

Miller Saml

Now are the President Mr. Howell will be turning the favor to look on you in the future

Honored & dear Sir,  Princeton, Jan^y. 8 1835.

This letter will be handed to you by the Reverend Daniel Newell, the General Agent appointed by the "Society of the Alumni" of the College of New-Jersey, for carrying into effect the resolution of that body to raise $100,000 for the enlargement of the Institution.

The Committee of the Society of Alumni, who selected & have commissioned Mr. Newell as their general Agent, have great confidence in his wisdom & fidelity, & can very cordially recommend him to the kind offices & patronage of the friends of the College.

I need not say that the Society under the authority of which Mr. Newell goes forth is the same of which you have been informed, & of which

You are the President. Mr. Newell will do himself the honor to wait on you in person, and has been taught to count largely on your cordial patronage, and on your friendly influence in reference to his agency in the South.

I will only take the liberty, Sir, of adding, that it would afford us all peculiar pleasure to be honored with your presence at our next anniversary meeting in Sept^r. next, at the time of the annual Commencement, when we hope you would witness the most satisfactory evidence that your Alma Mater does not decline, as she advances in life.

I have the honor to be Sir, with great respect, your obedient servant

Sam^l. Miller.

James Madison, Esquire,

Montpelier,

Virginia.
