of their Neighbour, they will generally own fuch Actions to be wrong, but then they feem as if they thought 'twas only the Actions that were finful, and not their Hearts. But if they can't be charg'd with fuch fcandalous Actions, they feem to have no Confcioufnefs of Sin and Guilt at all, as I had Occafion to observe in my Journal of March 24th. So that 'tis very difficult to convince them rationally of that which is readily acknowledged (tho'

(the alas! rarely felt) in the Christian World, viz. That we are all Sinners.

The Method I take to convince them we are Sinners by Nature, is, to lead them to an Obfervation of their little Children, how they will appear in a Rage, fight and strike their Mothers, before they are able to fpeak or walk, while they are fo young that it is plain they are incapable of learning fuch Practices. And the Light of Nature in the Indians condemning Such Behaviour in Children towards their Parents, they muft own thefe Tempers and Ac-tions to be wrong and finful. And the Children having never learned these Things, they mult have been in their Natures, and confequently they must be allowed, to be by Nature the Chil-dren of Wrath. The fame I observe to them with respect to the Sin of Lying. (which their Children feem much inclined to) They tell Lies without being taught fo to do, from their own natural Inclination, as well as against Reftraints, and after Corrections for that Vice, which proves them Sinners by Nature, &c.

And further, in Order to fhew them their Hearts are all corrupted and finful, I observe to them, that this may be the Case and they not be fensible of it thro' the Blindness of their Minds. That 'tis no Evidence they are not finful, because they don't know and feel it. I then mention all the Vices I know the Indians to be guilty of, and so make Use of these finful Streams to convince them the Iountain is corrupt. And this is the End for which 1 mention their wicked Practices to them, not because I expect to bring them to an effectual Reformation meerly by inveighing against their Immoralities; but hoping they may hereby be convinced of the Corruption of their Hearts, and awakened to a Sense of the Depravity and Misery of their fallen State.

Mifery of their fallen State. And for the fame Purpofe, viz. to convince them they are Sinners, I fometimes open to them, the great Command of loving God with all the Heart, Strength and Mind. Shew them the Reafonablenefs of loving him who has made, preferv'd and dealt bountifully with us: And then labour to flew them their utter Neglect in this Regard, and that they have been to far from loving God in this Manner, that on the Contrary he has not been in all their Thoughts.

Thefe, and fuch like, are the Means I have made Ufe of in Order to remove this Difficulty, but if it be ask'd after all how 'twas furmounted? I muft anfwer, God himfelf was pleafed to do it with Regard to a Number of thefe Indians, by taking his Work into his own Hand, and making them feel at Heart, that they were both finful and miferable. And in the Day of God's Power, whatever, was fpoken to them from God's Word, ferv'd to convince them they were Sinners (even the moft melting Invitations of the Gofpel) and to fill them with folicitude to obtain a Deliverance from that deplorable State.

Further,

Further, 'Tis extremely difficult to give them any just Notion of the Undertaking of Christ in Behalf of Sinners, of his obeying and fuffering in their Room and Stead, in Order to atone for their Sins, and procure their Salvation, and of their being justified by his Righteoufness imputed to them. - They are in general wholly unacquainted with civil Laws and Proceedings, and know of no fuch Thing as one Perfons being fubfituted as a Surety in the Room of another, nor have any kind of Notion of civil Judicatures, of Perfons being arraign'd, try'd, judg'd, condemn'd or acquitted. And hence tis very difficult to treat with them upon any Thing of this Nature, or that bears any Relation to legal Procedures. And altho' they can't but have fome Dealings with the white People in Order to procure Cloathings with the come People in Order to procure Cloathing and other Neceffaries of Life, yet 'tis fearce ever known that any one pays a Penny for another, but each one ftands for himfelf. Yet this is a Thing that may be fuppos'd, they feldom practic'd among them, and they may be made to underftand, that if a Friend of theirs pays a Debt for them, it Procure that upon that Confideration they 'tis RIGHT that upon that Confideration they themfelves fhould be difcharg'd.

And this is the only Way I can take in Order to give them a proper Notion of the Undertaking and Satisfaction of Christ in Behalf of Sinners. But here naturally arife two Questions. First, What need there was of Christ's obeying and fuffering for us, why God would not look upon us us to be good Creatures (to use my common Phrase for Justification) on Account of our own good Deeds? In answer to which I sometimes. observe, that a Child's being never fo orderly and obedient to its Parents to Day, does by no Means fatisfy for its contrary Behaviour Yefterday: And that if it be loving and obedient at (ome Times only, and at other Times crofs' and difobedient, it never can be look'd upon a good Child for its own Doings, fince it ought to have behav'd in an obedient Manner always. This Simile ftrikes their Minds in an easy and forcible Manner, and ferves, in a Meafure, to illustrate the Point. For the Light of Nature (as before hinted) teaches them, that their Children ought to be obedient to them, and that at all Times; and fome of them are very fevere with them for the Contrary Behaviour. This I apply in the plainest Manner to our Behaviour towards God, and fo fhew them, that 'tis impoffible for us, fince we have finned against God, to be justified before him by our own Doings; fince prefent and future Goodnefs, altho' perfect and confant could never fatisfy for past Milconduct.

A Second Queftion, is, if our Debt was (o great, and if we all deferved to fuffer, how one Perfons fuffering was sufficient to answer for the whole? Here I have no better Way to illustrate the infinite value of Christ's Obedience and Sufferings, arising from the Dignity and Excellency of his Person, than to shew them the superior Value of Gold to that of baser Metals, and that a fmall Quantity of this will difcharge a greater Debt than a vaft Quantity of the common Copper Pence.

But after all 'tis extremely difficult to treat with them upon this great Doctrine of Justification by imputed Righteon [nefs.

I fcarce know how to conclude this Head, fo many Things occurring that might properly be added here : But what has been mention'd, may ferve for a Specimen of the Difficulty of conveying divine Truths to the Understandings of these Indians, and of gaining their Affent to them as fuch.

Thirdly. Their inconvenient Situations, Savage Manners, and unhappy Method of living, have been an unspeakable Difficulty and Discouragement to me in my Work.

They generally live in the Wildernefs, and tome that I have visited, at great Distances from the English Settlements, which has obliged me to travel much, and oftentimes over hideous Rocks, Mountains and Swamps----frequently to lie out in the open Woods - -depriv'd me of the common Comforts of Life, and greatly impair'd my Health.

When I have got among them in the Wildernefs, I've often met with great Difficulty in my Attempts to difcourfe to them----Have fometimes fpent Hours with them in attempting to anfwer their Objections and remove their Jealoufies, before I could prevail upon them to give mea Hearing upon Chriftianity.----Have been been often oblig'd to preach in their Houfes in in cold and windy Weather, when they have been full of Smoak and Cinders, as well as unfpeakably filthy; which has many Times thrown me into violent fick Head-Acks.

While I have been preaching, their Children have frequently cried to that Degree, 1 could fcarcely be heard, and their Pagan Mothers would take no Manner of Care to quiet them. At the fame Time, perhaps, fome have been laughing and mocking at divine Truths.--- Others playing with their Dogs----Whittleing Sticks and the like. And this, in many of them, not from Spite and Prejudice, but for want of better Manners.

A View of these Things has been not a little finking and Discouraging to me- --has fometimes fo far prevail'd upon me as to render me intirely dispirited, and wholly unable to go on with my Work; and given me such a melancholly Turn of Mind, that I have many Times thought I could never more address an Indian upon religious Matters.

The folitary Manner in which I've generally been oblig'd to live, on Account of their inconvenient Situations, has been not a little preffing. I have fpent the greater Part of my Time for more than three Years paft, intirely alone, as to any agreeable Society, and a very confiderable Part of it have liv'd in Houfes by myfelf, without having the Company of any human Creature. And fometimes have fcarcely feen an English Man for for a Month or fix Weeks together.---Have had my Spirits fo deprefs'd with melancholly Views of the Tempers and Conduct of Pagans, when I've been for fome Time confin'd with them, that I have felt as if banifbed from all the People of God.

I have likewife been wholly alone in my Work, there being no other Miffionary among the Indians in either of these Provinces. And other Ministers neither knowing the peculiar Difficulties, nor most advantagious Methods of performing my Work, have been capable to afford me little Affistance or Support in any Respect.

A feeling of the great Difadvantages of being alone in this Work, has difcover'd to me the Wifdom and Goodnefs of the great Head of the Church in fending forth his Difciples two and two in Order to proclaim the facred Myfteries of his Kingdom; and has made me long for a Colleague to be a Partner of my Cares; Hopes and Fears, as well as Labours amongft the Indians; and excited me to use fomeMeans in Order to procure tuch an Affafant, altho' I have not as yet been fo happy as to meet with Succefs in that Refpect.

I have not only met with great Difficulty in travelling to, and for fometime refiding among the Indians far remote in the Wildernefs, but also in living with them in one Place and another more flatedly----Have been oblig'd to remove my Refidence from Place to Place -----Have procured, and after fome poor tafhion, H h furnished three Houses for living among them, in the Space of about three Years pait----One at Kaunanmeeh, about Twenty Miles diftant from the City of Albany; one at the Forks of Delaware in Pennsylvania, and one at Grofweek-fung in New Jersey. And the Indians in the latter of thefe Provinces (with whom I have latterly fpent most of my Time) being not long fince remov'd from the Place where they liv'd the last Winter, (the Reason of which I mention'd in my Journal of March 24. and May 4.) I have now no House at all of my own, but am oblig'd to lodge with an English Family at a confiderable Diftance from them, to the great Difadvantage of my Work among them; they being like Children, that continually need Advice and Direction, as well as Incitement to their worldly Business.

The Houses I have formerly liv'd in are at great Diffances from each other; the two nearest of them being more than Seventy Miles apart, and neither of them within Fisteen Miles of the Place where the Indians now live.

The Indians are a People very poor and indigent, and fo defitute of the Comforts of Life, at fome Seafons of the Year efpecially, that 'tis impoffible for a Perfon who has any Pity to them, and Concern for the Christian Intereft, to live among them without confiderable Expence, efpecially in Time of Sicknefs. If any Thing be beftow'd on one (as in fome Cafes 'tis peculiarly neceffary, in Order to remove their Pagan Pagan Jealoufies, and engage their Friendship to Christianity) others, be there never fo many of them, expect the fame Treatment. And while they retain their Pagan Tempers, they difcover little Gratitude, or even Manhood amidft all the Kindneffes they receive .--- If they make any Presents, they expect double Satis-faction. And Christianity itself don't at once cure them of these ungrateful and unmanly Tempers.

They are in general unfpeakably indolent and flothful,---have been bred up in Idlenefs--know little about cultivating Land, or indeed of engaging vigoroufly in any other Bufinefs .---So that I am obliged to inftruct them in, as well as prefs them to the Performance of their Work, and take the Over fight of all their fecular Business. They have little or no Ambition or Refolution .--- Not one in a Thoufand of them that has the Spirit of a Man. And 'tis next to impossible to make them fensible of the Duty and Importance of being active, diligent and industrious in the Management of their worldly Bufinefs ; and to excite any Spirit and Promptitude of that Nature in them. When I have labour'd to the utmost of my Ability to shew them of what Importance 'twould be to the Chriftian Intereft among them, as well as to their worldly Comfort, for them to be laborious and prudent in their Bufinefs, and to furnish themselves with the Comforts of Life; how this would incline the Pagans to come come among them, and fo put them under the Means of Salvation, how 'twould encourage religious Persons of the white People to help them, as well as ftop the Mouths of others that were difpos'd to cavil against them ; how they might by this Means pay those they owe their just Dues, and so prevent Trouble from coming upon themselves, and Reproach upon their Chrif-tian Profession. I fay, when I have endea-vour'd to represent this Matter in the most advantagious Light I possibly could, they have indeed afsented to all I faid, but been little mov'd, and confequently have acted like themselves, or at least too much fo. Tho' it must be acknowledged, that those who appear to have a Senfe of divine Things, are confiderbly amended in this' Respect, and 'tis hopeful, that Time will make a yet greater Alteration upon them for the better.

The Concern I have had for the fetting of these ladians in $N.\omega$ -ferfey in a compact Form, in Order to their being a Christian Congregation, in a Capacity of enjoying the Means of Grace; the Care of managing their worldly Business in Order to this End, and to their having a comfortable livelihood, have been more pressing to my Mind, and cost me more Labour and Fatigue, for feveral Months past, than all my other Work among them.

Their wandering to and fro' in order to procure the needfaries of Life, is another Difficulty that attends my Work. This has often depriv'd me of Opportunities Christianizing of the Indians.

Opportunities to discourse to them----Has thrown them in the way of Temptation, either among Pagans further remote where they have gone to hunt, who have laugh'd at them for hearkening to Christianity: Or among white People more horribly wicked, who have often made them drunk, and then got their Commodities, fuch as Skins, Baskets, Brooms, Shovels and the like, (with which they defign'd to have bought Corn and other neceffaries of Life for themfelves and Families) for, it may be, nothing but a little ftrong Liquor, and then fent them Home empty. So that for the Labour, perhaps, of feveral Weeks, they have got nothing but the Satisfaction of being Drunk once; and have not only loft their Labour, but (which is infinitely worfe) the Impreffions of divine Things that were made upon their Minds hefore.

But I forbear enlarging upon this Head. The few Hints I have given may be fufficient to give thinking Perfons fome Apprehensions of the Difficulties attending my Work, on Account of the inconvenient Situations and Savage Manners of the Indians, as well as of their unhappy Method of living.

Fourthly. The last Difficulty I shall mention, as having attended my Work, is, what has proceeded from the Attempts that some ill-minded. Persons have designedly made, to hinder the Propagation of the Gospel, and a Work of divine Grace among the Indians.

Difficulties attending the

The Indians are not only of themfelves prejudic'd againft Christianity, on the various Accounts I have already mention'd, but, as if this was not enough, there are fome in all Parts of the Country where I have preach'd to them, who have taken Pains industriously to bind them down in Pagan Darkness. Neglecting to enter into the Kingdom of God themselves, and labouring to hinder others.

After the Beginning of the religious Concern among the Indians in New Jerley, some endeavour'd to prejudice them against me and the Truths I taught them, by the most fneaking, unmanly and falfe Suggestions of Things that had no Manner of Foundation but in their own Brains. Some Particulars of this Kind I formerly took Notice of in one of the Remarks made upon my Journal concluded the 20th of November last. And might have added yet more, and of another Nature, than those there mention'd, had not Modesty forbidden me to mention what was too obscene to be thought of. But, thro' the Mercy of God, they were never able by all their abominable Infinuations, flouting Jeers, and down-right Lies, to create in the b dians those Jealoufies they defir'd to poffels them with, and fo were never fuffer'd to hinder the Work of Grace among them.

But when they faw they could not prejudice the Indians against me, nor hinder them from receiving the Gospel, they then nois'd it thro' the Country, that I was undoubtedly a Roman Catholick.

Christianizing of the Indians.

Catholick, and that I was gathering together and training up the Indians in Order to ferve a Popi/b Intereft; that I fhould quickly Head them and cut Peoples Throats.

What they pretended gave them Reafon for this Opinion, was, that they underftood I had a Commission from Scotland. Whereupon they could with great affurance fay, All Scotland is turn'd to the Pretender, and this is but a Popifs Plot to make a Party for him here, &c. And fome (I am inform'd) actually went to the civil Authority with Complaints against me, but only labour'd under this Unhappiness, that when they came, they had nothing to complain of, and could give no colour of Reason why they attempted any fuch Thing, or defired the civil Authority to take Cognizance of me, having not a Word to alledge againft my *Preach-*ing or Practice, only they furmifed that becaufe the Indians appear'd fo very loving and orderly, they had a Defign of impofing upon People by that Means, and fo of getting a better Advantage to cut their Throats. And what Temper they would have had the Indians appear with in Order to have given no Occasion, nor have left any Room for fuch a fufpicion, I can't tell. I prefume if they had appear'd with the contrary Temper, 'twould quickly have been observ'd of them, that they were now grown (urly, and in all probability were preparing to cut Peo-ples Throats.

From

. Difficulties attending the

2.46

From a View of these Things I have had Occasion to admire the Wisdom and Goodness of God in providing so full and authentick a Commission for the undertaking and carrying on of this Work, without which (notwithftanding the Charitableness of the Defign) it had probably met with Molestation.

The Indians who have been my Hearers in New-Jerfey, have likewife been fued for Debt, and threatned with Impriformment more fince I came among them (as they inform me) than in feven Years before. The Reafon of this, I fuppofe, was, they left frequenting those tippling Houses where they us'd to confume most of what they gain'd by Hunting and other. Means. And these Perfons seeing that the Hope of future gain was lost, were refolved to make fure of what they could. And perhaps fome of them put the Indians to trouble, purely out of Spite at their embracing Christianity:

This Conduct of theirs has been very diffreffing to me; for I was fenfible, that if they did imprifon any one that embrac'd, or hearken'd to Chriftianity, the News of it would quickly fpread among the Pagans hundreds of Miles diftant, who would immediately conclude I had involv'd them in this Difficulty, and thence be fill'd with Prejudice against Chriftianity, and ftrengthned in their Jealousty that the whole of my Defign among them, was to enfnare and enflave them. And I knew that fome of the Indians upon Susquabannab had made this Objection jection against hearing me Preach, viz. That they understood a Number of Indians in Maryland fome hundred of Miles distant, who had been uncommonly free with the English, were after a while put in Jail, fold, &c. Whence they concluded, 'twas best for them to keep at a Distance, and have nothing to do with Christians.

The Method I took in Order to remove this Difficulty, was, to prefs the Indians with all poffible fpeed to pay their Debts, and to exhort those of them that had Skins or Money, and were themfelves in a good Measure free of Debt, to help others that were opprefs'd. And frequently upon such Occasions I have paid. Money out of my own Pocket, which I have not as yet receiv'd again.

These are some of the Difficulties I have met with from the Conduct of those who, notwithstanding their Actions so much tend to hinder the Propagation of Christianity, would (I suppose) be loth to be reputed Pagans.

Thus I have endeavoured to answer the Demands of the Honourable Society in Relation to each of the Particulars mention'd in their Letter.

If what I have written may be in any Meafure agreeable and Satisfactory to them, and ferve to excite in them, or any of God's People, a Spirit of Prayer and Supplication for the Furtherance of a Work of Grace among the

P. S. Since the Conclusion of the preceding Journal (which was defign'd to represent the Operations of one Year only, from the first Time of my Preaching to the Indians in Newfer(sy) I administred the Sacrament of the Lord s-Supper a second Time in my Congregation, viz. on the 13th of July. At which Seafon, there were more than Thirty Commu-nicants of the Indians, altho' divers were abfent who should have communicated : So confiderably has God enlarg'd our Number fince the former Solemnity of this Kind, describ'd somewhat particularly in my Journal. This ap-pear'd to be a Seafon of divine Power and Grace, not unlike the former; a Seafon of refreshing to God's People in general, and 'of awakening to feme others, altho' the divine Influence manifeftly attending the feveral Services of the Solemnity, feem'd not fo great and powerful as at the former Scafon.

ATTESTATION,

The ATTESTATION of the Rev. Mr. WILLIAM TENNENT of Freeebod.

CINCE my dear and Reverend Brother Brai-D nerd has at length confented to the Pub-lication of his Journal, I gladly embrace this Opportunity of testifying, that our altogether glorious Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST has given fuch a Difplay of his Almighty Power and Sovereign Grace, not only in the external Reformation, but (in a Judgment of Charity) the faving Conversion of a confiderable Number of Indians, that it is really wonderful to all Be. holders ! Tho' fome alas ! notwithstanding fufficient Grounds of Conviction to the Contrary, do joyn with the Devil, that avowed Enemy of God and Man, in endeavouring to prevent this glorious Work, by fuch Ways and Means as are mention'd in the aforefaid Journal, to which I must refer the Reader for a faithful, tho' very brief, account of the Time when, the place where, the Means by which, and Manner how, this wish'd for Work has been Manner how, this will'd for Work has been begun and carried on, by the great Head of the Church.-- -- And this I can more confidently do, not only becaufe I am intimately acquaint-ed with the Author of the Journal, but on ac-count of my own perfonal Knowledge of the Matters of Fact recorded in it refpecting the Work itfelf. ---- As I live not far from the *In*dians, I have been much converlant with them, both at their own Place, and in my own Pariff rifh, (where they generally convene for Publick Worthip in Mr. Brainerd's abfence) and I think it my Duty to acknowledge, that their Converfation hath often, under God, refreshed my Soul.

lation hath often, under God, refreshed my Soul. To conclude, It is my Opinion, that the Change wrought in those Savages, namely, from the Darkness of Paganism, to the Knowledge of the pure Gofpel of Chrift; from Sacrificing to Devils, to prefent themselves, Body and Soul, a living Sacrifice to God, and that not only from the Persuasion of their Minister, but from a clear Heart affecting Sense of its being their reasonable Service. This Change, I fay, is fo great, that none could effect it but he who worketh all Things after the good Pleasure of bis gun Will. And I would humbly hope, that this is only the first Fruits of a much greater Harvest to be brought in from among the Indians, by HIM who has promited to give his Son the Heathers for his Inheritance, and the uttermost Ends of the Earth for his Possession And hath alfo declared, That the whole Earth shall be filled with the Knowledge of the Lord, as the Waters cover the Sea .--- Even fo Lord JESUS come quickly. Amen and Amen.

I am, courteous Reader,

Freehold, August thy Soul's well wisher, 16. 1746. WILLIAM TENNENT. The ATTESTATION of the Reverend Mr. Mc'KNIGHT of Croswicks.

A S it must needs afford a facred Pleasure to fuch a cordially defire the Prosperity and Advancement

Advancement of the Redeemers Kingdom and Interest in the World ; to hear that our merciful and gracious God is in very deed fulfiling fuch precious Promifes as relate to the poor Heathen, by fending his everlafting Gospel among them, which, with the concurrence of his holy Spirit, is removing that worft than Egyptian Darknefs, whereby the God of this World has long held them in willing Subjection : So this Narrative will perhaps be more acceptable to the World, when it is confirm'd by the Teftimony of fuch as were either Eye Witneffes of this glorious dawn of Gospel Light among the benighted Pagans, or perfonally acquainted with those of them in whom (in a Judgment of Charity) a gracious Change ha been wrought. Therefore I the more willing join with my Brethren Mr. William Tennent an Mr. Brainerd, in affixing my Attestation to th foregoing Narrative, and look upon myfelf a. concern'd in Point of Duty both to God and his People to do fo, by Reafon that I live con tiguous to their Settlement, and have had frequent Opportunities of being present at thei. religious Meetings, where I have, with pleafing wonder, beheld, what I am ftrongly inclined to believe were the Effects of God's Almighty Power accompanying his own Truths ; more efpecially on the 8th Day of August 1745. in which, while the Word of God was preach'c by Mr. Brainerd, there appear'd an uncommor Solemnity among the Indians in general; but] am wholly unable 'to give a full Reprefentation of the furprifing Effects of God's Almighty Power that appear'd among them when publick Service was over, while Mr. Brainerd urg'd upon fome of them the abfolute Neceffity of a speedy clofure with Christ, the Holy Spirit feem'd to be pour'd out upon them in a plentious Meafure, infomuch as the Indians prefent in the Wigwam seem'd to be brought to the Jaylor's Cafe, Acts xvi. 30. utterly unable to conceal the Diffress and Perplexity of their Souls; this prompted the pious among them to bring the difpers'd Congregation together, who foon feem'd to be in the greateft extremity, fome earneftly beg-ging for Mercy, under a folemn Senfe of their perifhing Condition, (in their Language) while others were unable to arife from the Earth, to the great wonder of those white People that were present, (one of whom is by this Means, I truft, favingly brought to Chrift fince) nay, fo very ftrange was the Concern that appeared among these poor Indians in general, that I am ready to conclude, it might have been fufficient to have convinced an Atheift, that the Lord was indeed in the Place. I am for my part fully perfwaded that this glorious Work is true and genuine, whilft with Satisfaction I behold feveral of thefe Indians difcovering all the Symptoms of inward Holinefs in their Lives and Con-versation. —— I have had the Satisfaction of joining with them in their Service on the 11th of August 1746, which was a Day fet apart for imploring imploring the divine Bleffing on the Labours of their Minister among other Tribes of Indians at Sufquabanab, in all which they conducted themfelves with a very decent and becoming Gravity, and, as far as I am capable of judging, they may be propos'd as Examples of Piety and Godlines's to all the white People around them, which indeed is justly marvelous in our Eyes, especially confidering what they lately have been.

O may the glorious God fhortly bring about that defirable Time, when our exalted Immanuel fhall have the Heathen given for his Inheritance, and the uttermost Parts of the Earth for his Possefition ATTESTATION of the E'ders and Deacons of the Presbyterian Church in Freehold.

W^E whofe Names are under written, being Elders and Deacons of the Presbyterian Church in Freeheld, do hereby teftify, that in our humble Opinion, God, even our Saviour, has brought a confiderable Number of the Indians in these Parts, to a faving Union with himself.

This we are perfuaded of from a perfonal Acquaintance with them, whom we not only hear (peak of the great Doftrines of the Gofpei with Humility, Affection and Understanding, but we fee them walk (as far as Man can Judge) foberly, righteously and godhy. We have joyned with them at the Lord's Supper, and do from our Hearts effecen them our Brethren in JESUS. For these who were not God's People, may now be called the Children of the living God: It is the Lord's Doing and it is marvelous in our Eyes. O that he may go on Conquering and to Conquer, until he has subdued all Things to himself. This is and shall be the unreigned Defires and Prayers of
